Sir
In reference to your memo No 146 dated 8.12.98, I have the honor to forward herewith copies of minutes relating to reduction of Head Constable No 946 Kathi Munisawmy naidu in November 1884 and again

Minute

4th Grade Head Constable No. 1228 Munisawmy
The Station House reports of Kanna-Kunmachatram Station for the 16th August Shows that this Head Constable was on detective duty from 9th to 15th in certain cases of his Station and to get clue of a person for whom arrest a warrant was issued. It is found that these Statements are untrue, and that the Head Constable has been guilty of sending false reports, he having been absent from the Station with Constable No. 50 Narasimha on his private affairs, viz. to arrange a marriage. The Head Constable denies the charge and states that what is entered in his reports is correct; that the Inspector is at enmity with him, as is Constable 579, whom he has reported for punishment.
The Constable gave no information regarding the matter until he found out that the Inspector had examined the different witnesses and found out what had occurred, he then made a clear breast of the whole matter to clear himself. The Constable's wife who had been taken to assist in arranging the marriage did the same. There are 8 other witnesses who speak to what occurred, one of them being a man who was asked to arrange a marriage with his niece. There is no doubt of the Head Constable's guilt and to make it worse he makes most insubordinate remarks against his Inspector

Suspector. He is reduced to a 1st class constable.

After a careful enquiry by the Superintendent who gave the Head constable a personal hearing at Head Quarters the order now appealed against was passed and on going over all papers I am satisfied the Head constable has been very properly reduced. He has in his appeal to me made additional statements in regard to his Suspector which aggravate rather than excuse his offence and make him as a dangerous man to retain in the force and whom it will be well to watch carefully. Appeal dismissed.

4th Grade Head constable No 1228 Merindon of C. Division.

A petition was sent to the Superintendent by constable 574 reporting this Head constable for irregularly confining certain Luddys and entering to his farm them. These charges are not satisfactorily proved, though, enough is, to justify his conduct being reasonably suspected, and to show that the charges are not groundless. The records show other irregularities. I begin with the Head constable admits in his argument for referring the case (Crime No. 115 See. 379. 323 I.P.C.) that the complainant came to the Station and complained on the evening of the 10th December before he went to the Village Magistrate, but the first entry of the case shows that the first report of the case came to the Station on the 11th evening and Station House Report for 12th shows the same. The first entry was under head of "Information" and gives the Village Magistrate's report and opinion that the case is false - The Head constable explains this irregularity by saying that a constable was in charge and that he was absent at the Magistrate's court. The Station House Report for 11th shows he went to enquire into Crime No. 114 and returned to Station at 9 8

16 again at home and must therefore have been present when the report came. Accounts in the same way for the case being reported in the Station House Report for 12th instead of the 11th. The Inspector ordered the case to be entered under the appropriate Sections and investigation and disposed of by Jalici in receipt of Station House Report. This was done by Station House officer and the entry of case is given in Station House Report for 27th December. In the Station House Report for 28th he states that he went to Schittas to examine complainant and then gives witness statements and his opinion. This is a copy from the entry in Verine Register. The Verine Register he says is a copy of his note book, but the entry in the latter is a very condensed abstract of the entry in the former and evidently not the original Record.

In the inquiry made by me it is clearly shown that the whole inquiry was made in the Jalici Station at Pallisau and not at Schittas, and that he commenced the inquiry on the evening of the 27th and not on the 28th as he reports. There is nothing in any record to show when the different witnesses were examined except the statement at the commencement of the entry that he went to Schittas.

I have no doubt that this entry was intentionally made to mislead and show that nothing was done in the Station, as well as the 28th being entered instead of 27th for the first inquiry, for it was the night of the 27th that the Luddays are said to have been confined in the lock up, and he wished to bring the whole matter into the 28th.

As the whole plan is evident that the inquiry into the case took place in the Jalici Station he does not deny this and makes a shuffling excuse for entering Schittas and afterwards something to state where he conducted the investigation by saying that he went to Schittas to call a witness, which I don't believe, as there is good evidence to show a constable went, and that it is not usual with him to enter a clear account of his investigations giving place, date, time &c.

He adheres to the 28th as the date on which he inquired into the case though there is ample evidence to show he commenced on the evening of the 27th and postponed the inquiry as all the witnesses had not arrived.

The whole record is suspicious from the refusal to take the complainant's first complaint on the evening of the 10th and taken into consideration with the suspicion raised in my mind by the reports made against him, I have little doubt that he did take many but, as I said, it is not proved beyond doubt. I must also note that he has since arrested one of the Sullikongs a native of Sullikonda who joined the constables in complaining against him as a deserter and as he deserted 9 months prior to the arrest it looks queer. He has two black marks standing against him. He was reduced when in Teratani Division and re-promoted after some time at the request of the Co. Division Inspector.

In his second trial he has again shown that he is untrustworthy and unfit to be in charge of a Station. He also behaved suspiciously in a suspicious death case of 1885.

I recommend that he be awarded 1 Black mark involving reduction to 1st class under P.O. 74 for writing false records and his very suspicious conduct in Teratani No 115 of Sullikonda Station.
