District Munsiff's Court,
Badagara, 19th August 1886.

No. 136.

From
The District Munsiff of Badagara.

To
The District Judge of North Malabar.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that, as directed by the Proceedings of your Court dated 3rd Instant No. 326 in the matter of K. Chathappan Nair an Amin of this Court, I have examined the four witnesses* named in the margin produced by the Amin.

K. Kuttiali
C. Avulla.
K. Cherikandan
P. Pokinan.

2. To do justice to myself I respectfully submit that the Amin in the first instance never asked me to examine any witnesses for him. If he had done so I would of course have examined his witnesses. The statement in his appeal petition that he represented to me that he had to call witnesses in his defence is deliberately false.

3. I find no hesitation whatever to say that the evidence now adduced by him is entirely false. The suspicious demeanours of all his witnesses in the box convinced me that they were deposing contrary to their conscience. I see no reason to believe the allegation of Petitioner Moossa that these witnesses were obtained by the Amin through one Naduvilakandy Kurup who is an influential man in the locality in which they live and to whom the Amin had applied for protection.

536

4. The 2nd, 3rd & 4th witnesses appear from their own admissions to be more or less connected with the said Kurup. The 2nd witness Avulla says that he lives in a paramba derived by him on Kuikanam tenure from an anandravan of the Deft (Petitioner's adversary) who has obtained a lease thereon from the said Kurup. The 3rd witness Chinikandan is admittedly a tenant of this Kurup, while the 4th witness Pokiman is admittedly an anandravan of the 3rd. The 2nd witness says that he went to the shop in question on the morning of the day on which the Amin went there to effect the attachment and stayed there till about noon and that there was none in the shop when he went to it. What occasion had he to go to the shop when there was no body in it and to wait there till the arrival of the Amin? He appears to be a common witness in-as-much as he admits that he had given evidence in this court in two or three cases before. The 3rd & 4th witnesses are admittedly coolies.

5. The 1st witness Kuttiali lives in a desom different from that at which the shop in question is situated. He too appears to be a common witness as he admits that he has given evidence in this court in three cases before. It is, of course very easy to procure the evidence of witnesses of the class to which these witnesses belong.

6. The probabilities of the case are strongly in favour of the Petitioner Moosa and against the Amin. It was the interest of the Petitioner to have the properties attached. It is therefore to be presumed that he would have done every thing in his power to have the attachment effected. It is not easy to believe in circumstances of this case that he made any default as alleged by the Amin. The Amin admits that on the evening of the very day on which he went to the shop to make the attachment and returned, the Petitioner appeared before this Court and represented to it orally that the Amin had unlawfully failed to make the attachment. If he (Petitioner) had made any default as asserted by the Amin it was not likely that he would have made the said complaint against the Amin. The Amin's explanation that he returned to this Court on the evening of the day on which he went to make the attachment in question in-as-much as he was bound to return the warrant of attachment to the Court that day does not seem to be satisfactory. It is clear the warrant of attachment on record that it was returned to the Court only on the following day (8th July 1886). If the Amin's stay at the shop on the 7th Idem was necessary to effect the attachment he would have stayed there that day and conveniently returned to the Court the next day, seeing that the shop is not very far from the court-house but the Amin left the shop pretty early in the afternoon of the 7th is evident from the fact that on that day the Petitioner who came to the court with the Amin represented to the Court before its rising on that day that the Amin had misconducted himself in the matter of attachment.

this

7. I do not for a moment believe that there is any truth in the Amin's allegation that the Petitioner failed to supply him with coolies required to remove the properties to the Court-house. Even if it be true I find that the Amin is still guilty of gross wilful neglect of duty. Under the rules of the High Court dated 12th May 1884 the party applying for an attachment of moveable properties is bound to deposit in court before the warrant of attachment is issued, the amount required to meet the expenses of bringing the properties to Court-house.

This

This rule is invariably followed by this Court and in accordance therewith the Petitioner had deposited in Court the amount required to defray the expense of conveying the properties to the Court-house. The Amin is indeed aware of this Rule and the court's practice in accordance therewith. The object of the above Rule is no doubt to make the officer making the attachment independent of the party at whose instance the attachment is made in the matter of securing the attached properties.

8. Under the circumstances the Amin had no business or authority to call upon the Petitioner to furnish him with coolies to remove the attached properties to the Court-house. The Amin was bound to procure coolies for himself and to have the properties removed to the Court-house recovering the costs thereof through the court. The Amin's conduct in this case is consistent with no other supposition than that of collusion with the Deft.

9. The gross misconduct brought home to the Amin in this case is so serious as to render it just to order his dismissal from the public service. I have however taken a very lenient view of his case and have ordered him to be suspended for six months. In conclusion I would respectfully invite your attention to the concluding portion of the Proceedings of the High Court, dated 21st July 1886 No. 2093 in the matter of misconduct on the part of Process-servers.

Sir,
