ORDER THEREON, 7th July 1899 No. 441.

Under articles 485 and 518 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations (3rd Edition), His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Ampanght Nanu Menon, late Dy: Tahsildar of Talipparamba, an invalid pension — of Rupees (~~46-7-11~~ 45-–-– forty five only) ~~forty-six, annas seven and pies eleven~~ p. m. payable at Palghat from 27th May 1898 in consideration of his qualifying Superior service of 24 years, 3 months and 21 days.

2. As the applicant is reported to have the 22d April 1899, the arrears of pension will be paid to his legal heirs.

3. The full pension admissible under not been granted as the applicant's char have not been thoroughly satisfactory. (P.O.)

Prop. sanction Rs 45. I know the man. His gen: character was good. H.S. 28-6-99

Character - - - - good.

In May 1895, the applicant was reduced from the post of stationary Sub Magistrate on Rs 120/- to that of Huzur Treasurer on Rs 100/- p.m. for having kept in wrongful confinement the accused in a criminal case before him. — G.O. 755/9.4.95 Judl.

In this case a fresh pension application had to be obtained from the Collector of Malabar, as the original pension application which was sent on the 5 Sept. last to the City Office for submission to the Under Secy, has not yet been traced. The original of Judicial G.O. No. 755 d/9-4-95 which was put up with it has not yet returned to its proper place – vide Note flagged D.

Hm. The original file seems to have been made away with in this Office. I don't remember having seen it nor did Mr Forbes when I asked him. Search is however still being made in other files with which it may have got mixed up.

A pension of Rs 40 may perhaps be passed. W.E. 26-6-99

NOTE FOR THE UNDER SECRETARY.

Pension CN. 683 (pension application of A. Nanu Menon, late Dy. Tahsildar, Talliparamba) was sent on the 5th Sepr. last to the Ooty Office for submission to the Under Secy. and it was received at Ooty on the 6th Sepr. vide list flagged A. It has not yet returned to the Pension Dept. No entry can be found in the circulation book of its having gone in circulation to the Hon'ble Member. There is also no entry of its having been unofficially referred to any other department of the Sectt. It may perhaps be with the Secy. or Under Secy.

With it was put up the original of the Judicial G.O. 755 d/9-4-95 under which Nanu Menon was considered to be unfit to occupy the post of Sub. Magistrate for having kept one Chathu in wrongful confinement for a fortnight because of the clamour of the Moplahs in the Village of Badagara and was accordingly reduced and transferred to a ministerial appointment.

In the beginning of October, the Ooty Office was asked to trace out the papers and Narasimha Aiyengar replied that they could not be traced. On the 4th Novr. following a Note* was submitted to the Under Secy. representing that the pension papers of C. V. Ramachandrier, Inspecting Schoolmaster, Palladam, and A. Nanu Menon, Dy. Tahsildar, Taliparamba, could not be traced at Ooty and soliciting orders thereon. The pension papers of the Inspecting Schoolmaster X are now with the Under Secy., but those of Nanu Menon cannot

Through the Collector of Malabar
Calicut

Respected Sir,

I beg to bring the following facts to your kind consideration for early and favourable orders.

I am a retired Stationary Magistrate and was last holding the Post at Taliparamba. After I retired from the service I applied for the usual pension and I was informed by an order of the Collector of Malabar dated 26th May 1898 that my application has been accepted. For the whole of the year 1898 I did not get any further information on the Subject.

On the 24th January 1899

I put in an application to the Collector of Malabar requesting him to get my pension order as soon as possible. The Petition was returned to me with the endorsement that the papers in question are before the Government.

I was and am in a sick condition ever since I retired from the Service. As the pension is intended by the Government as a means of support for the Government officials in their old age, I very humbly request that your honour may be pleased to pass very early and favourable orders on my application for pension.

The remand allowed the prisoner expires today. No Charge or Referred charge sheet has yet been received. Though the Inspector in charge aplied to release the accused on bail on the 30th October 1894 I refused it on the ground that no reason whatever had been assigned for disbelieving the statements of two witnesses (O. Today the deceased's brother Karat Amath presented a petition stating that the witnesses will be gained over by the accused if he were to let on bail. The remand has been extended to the 5th Instant and order has been issued to the Police to submit their final report on the matter within that time.

Order of remand in File case

The Sub Magistrate's explanation in regard to allow bail by the Police Inspector. When an officer in the Sub Magistrate's position having a full knowledge of the facts of which the bail should be allowed & should not be refused except on very strong grounds. The Sub Magistrate was aware that the medical certificate showed that the deceased died of heart disease. The two witnesses O Mammali, P Mammali were [illegible] informed present at the inquest but did not then give any information at all. Even if the accused did beat & push the deceased thereby accelerating his death by heart disease how does this amount to murder or any other non bailable offence? ~~[illegible]~~ The Sub Magistrate is of opinion that the accused knew that the deceased was suffering from heart disease? A full explanation should be submitted at a very early date.

