Reference D. No 8, dated 16th February 1899

Submitted to Government with reference to para 2 - of the Accountant-General's report.

2. The applicant appears to have been suspended for - 15 days from the 31st August 1885, for not bringing to notice certain suspicious corrections in official records, connected with a case of transfer of putta. The Collector observes against item 5 - on page 2 of the pension application that "the character, conduct and past services of the applicant are such as to entitle him to "the favourable consideration of Government". Under the circumstances the Board recommends that no reduction be made in the pension

Order to 420 dated 20 August 1885

Read Sharanpur Tohil darsangi to 298 dated 13 August 1885

There can be no doubt that the alterations were made either by the Record Gunastal Durbatala or Gunastal Latta Lumanandya, but it is impossible to say which of them is guilty. There need only say that there was a good case against either of them, I would direct his prosecution

Assuming that Varkata Dor is innocent of any Criminal offence, he is nevertheless guilty of his own admission of a gross and culpable discharge of duty. He admits the Karwan and Copyist both drew his attention to the fact of the Corrections; these 2 Corrections are on the face of them suspicious, and yet he says he did not draw the attention of the Sher-todor to them. He is suspended for fifteen days and at the expiration of that period he will go to the Paurajam as gunastal, replacing Nagamtha Daidu, who will take his place at Sharanpur.

As to the well itself the Tohil dor is requested to inspect the place and report as to who number the well is in. It must be situated in some number, and it is not possible that a piece of ground so large as to contain a well can form actually a boundary line; a boundary line is formed by drawing a straight line (of imaginary breadth) between 2 demarcations between 2 points (boundary stones) and the well must be on one side or the other, or else be partly in one number and partly in the other. Probably the transfer was effected before Pattas were distributed for 293 Certainly for 294. The Tohil dor will see how the Pattas were allotted for these Tashis. There is no objection to the Tohil dor giving three Copies of the transfer deed as it is; showing erasures and alterations. It will be for the District Munsiff to decide whether it was altered or not before presentation in the Taluk. Records reviewed with his ari are here with returned.
