Character of Officer.
No entry need be made in this Column except when there is any thing either good or bad to be recorded. Suspensions should be noted here when the order of suspension is passed.

I have known Mr. P. Balappa for the last three years and a half during which time he has served under me as an assistant master in the Provincial school Mangalore and I have much pleasure in testifying to the good service he has rendered to the school as a teacher of Sanscrit and Canarese. Mr. Balappa is held in high repute among the scholars of this district (both native & European) for his extensive and accurate knowledge of these languages. As a teacher he is superior to most of the native pundits with whom I am acquainted, and he is well worthy of encouragement in his profession.

I have much pleasure in stating that I have known Putli Balappa for above a year, & I have had ample opportunity of seeing that as a Sanscrit Pandit his attainments are above the average of Pundits in S. India and that he is a perfectly competent teacher. He is a very respectable man and a court assessor under the new act. He is much esteemed in Mangalore.
