PENSION DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 139

From The Controller of Military Accounts, Madras,

Dated 11th Feb^y 1899, No. 8195.

FOR ORDERS.

The applicant was attacked with paralysis, and asked to be removed from the service on a pension from the 22nd Novr. 1897. He was accordingly removed, but the Head of office omitted to send him before the medical officer for production of the requisite medical certificate, and the man died in March following. As the incapacity has not been established by a medical certificate, the Controller of Mil^y Accts. enquires whether any claim to gratuity has been admitted by Govt. without the production of a medical certificate.