I beg further to report that after the receipt of the Medical Certificate I knew that the deceased died of heart disease; and therefore the offence is a bailable one even if the accused did beat and push down the deceased thereby accelerating his death by heart disease. As there was a great agitation among the Moplahs and no final report was received in the matter I thought it better to remand the accused till its receipt. On the same day the final report of the Police was received I released the accused at once on bail. There is nothing on record to show that the accused knew that the deceased was suffering from heart disease.

2. In conclusion I beg to report that I have no more explanations whatever to submi in this case and humbly request that you will b good enough to pardon me if I am in any way erred in the matter.

I beg to report that the Police at first, in this case, did not arrest the accused though he was accused of murder. The deceased's brother sent a Telegram to you. I was of opinion that the accused ought to be arrested and asked the Police to do so. It was then that the accused was arrested and sent along with a Remand Report to be remanded from the 23rd October to 1st November 1894 by the Station House Officer, Chombala. But before the expiry of the Remand and before submitting a final report in the matter, the Inspector in charge applied on the 30th October to release the accused on bail. The grounds stated therein appeared, in my opinion, to be very weak as there were two witnesses who say that they saw the accused & others beating & pushing the deceased upon which he fell down and died. Moreover the deceased's brother put in a petition stating that the witnesses will be gained over by the accused if he were to let on bail. There was also a great agitation among the Moplahs. Under these circumstances I thought it better to extend the remand for a further period of 5 days and asked the Inspector to send in his final report within that time. The referred Charge Sheet was received on the 6th Instant and I released the accused on bail on the same day. The deceased's brother again put in a petition praying that the accused should not be let on bail but it was rejected by me. He has appealed against this order.

Malabar Joint Magistrate's Office
Tellicherry 2nd January 1895

No 1/m

From

I. K. Batten Esquire ag Joint Magistrate of Malabar

To

The District Magistrate of Malabar.

Sir

With reference to your Proceedings dated 4th December 1894 Ref on C No $\frac{4153}{magl}$ I have the honour to report as follows

2. On the 22nd October 1894 on my way in from Camp I received a telegram from Karat Ahmed saying his brother was killed by an Andian (Potter) and requesting me to come to Badagara. On my arriving at Tellicherry I sent the following telegram to the Badagara Stationary Magistrate. "Is it desirable for me to come to Badagara in connection with murder of Karat Ahmed's brother." The same evening I received the following telegram from the Stationary Magistrate. "Moplahs say murder. medical certificate heart disease. inspected no external marks violence. report follows"

I therefore did not consider it necessary to go to Badagara and it appears from the subsequent reports of the Stationary magistrate that my presence was not necessary. I received the Submagistrate's report to the same effect as his telegram on the 23rd and on it passed orders in my proceedings dated 23rd October 1894 Ref on C.W 1403 that I did not consider it necessary to go to Badagara, and at the same time pointed out to the Stationary magistrate the possibility of the death by heart-disease having been accelerated by a shock caused by a kick.

3. On the 25th October I received the copy of the Stationary magistrate's first order dated 23rd October remanding Beeriyambath Chattu. On this I called for the Police remand report. On perusing it I saw no grounds for supposing that the Police did not acquiesce in the view that the man had met his death through foul play and I returned the papers. On the 3rd Novr I received the second remand order dated 1st November. I subsequently had a conversation with the Assistant Superintendent of Police from whom I learnt that the witnesses alluded to in the magistrate's order refusing bail had been present at the inquest but had not then said anything. I therefore called on the Stationary magistrate for an explanation as to why he refused bail when the Inspector of Police had applied for it. The Submagistrate's first reply dated 19th November was unsatisfactory. So I called for a fuller one. In this second explanation dated 24th November 1894 the Stationary magistrate admitted that he knew that Chattu had not committed any non-bailable offence and said that he had refused bail because of the agitation among the moplahs. He only admitted him to bail on the receipt of the Police referred charge sheet on the 6th November (3 days after I had received the 2nd remand report).

4. The referred charge sheet and the Stationary magistrate's own judgment in Register case 12 of 1894 sufficiently show that there was no murder. The stationary magistrate himself admits that he knew all along that no unbailable offence had been committed.

It was the stationary magistrate himself who originally ordered the Police to treat the case as one of murder, the first remand report having been made at his instance. His present explanation dated 15th December merely repeats his former excuse viz that he acted as he did because of the excitement among the Moplahs. After Chattu had been released on bail I received a petition from the deceased's brother asking me to remand Chattu again which request I of course refused. The deceased's brother and possibly other Moplahs being ignorant of the value of a medical certificate and of the nature of heart disease may reasonably have supposed that the deceased was murdered. But the Stationary magistrate himself admits that he knew all along that the deceased was not murdered. He refused bail simply in deference to ignorant clamour.

5. Having in view recent events in Badagara I think that Mr Nanu Menon having openly shown that he is afraid of the Moplahs of the place is not a proper person to be the magistrate at such an important Moplah town. He should I think be removed to some post of equal pay where the responsibilities are not so great. In his place should be put some magistrate of known independence and proved judgment. I regret that from my knowledge of the other Stationary and Deputy Tahsildar magistrates of this Division I cannot recommend that any of them be selected.

