T. Ramachendra Row having served as Translator in this office for some time was promoted by me to his present post of English Head Clerk nearly 2½ years ago during which period he has uniformly performed the onerous duties of his post to my entire satisfaction. Being a 1st Class B.A. I need not say that he is highly educated & knows English remarkably well and the fact that he only availed himself of a months leave wherein to go to Madras and pass the degree of B.L. standing 2nd on the list for the whole Presidency speaks for itself as to his legal acquirements. I have had ample opportunity of observing & I consider his power of applying his knowledge to actual cases is quite on a par with the knowledge itself. He lately acted as Sheristadar for 2 months and would probably erelong have been promoted to that grade had he cared to remain in the Revenue line. 28th Septr 1875. (Signed) J. Hope Ag. He has had several attacks of Fever during his service & in 1882 had one bad attack of Rheumatism for which he was obliged to take five months sick leave.—

In 1887 he began to suffer from Diabetes which is said to have lasted about two months after which he recovered but ever since he has suffered from this disease in a mild form periodically

Present state. A very thin & spare man. Complains of much weakness & debility & his inability to attend to his work.

Besides he has been suffering from Chronic Inflammation of both Ears (internal) which has resulted in almost complete deafness owing to which he is quite unable to do his judicial work.—

Attention is drawn to article 531 of the Civil Service Regulations under which only the pay of the applicant permanent appointment should be taken into account in calculating his average emoluments and not that drawn by him in his temporary appointment as Sub Judge Trichinopoly and Nellore from 1st November 1894 to 8: May 1895 and from 12: August 1895 to 19 May 1896 respectively. Necessary correction should be made in the amounts entered opposite to No: 10411 in the 1st page of the application.

5. The additional marks of identification entered in the 1st page of the application should be reproduced in the accompanying Service book also.

Ramachendra Rao Pantulu garu, Sub Pro tem Subordinate Judge, Kistna under Rule XVI, Sub Rule 7 of the rules regarding the maintenance and verification of Service Books & the submission of Pension application.

The Period of last 5 years of service begins from 30: December 1893.

The Pays received during the last 5 years of service are as follow:—

	Amount			Remarks.
30: & 31: December 1893 at Rs 400:	25	12	10
January 1894 to June 1896 at Rs 400: for 30 months	12,000	"	"
