Constables in the Station both asleep and in undress. Neither Roster nor Guard book had been filled in for the 11th. So it was not possible to ascertain properly who should have been on guard. The same afternoon Head Constable appeared before the Inspector drunk. he had a stick in his hand but could not walk steadily. He is badly conducted.

Defence.

Had had to make arrangements on the previous day for a jatra in Yennigamur, so had not written up the Roster and Guard-Book. Drunk having been drunk

Date of order.

2nd grade Head Constable in 1866 Venkannappa Cavalryman, ignorant and inefficiency & irregularities observed by the Supt in inspection of his station in July 1890 1) The crime Register was extremely untidy & smudged in many places with dirty finger marks. Pages of continuation of cases was not indicated causing great trouble. The abstract of murders cases for 1889 was unintelligible & ridiculous. Hl Cons could not even tell by whom it had been prepared.
2) In 1889 Hl Cons charged a woman named Sultanamma under Sec 18 Police Act for putting a tatty across a passage leading from her house to the public. The Magistrate threw out the charge. The Supt. inspected the locality & is satisfied that the passage is not a public one and that the charge should never have been made. When this same case was pending before the Magistrate. Hl Cons took information against Sultanamma under Sec 188 P.C (No 20 of 1889) for disobeying his order to remove the tatty. This indicates gross ignorance in his part.
3) In 31/90 Sec 117 Hl Cons gave a written notice to the accused to abstain from entering on the land in dispute. This was plainly in excess of his authority & indicates his ignorance.
4) In 11/90 Sec 379 The accused Confessed but Hl Cons failed to make any record of the Confession as laid down in the Confession placards lately suspended in all stations.
5) In 13/90 Secs 311 & 417 a man complained that he had been abducted & in making an addition to his house Hl Cons arrested & charged the accused. This was plainly wrong in the case of one of them as he had merely asserted his right not to have the right of way closed and line of drainage obstructed.

Defence

6
260 Hl Cons had personal hearing (1) stated that the book was received from the stores marked with number & some thing of the kind. This only very partially accounted for the state of the book & not at all for the dirty finger finger marks & other defects G. H. C. asserted that he acted bona fide in He did not know he had no authority to order the to remove the tally.

 G. H. C. considered that he was authorized under Sec.
 to give such a notice. He did it to prevent a riot.

 have appeared to him.

3rd Grade Head Const. No 466. Venkataranappa.

Great negligence and apathy in Murder case — A. Murder Committed at Gomhal of Mooka Station, of which this Head Constable was in charge, was reported to the Station on the night of 25-1-91.
 Head Const. reached the village the same night but failed egregiously to take obvious and essential steps. (1) The accused had absconded but Head Constable delayed 24 hours in starting to search for him, continuing himself in the mean while by sending a Constable in pursuit. (2) he failed to secure the accused's sandals which had been found at the scene of the murder. (3) He failed to secure accused's sickle which was found by the Ag. Superintendent near the scene of the murder about 48 hours later.

The J. G. directed on the Ag. Superintendent's report that Head Constable should be reduced.

Defence.

Has personal hearing. Did not start sooner in pursuit because he was occupied at the village with the Inquest and with local inquiries.
 (2nd) Did not hear of accused's sandals having been found. N.B.

This indicates Head Constable's incompetence. (3rd) The Ag.
 Superintendent succeeded in finding the sickle because he got the assistance of 50 or 60 people to search. N.B. Head Constable remained 12 hours of day light at the village, if he had exhibited any energy and vigour he could have done the same as was done by the Ag. Super.
 Order.

Reduced to 4th Grade Head Constable.

Making a false entry in the duty Roster on 26-7-95.
Evidence — 2nd C.C. no 27. of ^{the} Ry. Station. belongs to this man's Section on the day in question. This H^d Constables Section came on duty at 12. ~~noon~~ noon. Const no 27. did not come for duty or roll call then, but still was put down as goods front in the duty roster by this H^d Const & when the European H^d Const.
Chapman in charge of the station went to the goods shed at 1.10 P.M. and found the goods front Const. absent, he asked the H^d Const. where he was & was informed by him that he had gone to the Lines to drink water. About an hour afterwards Const no 27's brother appeared before the S.H.C. Chapman & told him that as no 27. was sick he could not come for duty & Const no 27 says he did not come for roll call or duty at 12 noon. Insp. Mr Walton enquired into the matter and found the above facts proved.

Defence — The H^d Const. admits that the Const. did not come at 12 o'clock but that as Const no 334 who also lives in the lines said that the Const. would be coming he put him down on goods front duty and ~~look~~ the other Constables to their posts. An hour or so afterwards finding that Const no 27. did not come, he says he sent no 627 to the lines to go and see about no 27. & then as he came back & reported that no 27. said he would drink water & come he told the S.H.C.
that he was in the lines & that he would drink

9
8
260

water and came & that a short time afterwards when the S.H.C. sent for him & asked him whether he 27 had come to duty he answered in the negative.

Finding — Supr. Mr. Walton examined Nos 334 & 627 & they hear out in the main, what the Mr. Clerk says in his defence. but this defence does not at all exonerate him from the fact of his having shown No 27 on duty & put him down in the Roster as having come to duty when he did not come at all. This is a very serious fault for a Head Clerk and a Section Officer to do.
Supr. says that No 27 is a favourite with this Mr.
Clerk & so he put him on in the Roster although he did not turn up at the appointed time thinking that he would come later on.

Concl.

Reduced to L.C.C. for 3 months from 26.7.95—If it was not for his being near pension I would reduce him permanently.