6. In this report I have not discussed the evidence in the case as this is sufficiently dwelt on in the Referred Charge sheet and the Stationary magistrate's own judgment. All the records are enclosed.

Report of the Badagara Stationary Magistrate A Nanu Menon.

In Continuation of the reply telegram in the matter of the death of Warat Ahamad Kutti I submit herewith the apothecary's Certificate and the deposition of the deceased's younger brother Ahamed for your perusal. I Carefully examined the deceased's body from the hospital. I do not see any marks of violence worth mentioning having been used. Though it is not necessary that you should Come, as the Moplahs one and all say that the deceased was murdered I humbly submit that it would be well if this Case is inquired into by you also.

I also submit that the Offence took place in Kannukara about 1½ miles to the South of the Chombal Station and thence ¾ mile to the East.

22nd October 1894. Sol: affd.

I am the younger brother of the deceased Ahamed Kutti. The deceased is 50 years old. He was suffering from biliousness before, now he does not suffer from anything. I live in Badagara. The deceased's son came to me in the afternoon and said that his father was kicked to death by Anthur Chathu. I went to the spot immediately. It is in Kannukara desam, of Azhiyoor amsam. I heard from Mappilahs, Tiyyans and Nairs assembled there that my brother was kicked to death by the said Chathu. On account of grief I telegraphed to the Joint Magistrate that he should come here and redress my grievance. The Sahib need not come. It is enough if the Court will hold the trial and take evidence.

Referred Charge Sheet

Cheriyath Saban states that he heard Kalleri Kunhavayi son-in-law of the deceased Ammad Kutti speaking to Inchi Pakran, Inchi Amlla, Kavakath Mammad &ca about this matter at Madakara Bazaar, that he accompanied them to Andiyan Chathu's house and saw Karat Ammad Kutti lying dead on the wall of the yard of the house, that there was a slight abrasion below one of his knees and the part below the navel was slightly swollen, that his relations are ~~not~~ at Badagara, that he does not know any reason for Andiyan Chathu kicking or beating Ammad Kutti, that he came in order to give information in the amsom and in the station and that he knows nothing else.

I, with Constables 1331 and 781, reached Peeriyambath house, in which Andiyan Chathu lives at about 5.30 p.m. The Police Inspector had reached the place before that. The Adhigari of Azhiyur amsom arrived immediately after. The deceased body was examined, and the inquest report written. The deceased's corpse was first found on a cadjan on the wall of the eastern yard, with the head north and the feet south, and the face up and covered with a red lungi (cloth).

The covering was removed. The eyes were found shut, and the lips apart. There was a small wound inside the lower lip. Both the arms were folded, and resting on the belly. The legs were stretched. On the neck, and on the left side of the belly there was earth sticking. He wore a dirty Chettyan mundu with black border. The mundu cloth was attached to his waist string. Red earth was sticking at the navel. There was slight abrasion below the knees. There was a copper elassu (amulet) on the waist string. No other marks of wound or property were found. The deceased appeared to be about 50 years old, and about 10 hours appear to have elapsed after the death, before the corpse was examined.

Karat Ahmed of Badagara states that the deceased was his elder brother, that he lives in Kadukarakunni with his wife, that a Tiyyan told him that Ammad Kutti died in an Andiyan's house this day (21-10-94), that the deceased's son Ahmed told him about it after 12 noon at Badagara, that when he came, he saw Ammad Kutti lying dead on the wall of the yard, that when he came up, people said that as Andiyans living in the house owed some money to Ammad-Kutti, words passed between them and Ammad-Kutti, and that the Andiyans kicked or beat or did something else to Ammad Kutti, that he does not know who told him so, and that the death must have been caused by the Andiyan's kicking or beating.

Kunniyil Peedikayil Mariyumma states that the deceased was her father, that he left the house at 5 or 6 naligas after dawn, saying that he was going to Andiyan Chathu's house to get money, that a little while after a Tiyya boy, whom she did not know, came to the house and told her that Ammad Kutti Moplah was lying killed at Andiyan Chathu's house, that when she came up, she saw her father lying dead on the wall of the yard, and that it seems to her that Chathu killed her father.

Kunniyil Peedikayil Ahmed states that the deceased was his father, and that the deceased left the house in the morning saying that he was going to Andiyan Chathu's house for money, and that he knew of his father's death when a Tiyya boy came and said that he was kicked to death by Andiyan Chathu.

Inchi Ahmed states that the deceased was his niece's (Ummacha) husband, and that he heard people say that there was quarrel between Chathu and the deceased when the latter went to him this (21-10-94) morning for money, and that Ahmed Kutti died when Chathu kicked him and that he is not sure who said so.

