C. No. 230.

Dated 11th March - 1899, No. $\frac{41}{9}$

Mernachi Dyer was by C.O. ⁹²₁₋₂₋₉₈, granted a reduced pension of Rs. 6 p. m. as his conduct while in the Govt. service had not been thoroughly satisfactory. He thereupon petitioned the Govt. for the grant of the full amount admissible for his service, but the Govt. declined to reconsider the orders already passed. He now appeals to the Govt. of India. As the appeal is against C.O. 92, of 1st Feb^y 1898 and is made more than 6 months after communication of that order to him and no explanation of the delay has been submitted, it seems liable to be withheld under Sec III rule 3(10) of the Govt. of India petition rules.

Precedent. fo $\frac{1142}{19-9-94}$ is put up.

SUPERINTENDENT, MADRAS SURVEY,

To

The Secretary to Government
Revenue Department

Sir,

I have the honour to forward a Memorial addressed to His Excellency the Governor General in Council by P. R. Meenatchi Aiyar late Deputy Surveyor of the Madras Survey Department.

2. The Memorial is against the order of the Madras Government - G. O. No. 92, Pension, dated 1 February 1898.

3. I am unable to support the appeal.

I have the honour to be
^{Sir}
Your most obedient Servant

his Memorial addressed to that Government (Copy enclosed) the Memorialist is properly p. 5 R. 26-1.
entitled to a pension of Rs 9 per mensem.
according to Civil Service Regulations and not Rs 6 sanctioned by the Government; but unfortunately the Government without considering the proper and just representations of the Memorialist, has simply ordered that it sees no reason to reconsider the order already passed (vide the original order enclosed) and thus justice was not rendered. page 7 R. 26-1.

Your Excellency's Memorialist humbly begs that your Excellency will be graciously pleased in Consideration of his long and good service to call for the pension papers and to render justice by granting his full pension

pension viz Rs 9 to the poor Memorialist who had undergone many difficulties in field work for 24 years.

To

The Governor in Council,

MADRAS.

Meenachi
The humble Memorial of P. R. MEENKSHY
AIYAR, retired Deputy Surveyor, Madras Revenue
Survey Department, residing in Pilliarpalliam, Madura Taluk, Madura District.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

To pardon Your Excellency's most humble memorialist for the intrusion, he is making on Your Excellency's most valuable time and to be graciously pleased to take his most pitiable case into Your Excellency's most benign consideration.

That having appealed to the Superintendent, Revenue Survey, your memorialist was directed to submit his appeal to Your Excellency direct.

That Your Excellency's humble memorialist was entertained in the Survey Department in the year 1874 and has served most faithfully and honestly in the Department up to 19th August 1897, putting in a service of nearly 24 years, during which period he strived his utmost endeavours and gave satisfaction to all his superiors. Memorialist has put in a service of 19 years, 8 months and 3 days superior service and 4 years inferior service. According to Civil Service Regulations, Your Memorialist is properly entitled to a pension of Rupees nine per mensem, but to his great surprise and astonishment Government has only sanctioned him Rupees six per mensem, with the remark that his conduct had not been satisfactory. Vide Superintendent's order No. 353/S dated 4th February 1898.

Your humble memorialist most humbly begs to bring to Your Excellency's kind notice the fact of how memorialist could have obtained the following endorsements from the heads of the Department if he had not rendered really good service.

"Does good work on the whole; would have been promoted to Rs. 40, had he remained in this party."
