Endorsement of the Accountant-General, Madras, No. I.A.E/538, dated 14th December 1898 on letter from the Collector of the Kurnool District. C.No.2658/T.O of 1898, dated 2nd December 1898.

O E D E E:-No.152, dated 17th February 1899.

The description by the Collector of Kurnool of the allowance of Rs.50 per mensem drawn by Sultan Muhammad Sahib Khan Sahib as "a personal allowance" is incorrect. The allowance of Rs.20 sanctioned in G.O.No.76 Political, dated 26th January 1893, having been granted for meritorious service and not for increased duties may be described as a "personal allowance" upon which pension may be calculated. The ~~allowment~~ allowance of Rs.30 sanctioned in G.O.No.1194 Political, dated 18th November 1886 was, however, clearly a "local allowance" as defined in Article 38 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations, and under Article 532 (1). ~~It~~ cannot count towards pension.

Copy of letter from the Collector of Kurnool, C.No. 2638/T.O of 1898, dated 2nd December 1898:-

I have the honour to place before Government the case of Sooltan Mahmood Saheb Khan Saheb who after a long faithful service of 31 years retired from the 5th ultimo from the posts of Huzoor Treasurer and Persian Moonshree to the Political Agent and Khandani Superintendent. He was in the 2 latter capacities drawing monthly a personal allowance of 50 Rupees, a moiety of which also, he now begs, may be granted as pension.

2. In the great famine of 1877, his work under the then Head Assistant Collector Mr. W.M. Thorburn (present District Judge) was so hard and arduous that it seriously affected his health whereby he was compelled to take leave for two months, the only occasion in his long service of 31 years he ever was on leave. Mr. Thorburn has the highest regard for him for his honesty and uprightness; also the many testimonials granted to him by all my predecessors show that his character was thoroughly unblemished throughout and that he discharged the duties entrusted to him most efficiently and conscientiously.

3. As a recompense for his services under the Political Agent, Sooltan Mahmood Saheb Khan Saheb was given a monthly personal allowance of 20 rupees which was on Mr. Rough's recommendation raised to 50 Rupees. For 30 years he was Political Persian Moonshree and for 12 years Khandan Superintendent. These appointments were pensionable; the former Khandan Superintendent, Sultan Mahmood Saheb Khan Saheb's immediate predecessor retired on pension (please vide G.O. No.590, dated 21st May 1887)

4. The question of taking into account Sultan Mahmood Saheb Khan Saheb's personal allowance of 50 Rupees in calculating his pension as Huzoor Treasurer was referred to the Accountant-General who has replied (Please vide copy of his letter I.A.E./493 of the 17th ultimo) that he is of opinion that Sooltan Mahmood Saheb's allowance was a local allowance falling under Article 532 (1) of the Civil Service

Regulations

G.O. No. 152, dated 17th February 1899.

The description by the Collector of Kurnool of the allowance of Rs. 50 per annum given by Sultan Mahmood Saheb as a "personal allowance" is incorrect. The allowance of Rs. 30 mentioned in G.O. No. 50 Political, dated 30th January 1895, having been fixed for particular service and not for increased duties may be described as a

Regulations and not a personal one in as much as the allowance was given for work done in addition to the duties of a regular appointment. But I respectfully submit that Sooltan Mahmood Saheb had held two distinct appointments of Political Moonshee and Lhandan Superintendent both of which as above stated were pensionable, and the previous holders of these officers appear to have been granted the benefit of the pension rules. Moreover, the allowance given for these appointments was distinctly termed by Government as personal allowance and I therefore think that Sooltan Mahmood Saheb's allowance does not necessarily fall under the head "local allowance" as defined in Article 38 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations.

5. I may, in this connection, be permitted to instance the case of my own father-in-law Ally Dost Khan Bahadoor. He was Supervising Inspector of Police 1st Class on a salary of 200 rupees and also drew a personal allowance of 100 rupees a month; and when retired, he was granted a pension of a moiety of not only his pay but also of his personal allowance, which he still enjoys. Sooltan Mahmood Khan Saheb's services were long loyal and specially good, and I respectfully beg that they may be accorded due recognition by the grant to him of a pension on his personal allowance also which, I venture to submit, he has by his honest and indefatigable labors in his triple capacity already mentioned earned.

Submitted to Government. The attention of Government is invited to this office letter No. I.A.E./493, dated 17th November 1898 on the subject, a true copy of which is enclosed and to Article 530 of the Civil Service Regulations where the only allowances reckoned for pension are enumerated.
