During 1-9-73 to 31-12-75 the period of leave granted to the incumbent i.e. for 21 days in July 1875 and 7 days in October 1875 as shown in the preceding column cannot be ascertained from any existing records as from what date and to what date ~~[illegible]~~ but it appears from the service register and the available acquittance Rolls that the incumbent had leave for the number of days as shown in the column. The 18 days occupied by the applicant in executing a commission from 29th March 1886 was treated as leave on forfeiture of pay as per order of the District Court No. 955 dated 20-8-86. Hence that time was entered in August 1886. The difference of days between the total of the details of the service & the total entered against No. 8 in the 1st page is due to the varying number of days in the several months of the year. The service from 1-9-73 to 31-12-75 was verified by taking contemporaneous evidence (attached to the service register) as the acquittance rolls for the period were not available but such period was not then recorded by the then Head of the office as admitted or not, and it is now recorded as admitted in No. 6 on the 3rd page of this application, and the service from 1-1-76 to 31-3-99 was verified with reference to the acquittance Rolls.

Remarks:- The period on loss of pay was not reckoned as service and is entered accordingly.

The individuals from whom the contemporaneous evidence was taken were unable to state as to the applicant's break in the service or any leave granted to him during the said period.