Kuniyil Juchi Emman states that the deceased was his sister's husband, that Ahmed Kutti went in the morning to Andiyan Chathu's house for money that the previous morning (20-10-94) too, he went and returned in the evening, that today at 12 noon, a Tiyya boy and Juchi Mammad came and said that Ahmed Kutti had been killed by Andiyan Chathu and his younger brothers; that he went up and found Ahmad Kutti laying dead on the wall of the yard, and that people said when he came here that Chathu's brother held Ammad Kutti, and Chathu kicked him and that he does not know who said so.

Beeriyambath Andiyan Chathu states that this day (21-10-94) at three or four naligas after dawn Ammad Kutti (deceased) came to his house, that he came panting, that Ahmed Kutti said that he could not walk on account of bile and that he wanted a plank to sit on, that he gave him a cadjan and Ammad Kutti sat on it on the wall of the eastern yard, that Ammad Kutti at once fell on the cadjan and died, that he forthwith gave information to Kalleri Tharwayi, Ammad Kutti's son-in-law, that he came and asked for a tender cocoanut, that he gave him a tender cocoanut, that Tharwayi poured tender cocoanut juice into Ammad Kutti's mouth but Ammad Kutti

did

did not drink it, that Tharwayi tied a mundu round Ammad Kutti's waist and untying a lungi mundu that Ammad Kutti wore, put it over his face and went away, that then a large number of Moplahs and others came, that he does not know why Ammad Kutti came, that he did not owe him any money, that his younger brother Kelappan and ~~Kamppan~~ Kappini, and his nephew lives in other houses and his younger brother Chappan with him, that all of them went away at dawn for selling and returned at about noon, that the earth found on Ammad Kutti's body was rubbed there by his brother-in-law Emman with his hand.

The above said Kelappan Kappini, Kanaran and Chappan state that they do not know how Ammad Kutti died, that they had gone away for selling pots and returned at noon.

The neighbours who were then there, Koderi Chappa Kurup, Vizhekkeveetil Raman Panikkar, and Kuruppilil Kanara Kurup state that they do not know how Ahmad Kutti died.

The corpse was sent in charge of Constable 781 on the night of 21-10-94 to Badagara Hospital. The Constable reported that the Magistrate received direct the medical certificate, on the 22nd October. The Magistrate arrived at the scene of offence early on 23rd October, and granted a copy of the certificate. As personally ordered accused Chathu was arrested that morning and sent to the Court with an applica to remand him for 10 days. Ahmed Kutti's brother-in-law Inchi Ummar states that there were witnesses to prove that deceased Ammad Kutti was kicked and killed by Andiyan Chathu. On 24th October the Inspector arrived at the place for enquiry, and on 24th and 25th October myself and Inspector enquired.

Kalleri Kharmvayi states that the deceased Ammad Kutti was his wife's father, that he did not see how Ammad Kutti died, that on the morning of the day on which the death took place, a Tiyya boy whom he does not know, came to his house at 8 a.m and said that Ammad Kutti was lying dead at Andiyan Chathu's house and that Oniyambrone Mammad wanted him (Kharmvayi) at once there, that when he went up to Chathu's house, he saw Ammad Kutti lying dead on a cadjan on the wall of the yard, that Ammad Kutti wore a Chettyan thattam cloth and a handkerchief was tied over it, that he did not go near the corpse but simply looked at it from a distance of about 5 yards, that when he went up he saw Oniyambrone Mammad and Puthanpurayil Vattakari Mammad in the compound and Andiyan Chathu and Nayarichindavide Kunhi Kutti Vydian standing in the yard of the house, that he did not see any one else there then, that Oniyambrone Mammad asked him to give information of the death to the deceased's people, that he

that he lives at Kannokkara desom of Azh Amsom, that he treats Andiyan Chathu's fever, that in all, he went there for three da

he went there last on the day on which Karat Ammad Kutti died, that at 10 a.m. that day (21-10-96) when he went up there he saw that Kunhi Krishna Kurup's wife, and two other women whose names he did not know standing just outside the yard, that Chathu's younger brother Kelappan, nephew Kanaran and Thekkayil Pietukandi Kanaran (Thiyyan) standing in the yard of the house, that the patient's father whose name he does not know was preparing a decoction, that when he went up he heard Krishna Kurup's wife say "Vydian is coming he can be made to treat", that when he reached the wall of the yard he saw Karat Ammad Kutti lying (with his face up) on a cadjan on the wall of the Eastern yard, that when he went near and looked it appeared to him that he had no life, that he felt the body and said that he was dead, and that information should be given to his people, that he questioned Kelappan what the matter was with him, and he said that a plank was given to Ammad Kutti when he went up there, that when he sat down on the wall of the yard he saw him falling down with his face towards the ground, that Pietukandi Kanaran was called and that he took him up, and laid him on the cadjan, and that tender cocoanut was just plucked, that when he saw Ammad Kutti, the latter wore a chettyan mundu with a handkerchief tied over it, that Cloth Kelappan asked Pietukandi Kanaran to go and give give information to Ammad Kutti's people, that Kanara Kammal said that Chathu Kammal had gone to fetch a "marmani" pill, that he saw two females on that verandah, one of them was, he thinks, the patient's mother, that the other belongs to the house, that immediately he said that Ammad Kutti Moplah had no life the females went away from near the wall of the yard, that he was looking after the patient when the deceased's daughter whose name he does not know came there, that she cried out "father!" what has befallen you, that Kalleri Tharuvayi at once arrives and also Puthiyedath Rama Panikâmal and Koyiloth Chathu Nambal, that when he felt Ammad Kutti's body there was some red earth sticking on the right or left side of his forehead, that Tharuvayi rubbed it off, that there was a slight abrasion below one knee, that he did not find earth sticking on any other part of his body; that when Tharuvayi came he covered the corpse with a cloth, and that then he returned-

