1. On 2 C.C. de 404 Mucisuaru } of Brossor 11. 8. 97.

II Neglect of duty in allowing a criminal gang of Yerukalas to disappear from their surveillance on 27-12-97.

III. Perinial gang of Yerukalas composed of 12 males 14 females & 15 children was spotted by Inspectors Jay Singh & his men in Suttirapalli Div. on 11-11-97.

Two of them were taken in for B. Sheel & another was sent to jail for 6 months under Sec. 109 C.C.P. The rest of the gang was watched by 2 Constables Nos 404 & 369 were detailed to watch the gang from 11-12-97.

Then it was composed of 9 males 14 females & 15 children. There were some donkeys, dogs and Samans with them. They after moving through several villages of Brossor Station arrived at Brossor, village on the banks of the Krishna at about 7 miles from Brossor on the 25th December. On the 27th morning all of them disappeared with their donkeys & Samans when they were still under the surveillance of the two Constables perfectly knew that it was a bad gang & that they should have allowed it to disappear when they were specially deputed to watch it, is deeply reprehensible. A more glaring neglect of duty cannot be conceived. The whereabouts of the gang is still unknown.

IV. Brossor S.O. - 40 Const. de 743 says that he deputed Constables Nos 404 & 369 to watch the gang on 11-12-97 when it was at Brossor that he did not relieve these two Constables from that duty till the 28th, when they themselves returned to Station reported its disappearance as they did not communicate to him of their movements. The Head Constables conduct is not quite justifiable & he has been furnished for it - but - it would not in any way lessen the Constables responsibility in watching the gang.

Prisoner V.M. Venkataswami says that the gang was near Cronoor till the 27 morning & that there were 9 or 10 days & 5 or 6 huts with Samanas in it.

The two Constables admit their fault. They say that they were watching the gang carefully from the day they were ordered to watch it, that it was usual with the members of the gang to leave their halting place every morning after break fast & go about to the adjoining villages begging & return to the place in the evening, that they (the Constables) would remain at the halting place awaiting their return, that on the 27 morning, they went out from their halting place as usual, but did not at all return, that then they (the Constables) searched for them in different villages till the following evening & then returned to the Station & reported the matter.
They say that there were no doukrees or huts or any Samanas besides a few mud pots This is a lie. The S.H.O. & the P.M. say that there were doukrees, huts & Samanas in the place.
& date mats with the gang. The gang was halting at a place at not more than a furlong's distance from Cronoor. That it should disappear from such a place with all their things during day time goes to show that the Constables must have been absent from about the place at the time they escaped. That the Constables should have allowed all the members to go away from their place themselves remaining back according to their own story in charge of their pots is simply ridiculous & shows their ineptitude for Police service.

The conduct of these very two Constables was suspected in 1896, when they instead of handing over a Criminal Yerukalagang to a Police Launch at Moghalur made it over to a Sayer Gumbasta soon after they crossed the Krishna. They say that they had to do so, as the members of the gang grew troublesome as soon as they crossed the river.

In the present instance also their conduct is not above suspicion but there is no evidence to prove any motive to them.

Constable No 404 was fined one rupee & awarded a B.M. for allowing a gang to escape in 1893

I gave the two Constables personal hearing on 26-2-98 & was not at all satisfied with the excuse they gave for losing sight of the whole gang.

I am perfectly satisfied that they are guilty of culpable neglect of duty. The only punishment which I consider can be awarded for such a serious offence is dismissal & I accordingly recommended them for the same.

I suggested that it may take effect from 19-2-98 the date they were suspended to admit of their appearing before me to make their defence in person.

Repaired P.S. Prinevasa Chari 9/3/98 - Asst. Supt. of Police

Constables Nos 404 & 369 are dismissed the force from 19-2-98 the date they were placed under suspension. The allowing of gangs to escape is far too common in the Krishna District where these gangs give infinite trouble. The only way to stop these gangs being allowed to escape is by exemplary punishment and therefore confirm their dismissal.

CHIEF OFFICE OF THE

No. 2572.

MEMORANDUM.

Order of the Inspector General of Police on appeal petition from Muniyandani late a 2 class Constable No. 404 of Kistna District; appealing against the order of the Superintendent dismissing him from service for allowing a Criminal Gang of Yirikulus to disappear from his Surveillances.

There was clearly gross negligence and the offence was a serious one.
However consider that dismissal is too heavy a punishment in the absence of any evidence of anything more than Carelessness.
I think it sufficient if the Constable is suspended for six months from the date he was first suspended and after that allowed to rejoin. He should be taken away from the division in which the offence occurred.
