CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF THE AUDIT OFFICER (1).

CERTIFIED that ~~(subject to the remarks below recorded)~~ qualifying service in i~~nferior or~~ superior grades has been duly proved for 25 years 4 months 26 days; and that a Superannuation (pension ~~or gratuity~~) not exceeding Rs. 12/- per mensem equal to 30/60 of average Emoluments 3.82, is admissible under Articles 502 & 518 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations. The calculations have been duly verified. ~~The (pension or gratuity) is chargeable to (here specify whether to General Revenues, or to what Fund).~~ The applicant's character and past conduct are stated as "Fair" and from the accompanying records on the 2d page of the application bearing on his suspension in 1894 they do not appear to have been entirely satisfactory. It rests therefore with Government to decide with reference to article 514 of the civil service Regulations whether any and if so, what reduction should be made in the amount of pension that is admissible to him.

PENSION DEPARTMENT 9 6 390

Read a report of Govindaraja Mudali to the Supervisor dated 25-1-94.

1. The Chief Complaints against extra Hd. Gumastah Govindaraja Mudali are that

(1) when going on leave on the 24th april he falsely represented to the Supervisor that he had completed the field account work &c left in arrears by one Chockalingam Pillai an extra gumastah who had done field work in Ellikkottai and (2) that he did not obey and act up to orders issued to him to complete the work of the above village. One of the orders particularly cited being a written order issued by the Supervisor on the 12th March 1894

2. The answer of Govindaraja Mudali to these Charges is that he had no responsibility as regards the account work of this village that he was never directed to attend to it, that the alleged order of the 12th March 1894 was never communicated to him, and that he never knew of the issue of such an order by the supervisor and that he did not represent to the supervisor when going on leave that he had completed the work left in arrears by the extra gumastah ~ Chockalingam Pillai. His defence is thus a complete denial of the Charges

3. The arrears of work left behind by Chockalingam Pillai refers to three Kandams transferred from Kandithampattu to Ellikkottai. In these Kandams for some of the survey numbers which he had measured he had not inked his shapes and figures, in some cases he had not entered measurements, in others again he had not completed the multiplication nor noted the areas and index of present occupation, and in the case of some survey numbers apparently no measurements whatever had been made. Govindaraja Mudali admits in his deposition that he gave a report on the 24th January to the Supervisor pointing out the arrears of work in respect of the Kandams assigned to the above gumastah. But significantly no mention is made there of arrears of field work and he refers in it only to the arrears of index work &c in the shape books. This report of Govindaraja Mudali which is dated 25-1-94 is one of the papers read at the head of these Proceedings.

4. It is quite natural that the supervisor should therein have held him responsible for the early completion of the above work and charged him to look to it and I can also understand that as urged by the supervisor in his first arzi read above Govindaraja Mudali assured him that much of the work such as inking shapes, indexes, completing multiplication &c could be done by him in office and that any balance of field work that remained to be done would be attended to by him subsequently and that meanwhile he would see that no delay was caused to the preparation of the abstract and other introduction accounts of the village.

5. The extra gumastah Bhuvarachari who was deputed to work with him on this village is not now in service and I am therefore not able to take a deposition from him but I have no doubt whatever that Govindaraja Mudali's contention that he had no responsibility in respect of the work of this village is wholly untenable. The village was one, the field work of which had been done ~~and~~ under his supervision, and regard being had to the incomplete state of the work, it was natural that he should have been charged to see to its proper completion. Any doubt that may still remain as to whether this responsibility was imposed on him is dispelled by the fact of the issue of the supervisor's order of 12th March.

6. Characteristically Govindaraja Mudali denies that any such order was communicated to him but the depositions of the witnesses read above, of whom one viz that he had completed the work he had had to do. Not only has he not done his work, as he should have done, but he has also misled the supervisor. This is not the kind of conduct expected of one in his position who as Firkadar and Extra Head Gumastah had been entrusted with the duty of supervising and lāking work from forty to fifty Kurnams and a number of Gumastahs and Classifiers.

10. The case requires exemplary notice, and though in view of the prospect of the early abolition of the Party, I am willing to moderate the punishment, I feel that I cannot do less than suspend him for one month. The privilege leave for one month which Govindaraja Mudali was permitted to avail of from 24th April has already in Takid No $\frac{13}{18}$ dated 13-5-94 been cancelled and he has been under that Takid placed under suspension from the date of his absence viz the 24th April, pending the result of the enquiry. The period of his absence on leave from the 24th April to 23rd May will now be treated as the period of his suspension which however will not affect his previous Service.

11. He can no longer be retained in the position of Extra Head Gumastah. He will revert to his appointment of Classifier from the date of his return to duty viz 24th May, and he is ordered to report himself forthwith to the Uncovenanted Assistant for work in the Head Quarters office at Mayavaram.

2. The applicant was dismissed on 31st May 1867 and was reentertained and a gratuity of Rs 400 was sanctioned to him for his services rendered after dismissal till the abolition abolition of the office of Revenue Survey Party No. III, Nellore, in which he was reentertained, on 29th February 1880. The amount of the gratuity was refunded into the District Treasury, South Arcot, by short drawals in the Pay Bills of this Party from October 1883 to November 1887. As the papers connected with his dismissal and reentertainment and the Government Order sanctioning gratuity to the incumbent are not available in this office, I have requested the Superintendent of Survey to forward copies of the above papers to the Board's Office direct and I beg to send herewith copy of my letter to the Superintendent of Survey.

3. As regards the applicant's suspension on 24th April 1894, a copy of the Proceedings passed by the Dy. Commissioner M.R.Ry. M. Audinarayana Iyah Garu, Rao Bahadur is herewith submitted.

Resolution.

2d Charge

Resolution

The papers relating to the Pension application of A. Govindarajulu Mudali, late Classifier, Rev: Sett: Party No. V, received with the letter read above, will be submitted to Government through the Accountant-General.

2. The papers connected with the applicant's dismissal in 1867 and reentertainment in the following year and the G.O. sanctioning a gratuity of Rs 400/- to him in 1880, will be transmitted to the Accountant-General as soon as they are received.

3. The declaration in Column 8, page 10 of the Service Register stating that the applicants' "suspension period will not count towards pension", has not been signed by the Dy. Commissioner, but it is clear from the copy of the Dy. Commissioner's Proceedings dated 1st June 1894 received with the pension application, that the suspension was as a specific penalty, and as such, the period does not, under

Article

Article 458 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations, count for pension.

4. The applicant's name is spelt as "Arnee Govindaragulu" in ~~in~~ the old service Register, as "Arni Govindarazulu Mudali" in the new Service Register, and as "Arni Govindarajulu Mudali" in the pension application; but the individual referred to is presumably one and the same.