Ayadathil Kunhi states that she is the wife of Kunnath ~~Kunhi~~ Krishna Kurup, that on the morning of 6th Thulam she went to Andiyan Chathu's house to buy pots, that when she went up she saw one or two men preparing decoction in the verandah, that Andiyan Chathu's Anandiravan Kanaran was also there, that she does not know who all live there, that on her way to that house she saw
saw

saw Karat Ammad Kutti sitting down on a stone at the northern end of the lane on the Eastern side of Kodesiparamba, that on being questioned Ammad Kutti said "I am sitting down here on account of weakness. I cannot get away to make room for you", that Andiyan Chathu's house was a paramba away from the place where she saw Ammad Kutti sitting, that after she arrived there, Ammad Kutti came up, that she questioned him "Is your weakness gone"? that he replied "no" and said that he wanted to lie down, that she asked Andiyan Kanaran to give him a cadjan or some such thing, that he gave him a plank, that Ammad Kutti said that owing to weakness he could not sit on the plank, that Kanaran put a cadjan for him on the wall of the Eastern yard and Ammad Kutti sat down on it, that she asked him if he wanted tender cocoanut to drink, and he fell with his face towards the ground saying "don't want to drink tender cocoanut", that she called out to Kanaran and said that Ammad Kutti had fallen, that Kanaran was digging up that compound, that Thiyyan Piltukandi Kanaran was called, and both of them took Ammad Kutti, and laid him on the cadjan, that Kanaran brought tender cocoanut and gave its juice, that she does not know whether he drank it, then Moyan Kunhi

Kutti

Kutti Vydiar came and he felt Ammad Kutti and simply said to her "you may go", and that she returned & then heard that Ammad Kutti was dead, that she did not see Andiyan Chathu there, that when she asked for pot Kanaran said that there was none there to give and that she did not carefully look to see if there were other females near the wall of the yard.

Inchi Pakran of Kamokara Desom states that on the morning of 6th Thulam at 8 or 9 a.m. when he was sitting in his shop in Madakara Bazaar, Kalleri Thermvayi came and said that Karat Ammad Kutti was lying dead at Andiyan Chathu's house, at that time there were Inchi Avilla and Kara-vetti Mammad, that on being questioned Thermvayi said that he did not know how Ammad Kutti died, that then Cheriyath Savan came, and when they all went up to Andiyan Chathu's house, they saw Ammad Kutti lying dead on the wall of the yard, that Ammad Kutti's daughter and a small son were crying out, that the daughter was crying out "Andiyan Chathu kicked and killed father", that there were about 10 or 25 Moplahs, a few Thiyyars and Nairs, and Andiyan Chathu, and his younger brother Kelappan, that dry clay was sticking on Ammad Kutti's neck, that there was an abrasion below the knee, and a slight swelling near the navel, that Cheriyath Savan was sent to give information at the Police station, that it was of Ammadkutti's daughter that cried out that Ammad-kutti was kicked, and killed by Chathu, that no one else said so, that he does not know if there was any dealing between Ammadkutti and Chathu and that he does not know why Ammadkutti went there that day.

Karakkatti Mammad of Kannothara desom states that when he went up to Andiyan Chathu's house there were Oniyambrone Mammad Vatta-kari and Mammad. The rest of the statements agree with those of Inchi Pakkeran's.

