District Munsif's Court

From

To

The District Judge,
Bellary.

Sir,

In returning herewith the Service Register of Poughur Fakruddin late 2nd class process server of this court, received with your footnote No. 1201 dated 23rd May 99 on Accountant General's letter No $\frac{A.D.L}{54}$ dated 20-5-99 I have the honour to submit as follows:—

I The process server's retention in service up to 31-3-99 was sanctioned by the District Court as per proceedings Dis: No 317 of 1898 dated 10-6-98. He was sent to the medical officer early in March 1899 with a view that, if he found him fit, he might be recommended for retention in service for another year. But as the medical officer found him unfit, his further retention was not thought of and was allowed to retire on the expiration of the period already allowed.

II This applicant was forced to retire in April 1894 by the then

District Judge, he having completed his 55th year then. Accordingly his application for gratuity was submitted then, but the Accountant-General objected to it for want of the certificate of the medical officer. He was then sent to the medical officer who certified him to be fit for further service. This perhaps is the circumstance which led to his services being verified in the Accountant-General's office in May 1894.

III Office copy of the list of Process service Establishment of this Court on 1st April 1879 is not forthcoming in this office as the same appears to have been destroyed under the Rules. However a list of the names of the Establishment is prepared from the Acquittance Roll for the month of March 1879 and submitted herewith.

IV. In the reorganization of the process service Establishment in 1889, orders increasing the pay of the Establishment with retrospective effect from 1-4-89 seem to have been received in December 1889 after the submission of the annual return for that year. Hence the date of the applicant's promotion to Rs 7/- appears as 1-4-89 in the subsequent returns.

V. District Court's proceedings No 1261 dated 1-8-94 seem to have been destroyed under the rules.

VI. The date of the commencement of the absence is 12-4-94 forenoon; that of termination is 2-8-94 afternoon.

I have the honour to be,
Sir
your most obedient servant
Ag Dt. Munsif
