Go. No. 919 Finl. 2/23-11-95 says that the transfer of payment of pensions to Pondicherry, where there is no treasury and where the arrangements for payment necessarily involve risk, should not be permitted. Hence draft order for approval.

CNo. 1030 of 1903

Pondicherry 12 Feb
1899

To. The Under Secretary to Government.

Sir. I have the honor to inform that you will be kind enough to cause my pension to be drawn in Pondicherry and be paid to me by the British Consular agent. as I have removed from Bangalore to this place on Medical Certificate (Copy enclosed).
I retired from the Government service as Superintendent Central Jail Rajamundry on the 7 of April 1894. and the Government order sanctioning

Bangalore 14 Feb 1894

This is to certify that Mr. L. Ignell retired Superintendent Central Jail Rajamundry is in a bad state of health and I am of opinion that a trip to the sea side will prove of the greatest benefit to him