Emman the brother-in-law of the deceased produced Oniyambrone Mammad and Vattakari Mammad, as witnesses. Oniyambrone Mammad states that he lives in Thayathparamba at Uralangal desom of Muttungal amsom, that on the 5th or 6th Thulam, Sunday morning he had been to ask for 4 annas due to him by Paramel Seethee's son in Eramala Amsom, that as he was returning at 8 o'c he met Vattakari Mammad on the way, that as he was coming with Mammad they reached the lane south east of Andiyan Chathu's house when he heard Ammad Kutti say at Andiyan Chathu's house "the money should be given" and Chathu say "no money now" that then Ammadkutti said "You made me sit here yesterday till evening and sent me away without giving the money – Today I Cannot but have the money, Today money must be given, the money is not your father's", that hearing Ammad Kutti's voice they went up, that then Am-mad Kutti was standing underneath a cocoanut tree on the eastern side of the house i.e. the front, that Chathu was standing near the wall of the yard and on the south side of Ammad Kutti, Ammad Kutti held the corner of the mundu which Chathu wore, Chathu did nothing, that as the corner of the mundu was held two persons beat Am-mad Kutti, that he did not know their names, that he thinks one of them was Chathu's son, that the other was Chathu's younger brother, whom he can identify, that while the two persons were beating him, Chathu gave him a kick, that the kick hit him below the navel, that Ammad Kutti fell down immediately after he was kicked, that Chathu and his son Appa took him and laid him on the cadjan on the wall of the yard, that as soon, as he was kicked Ammadkutti fell down, and struggled, and it was then that he was taken and laid on the cadjan, that then as he appeared to be dead he did not go near the corpse, that he did not leave the place, that a Thiyya boy whose name he did not know came up and he was sent to give information to Kalleri Theruvayi, brother-in-law of Ammad Kutti, that the message sent to Tharuvayi was that words passed between the Andiyans and Ahmed Kutti, that Ammad Kutti was assaulted and that he died, and that Tharuvayi should come soon, that Tharuvayi came up quarter of an hour after, that Tharuvayi was sent to give information to the deceased's brother-in-law and children, that the deceased's brother-in-law Ummer, daughter Mariam, son Ahmed, another son whose name he did not know and others came, that they went near the corpse when his children came, that on Ammad Kutti's lower lip was a wound, caused by tooth, Earth was sticking on his neck, and one side of his belly, that he felt the nabhi (the part near the navel) on which blood was congealed, that when the deceased and the Andiyan's were quarrelling there were a Tiyya and a Tiyya female in the paramba, that they saw all this, that he does not know their names, that they live in the house South of Andiyan Chathu's house, that when Ammad Kutti and the Andiyans were quarrelling there was Eaath, Andiyan Chathu, also the father of Andiyan, Chathu's son Appa's wife, that they did not see them do anything, that he returned after the Police men came, that Vattakari Mammad also returned after the Police came, that he returned after the Police Inspector and the Adhigari

Cannot

Examined.

Examined the corpse, and after the Inspector left the place, that he did not say this to the Inspector, Adhigari or the Head Constable, that he was not questioned and so he did not say, that when they went up, there was also Kayarichudeaside Kunhi Kutti Vydiar there, that he had come to treat Appa's wife, that the deceased Ammad Kutti was wounded by falling with his face down, by the kick, that he did not hitherto mention this to anyone, and that he did not mention this to the natives.

Puthenpurayil Vattakari Mammad of Unnikun-gal amsom states that he knew Andiyan Chathu but not his house name, that he knew Karat Ammad Kutti too, that on 6th Thulam Sunday he had been to Nallasheri to buy plantain bunches, that he went at 7 a.m., that he purchased plantain bunches and sent them by cooly and was returning when he saw Oniyambrone Mammad at Nallasheri mosque, that then himself and Mammad came together, that when they reached the lane to the South of Andiyan Chathu's house, they heard Ammad Kutti say at Andiyan Chathu's house "my money should be paid now", that Chathu said "no money now" that then he heard Ammad Kutti say "the money is not your fathers", it is mine, it must be paid now" that they knew by the voice that it was Ammad

Kutti that said so, that they went up, that Mammad Kutti was holding a corner of the mundu that Andiyan Chathu wore, and Chathu's younger brothers 5 or 6 persons were beating, that in the meanwhile Chathu gave a kick which hit the "nâbhi" and Ammad Kutti at once fell down and struggled, that at once Chathu and his son Appa took him up, and laid him on the wall of the yard, that he was laid on a cadjan, that as soon as he was kicked Ammad Kutti fell and died, that they did not go near the corpse, that then a Thiyya boy came, and Mammad sent him to inform Kalleri Tharuvayi that Ammad Kutti had been killed by the Andiyans, that Tharuvayi came a little while after and was sent to give information to Ammad Kutti's children and brother-in-law, that a little while after the children and the brother-in-law Emmar came, that they went near the corpse and looked, that the lower lip was wounded and bleeding, and there was earth all over the body, there was slight abrasion below the knee, caused when the deceased fell with his face towards the ground when he was kicked, that there were in that paramba Thiyyan and a Thiyya female when the quarrel between Ammad Kutti and Andiyan Chathu was going on, that they saw

all this, that at Chathu's house there was also Nayarichidavide Kunhi Kutti Vydiar and another Andiyan, there was also Erath Andiyan Chandu, that none of them did anything, that he returned after the Policemen, Inspector, and the Adhigari came and inspected the corpse, that he did not mention to any one what he saw nor did he tell the natives, that he did not mention it because neither the Head Constable, nor the Inspector, nor the Adhigari questioned him, that he does not know the names of Andiyan Chathu's younger brothers, that he heard that his son's name is Appa, that he does not know the names of the Tiyyan and the Thiyya female who were in the paramba, that they went to the house to the South of Chathu's and that he can identify them.

The Thiyyan Pitinkandi Kanaran and the Thiyya woman who live in the house South of Andiyan Chathu's house were shown to the above witnesses who say that they were the persons whom they saw that day in Andiyan Chathu's compound.

Pitinkandi Korumbi states, that on the day on which Ammad Kutti died she had gone in the morning to Oripiyath Vayal to get grass for her father Podan, that when she returned in the evening she heard people say, that when Ammad Kutti went to Andiyan Chathu's house he fell down and died, that she knows nothing else and did not go there and that her husband Kanaran was

digging up the paramba that day.

Puthukandi Kanaran states that one Sunday (he is not sure of the date) he was digging up in Andiyan Chathu's house, that day 5 or 6 naligas after dawn he saw Karat Ammad Kutti coming up, that a little while after Andiyan Chathu's nephew Kanaran called him, that when he went up he saw Ammad Kutti fallen on the ground, that himself and Kanaran Kammal took him up and laid him well on the wall of the yard, that he brought tender cocoanut and gave it to him, that he did not drink it, that Kanaran Kammal said that information should soon be given to Ammad Kutti's son-in-law Tharuvai, that at that time there were there Krishna Kurup's wife, 2 other Andiyans whose names he does not know and Kunhi Kutti Vydiar, that he went and gave information to Tharuvai who came, and gave tender cocoanut, that he did not drink it, that Tharuvayi covered him with a cloth, that Tharuvayi asked him to go and inform his brother-in-law Emmar, that Ammad Kutti was dead, that he went to Madakara but did not find Emmar, that he gave information to Inchi Pakran and Inchi Amlla, that he did not see Andiyan Chathu Kammal kicking or his younger brothers beating, that he also saw there Kolothomeetil Chirunda and that she knows nothing else.

Andiyan Chathu's wife Chirunda states that She

She knew Karat Mammad Kutti, that one morning she went to Eramala to sell pots, that as she was returning in the evening, some one said on the way that Ammad Kutti fell and died in Peeriyambath paramba in which she lives, that she heard that he fainted and fell, that as there was a large crowd of Moplahs she did not go up there, and that she knows nothing else.

Kozhilottu Parambil Chirunda of Kanotkara desom states, that one morning she went to Andiyan Chathu's house to buy pots, that as she was getting over the steps leading to the paramba, she saw Ammad Kutti sitting on the wall of the yard, that when she was about to reach the wall she saw Ammad Kutti falling down from where she sat, that she returned, that she knew Ammad Kutti, that as she went up Krishna Kurup's wife was standing on the wall of the yard, that then she heard that Ammad Kutti was dead, that she knows nothing else.

Andiyan Chathu's son Appa states that on the 3rd Thulam he went to Payyarmala and returned on 4th Thulam and that he heard that on the morning of the 6th Thulam when Ammad Kutti came to his father's house (Peeriyambath) he fainted and died and that he knows nothing else.

I enquired of the neighbours 1 Alott Kanar Kurup 2 Muthur Shankara Nambiar 3 Puthi yottil Kelappa Kurup 4 Kodiyeri Chappa Kurup
5 Puthenpurayi

5 Puthenpurayil Kunhi Kutti Panikkar 6 Edanondicherri Ramar Kandi Krishna Kurup 7 Ayatiyath Syed 8 Thayil Inchi Kunhali 9 Karaketti Kunhammad Kutti 10. Kannokoilath Inchi Savan 11 Shurita Ali 12 Kallarakkal Kunhayan Kutti and 13 Kandakka Eramullen. The above said Kanara Kurup, Kunhi Kutti Panikkar, Sankara Nambiar, Kelappa Kurup, Chappa Kurup and Krishna Kurup state that they heard that on the morning of 6th Thulam when Ahmad Kutti went to Chathu's house to ask for money Ammad Kutti fainted and fell dead, that they did not hear that death was caused by Andiyan Chathu and his younger brother kicking or beating him, that for the last two years the deceased was suffering from bileous disease, that they used to see him panting while walking along the road and that they see reason to think that he died on account of the disease.

The remaining persons Syed, Kunhali, Kunhammad Kutti, Savan, Ali, Kunhayan Kutti and Eramullen state that they heard that when Ammad Kutti went to Andiyan Chathu's house for money, Chathu and his younger brother killed him by kicking and beating him and that they knew nothing else.

Local Enquiry does not show that the offence took place as stated by the witnesses. If death was caused by the use of force as alleged, the medical certificate would have shown it. The certificate shows that the death was caused by disease. It appears that Ammad Kutti went there to get his money, that he was sick and that the death occurred without any one killing him.

I therefore request orders for striking off this false case. The Inspector has reported to the Court asking that the accused Chathu under remand may be released on bail.

Head Constable
5-11-96.

I too made Enquiries in this case. Oniyambrone Mammad and Vattakari Mammad state that they saw accused Andiyan Chathu kicking the deceased Ammad Kutti, that they were present at the scene of offence when Head Constable, Inspector and Adhigari arrived, that they did not tell them what they had seen, that they first told me on the 26th and did not tell any one Else.

