Resolution.

The Collector of Anantapur reports A. Appavu Mudaliar Deputy Tahsildar of Uravakonda for misconduct in connection with the Famine Kitchen at that place of which he was in charge.

2. The Famine Commissioner who visited the Kitchen at Uravakonda on the 3rd March having found that Government was being charged at the rate of 13 Seers per rupee while yellow cholum was selling in the bazaar at 14 Seers per rupee, ordered that the rules in the Famine Code should be followed and the cheapest available grain given in the Kitchen. It appears that weeks after the date of this order, the the Deputy Tahsildar charged Government for the dearer grain. The excuse which he gave for doing so, namely, that the good grain though measuring less actually weighed more than the cheap grain is shown to be palpably false. The actual loss to Government by the Deputy Tahsildar having continued to disobey the rules of the Code is given as under Rupees 3 but it must have been much more seeing that the numbers in the kitchen in Feby were upwards of 300.

3. The Deputy Tahsildar wilfully and without excuse disobeyed orders and was rightly suspended by the Collector pending the Boards disposal of the case. The Board, however, considers that the suspension he has already undergone which must have lasted at least 3 months will be a sufficient punishment in the present instance and accordingly directs that he be now restored to office
