report to the Cassergode Magistrate to the effect that the complainant informed him that the Officer of Mangalore Station had refused to receive from the complainant his (Details) report of the crime. The exact date upon which this report was taken to the Station by Complainant and refused by the Adffonot is not clear, the Complainant says "about two months ago" and I know that it was a Friday "the two Consts say" about two months ago, accepting the complainant's statement the date most probably Friday the 10th or Friday the 17th. In connection with this case a charge of bribery was also brought against the Adffonot, owing to contradictions in the statements of the witnesses; this could not be satisfactorily proved though the case looks very strong against the Adffonot. The Adffonot offers the following defence.

He denies in toto having refused to receive the report and its having been offered to him by the Complainant at the Station.

He states that defendant Amavathi and his relatives gained over Complainant to their side but how or why he does not attempt to show. He states that Complainant in his petition of the 6th February did not mention his refusal (Dr. B. D. Potail reported to Magistrate on 17.1.90). His defence runs to some length but simply reiterates that Complainant

Complainant was persuaded not to give evidence against the defendants.

After going carefully through the case and paying full attention to the Adffonot's defence I have not the slightest doubt that the Adffonot did actually refuse to receive the report. The Complainant had nothing to gain and all to lose by giving evidence in favour of the defendant and accusing the Adffonot by bringing against him this charge. The Consts had certainly nothing to gain. I find him guilty and reduce him permanently to 2nd grade from 1.6.90.