The deceased's daughter Mariyumma, son Ahmad and brother-in-law Ummar did not tell the Inspector who first went to the spot or the Head Constable or the Adhigari that these witnesses Mammad and Mammad were at the scene of offence. When I questioned the above said Mariyumma, Ahmed and Ummar and Kalleri Marnvayi, they said that those witnesses were present at the scene of offence, that they simply said that the death was caused by Audiyan Chathu's kick, that they did not say they saw it, and that they subsequently heard that they (witnesses) saw Chathu kicking. Their statements, and those of witnesses plainly show that the witnesses were tutored. My enquiry also does not show that Ammad Kutti's death was caused by Chathu. The neighbours say that Ammad Kutti was a sick man always panting on account of bile and unable to take care of himself. The medical certificate shows that the death was caused by disease. I therefore request that this case in which there is no truth may be struck off.

2. The Police at first sent in an occurrence report on the 21st idem under Section 302 I.P.C and submitted a referred charge on the 6th Instant. The 1st Prosecution witness protested Hence the present enquiry.

3. The 1st Prosecution witness Ammed deposes that about 9 A.M. on the 6th Tulam Last 21. 10. 94 the accused brutally assaulted his deceased brother Ammed at the Court yard of the 1st accused's house upon which he fell down and died. That he was informed of this fact by one Ammed (4th Prosecution witness) the son of the deceased who is about 10 or 16 years of age. That he hastened to the spot and saw the deceased lying dead on the Eastern mud-wall of the Court yard of the 1st accused's house. That he saw some bruises just below the knee[illegible] of the two legs of the deceased - a small wound on his lower lip and a mark of kicking on his navel. That the deceased was in good health. That the deceased told him that the 1st accused owes him 8 or 8½ Rupees and he had been several times to the former for that amount. 4. That the 2nd witness Mammed swears that on his way back from Eramala with the 3rd Prosecution witness when they reached the Southern lane of the 1st accused's compound they heard some noise therefrom and therefore they climbed over the Southern mud-wall of the compound when they saw the 1st accused beating the deceased upon which he fell down & died. That there was only a boy of the Ticu Caste whom he sent to call the son-in-law of the deceased. That he did not speak a single word to the 1st Prosecution witness from the place of scene. That he left the place about 4 P. M. and the 1st Prosecution witness came there about 5 P. M. That the 3rd Prosecution witness joined him close to the shop at Elamencode. That he had been in the Civil Jail for some time. That he is an insolvent. That he has deposed in 6 cases and that he had been convicted in a trespass case and fined 10 Rupees.

5. The 3rd witness Mammed contradicts the statement of the 2nd in all its material points. He says that when he and the 2nd " Prosecution witness reached the Eastern lane of the 1st accused's compound they heard some noise from the paramba and therefore they got over the mud-wall and saw many people standing there who told them that the 1st accused beat the deceased, he fell down and died. That he did not see the 1st accused beating the deceased. That he met the 2nd Prosecution witness in the mosque at Eramala and that he did not say a single word from the place of scene to the 1st Prosecution witness.

6. The 4th & 5th Prosecution witnesses merely say that they saw the dead body of the deceased on the Eastern mud-wall of the 1st accused's Court-yard.

Extract from the Register of Preliminary Enquiry in Case No. 12 of 1894.

No 380/Magl

Forwarded to the District Magistrate. The action of the submagistrate in this case appears to me to have been at the least injudicious. It was apparent at the inquest according to the medical evidence that the man died of heart disease. The Police did not ask for remand as there was no prima facie case of murder until asked to do so by the submagistrate. The Police Inspector subsequently stated that the accused might be released on bail, but the magistrate declined to release him. The witnesses who say that the accused beat & kicked the deceased were present at the inquest but did not then make any statements of this kind. The submagistrate was thoroughly aware that the accused had not committed any unbailable offence, yet in deference to popular clamour he refused bail. I enclose, his orders remanding the accused, my remarks thereon, & the submagistrate's explanations. The ignorant Moplah relatives of the deceased could not know the value of a medical certificate, or the nature of heart disease. But the submagistrate had the knowledge. I also enclose a translation of the police referred charge sheet.

The Jt Magte is requested to submit a full report on the Sub Magte's conduct & to send the record of the case. The Sub Magte should be called on to show cause why he should not be deprived of Magisterial powers, because, on account of the clamour of some Moplahs, he kept B. Chatu in custody.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following papers:—

From the District Magistrate, Malabar dated 4th and 17th February 1895, No: $\frac{146}{Gl}$ and $\frac{202}{Magl}$, and 7th March 1895, No: $\frac{971 R.}{95}$.

Order dt 9th April 1895, No: 755

The record of enquiry clearly shews that the Sub Magistrate (A. Nanu Menon) kept one Chathu in wrongful confinement for a fortnight because of the clamour of the moplahs in the village. This conduct proves him to be unfit to occupy the responsible post of Sub Magistrate and the Government therefore approves the District Magistrate's recommendation that he should be reduced and transferred to a ministerial appointment.
