G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.

Comptrolor
of 5 April 1899

To,
His Excellency The
Governor in Council
Fort St George
Madras.

The humble Memorial of Mr Govindarao late Mr Clerk, of the Stationary Magistrate's Court, Arcot District, being Comptrolor of Respectfully Submits.

(1) That in submitting herewith the endorsement Mrs G.O. of 22^d February 99
No 117 on his petition requesting that the petition might be sent to the Medical Board at Madras for examination as to his fitness for further service, he begs to state that he had some hopes that his case would be considered favourably,
when his original petition of 16th Sept 98 was returned

to him, to be resubmitted through the Collector of the D.C.

2 That the petitioner did so:
but was met with unfavorable result.

3 Now the petitioner has no other go than to resubmit his hard case to the kind & favorable consideration of his Excellency the Governor in Council, & requests that the petitioner may be provided with a post in the Local Fund Department as there is provision in the Civil Service Regulations, as the pension of 5 Rs sanctioned is quite insufficient to protect ^{his} his large family.

The petitioner is quite able to serve the Government some 13 years more his age being only 42 years.

Under the circumstances the petitioner prays that His Excellency the Governor in Council may be pleased to ask the Collector of the D.C. to provide

the petitioner with a post in the Local Fund Department.

For which Act of Kindness & Charity
the petitioner will as in duty bound most pray.

In Gourdudon.
