Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 25th instant
No. Pew 1102 1955 calling for an explanation regarding delay in the submission of the pension application of the late 2nd ^{English} clerk, Donny Annappa I have the honour to inform you that as the services of the applicant in the D. P. W. had to be noticed by that Department the pension application together with other connected papers were forwarded to the Superintending Engineer, II Circle, Coimbatore, on 2nd March last with a request to check the same and forward them direct to you. But that officer returned the papers to me. They reached me on the 2nd instant and were forwarded to you on

I have the honour to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant
