Resolution of the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, dated Calcutta, 22nd December 1898, No. 5627-S.R.

Read—the following letters :—

(1) From the Government of Bombay, No. 3603 (Financial), dated the 12th August 1898.

(2) From the Government of Madras, No. 781 (Financial), dated the 9th September 1898.

Observations.—In the letter from the Government of Bombay read above, it is stated that cases frequently arise, in which it is necessary to take the special sanction of the Local Government under articles 73 and 1137 of the Civil Service Regulations, in order that subordinate officers, mostly clerks and peons, may be sent from one district to another on some trivial but necessary duty. With a view to reduce the unnecessary correspondence so caused, it is recommended that Heads of Departments or Controlling or Inspecting Officers in the Bombay Presidency should be allowed to exercise the powers of a Local Government under the articles quoted, in respect of subordinate officers whose pay does not exceed Rs. 100 a month.

The Government of Madras, in their letter of 9th September, request that they may be authorised to depute officers to foreign settlements in India without reference to the Government of India, and to delegate this power, when necessary, to Heads of Departments.

Resolution.—The Governor-General in Council is pleased to direct that articles 72 and 1136 of the Civil Service Regulations shall be remodelled as indicated in the accompanying Addenda and Corrigenda.

Order.—Ordered, that this Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations, to all Departments of the Government of India, to Heads of Departments under the Finance and Commerce Department, and to all Accountants-General and Comptrollers.

Resolution—Mis. No. 2425, dated 16th May 1896.

The application for pension on behalf of S. Ramanuja Chari, late classifier of Revenue Settlement Party No. III, received with the letter read above, will be submitted to Government through the Accountant-General.

2. Corrections in the service register of certain entries prior to 31st December 1879 have not been initialled and leaves granted to the applicant (as entered in the service register) on different occasions up to the above date do not correspond with the entries in the gratuity roll. These defects, however, have been considered immaterial, as the record of service up to 31st December 1879 has been once accepted in connection with the grant of gratuity to the applicant and as they do not affect the service for the pension now applied for.

Read—the following letter from the Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement Party No. III, dated 12th June 1896, No. 386.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the Board's Proceedings, Mis. No. 2760, dated 6th current (forwarding to the Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement Party No. III petition from S. Ramanuja Chari, classifier, No. III Party, requesting for condonation of his service for a period of 36 days) and to state that the pension application of classifier S. Ramanuja Chari therein referred to has already been submitted to the Board with my letter No. 272, dated 5th May last.

2. The Board has also submitted it to Government with its Proceedings, Mis. No. 2425, dated 16th idem.

3. The two petitions received with the proceedings under reply are returned.

Enclosure.

Petition from S. RAMANUJA CHARI, late Classifier, Revenue Settlement Party No. III, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture, dated 23rd May 1896.

It has been settled that my pensionable service up to 8th April 1896 is 19 years 10 months and 24 days.

There is only a deficiency of 36 days to complete 20 years.

I have worked during many holidays and obtained privilege leave, casual leave and private affairs leave.

Owing to the deficiency of 36 days As. 6-5 is found deficient in the one-third pension of Rs. 8.

I request you will kindly cause these 36 days to be added to the service in consideration of the fact that I have served Government in the Kodaikánal hills, etc., without any fault from the year 1870 to 1896.

Resolution—Mis. No. 3013, dated 18th June 1896.

Submitted to Government through the Accountant-General.

2. Considering that the applicant has put in a service of over two years in temporary posts, and of about one year and eleven months in inferior service, the Board recommends that the deficiency of 36 days in his qualifying service may be condoned under article 465A of the Civil Service Regulations and a pension of one-third granted to the applicant.

Read—also the following papers:—

Petition from S. Ramanuja Chari, retired classifier, No. III Party, dated 24th September 1898, requesting to pass early orders on his application for pension for the period of his service as extra classifier from 31st December 1879 to 8th April 1882.

From M.R.Ry. M. ADINARAYANA IYAH Garu, Rao Bahadur, Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement Party No. III, No. 543, dated 16th September 1898.

I have the honour to return by registered post the original pension papers of the retired classifier S. Ramanuja Chari received with the B.P., No. 5381, Mis., dated 7th September 1898, and to state as follows.

2. The pensioner prays that his temporary services from 1st January 1880 to 7th April 1882, covering a period of 2 years 3 months and 7 days, may be counted towards pension, and that he may be granted an enhanced pension including the above period. During the period in question the applicant was a temporary classifier. He worked from 1st January 1880 to 30th September 1880, or for nine months, in the central office of the Director of Revenue Settlement, and from 1st October 1880 to 7th April 1882, or for one year 6 months and 7 days, in the Revenue Settlement Party No. II. The service during the latter period has already been verified by the Deputy Commissioner, No. II Party, but the service in the Director's office was not verified with reference to B.P., Mis. No. 3367, dated 1st November 1888—vide also paragraph 4 of the remarks on the original pension application of the individual.

3. In some cases continuous temporary service has been counted as qualifying service (vide the papers marginally noted), but I am not aware whether service in the temporary establishment attached to the Director's Central office has thus been treated in any case. In the present case, the applicant appears to have been employed continuously as a temporary classifier in the Director's office for some time, and again in the Party office from 1st October 1880 to 7th April 1882 before he was given a permanent classifier's place on Rs. 20 in Settlement Party No. II, which was on 8th April 1882. The temporary appointment held by the man in the Director's Central office is described as "Temporary extra classifier" in the service register, but this must be verified from the records in the Board's office. As the temporary service from 1st October 1880 to 7th April 1882 was continuous with the subsequent service in permanent appointments, the former may, I think, be also treated as qualifying for pension under article 415 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations. The applicant says that he held the temporary classifier's place on the understanding that he would subsequently be given a permanent place. There is no documentary evidence in this office to support this statement.

(1) M. Vencataramier—vide G.O. on B.P., No. 386, dated 19th January 1897, communicated with B.P., Mis. No. 3121, dated 4th May 1897.

(2) M. S. Koneri Row—vide G.O. on B.P., Mis. No. 210, dated 11th January 1897, communicated with B.P., Mis. No. 3156, dated 5th May 1897.

4. The qualifying service for which the applicant has already been given a pension of Rs. 7–9–7 per mensem amounts to 19 years 10 months and 25 days. If the period of temporary service above referred to, viz., 2 years 3 months and 7 days is also included, the total service comes to 22 years 2 months and 2 days and the petitioner would get a pension of $\frac{22}{60}$ths of Rs. 24, or Rs. 8–12–10, which is Rs. 1–3–3 per mensem more than the pension already sanctioned to him in G.O., No. 565, dated 6th July 1896.

5. If the Board is inclined to recommend the enhanced pension, I request this retired classifier's services from 1st January 1880 to 30th September 1880 may be verified from the pay bills in the Director's office.

Reference to the Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement Party No. II, dated 12th October 1898.

Pensioned classifier S. Ramanuja Chari having applied for an increase in the amount of his pension in consideration of his temporary service from 1st January 1880 to 7th April 1882, and as it appears that for the period from 1st October 1880 to 7th April 1882 he was employed in Party No. II, the Deputy Commissioner of that Party will be requested to report particulars of leave, if any, granted to him during that period.

2. The service register and original pension application are forwarded herewith for reference and return.

From M.R.Ry. T. KRISHNAMURTI AIYANGAR Avargal, Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement Party No. II, No. 846 Eng., dated 25th October 1898.

In reply to Board's Reference on G.R. and Petition Nos. 6308 and 604 of 1898, dated the 12th instant, I have the honour to report that pensioned classifier S. Ramanuja Chari had had no leave during the period he was employed as an extra classifier in this Party, viz., from 1st October 1880 to 7th April 1882.

2. The service register and the original pension application received with the Board's reference under reply are herewith returned.

Resolution—Mis. No. 6789, dated 23rd November 1898.

The papers read above relating to a petition for enhanced pension received from S. Ramanuja Chari, a retired classifier of No. III Settlement Party, will be submitted to Government through the Accountant-General with the following remarks.

2. The petitioner was granted a pension of Rs. 7–9–7 for a qualifying superior service of 19 years 10 months and 25 days under G.O., No. 565, Pension, dated 6th July 1896. This amount of pension was subsequently raised to Rs. 8 in G.O., No. 691, Pension, dated 1st August 1896, by condoning a deficiency of 1 month and 5 days required to make the petitioner eligible for a pension equal to $\frac{1}{3}$rd salary. This was done in consideration of his long temporary and inferior service extending over 3 years and 11 months—vide B.P., Mis. No. 3013, dated 18th June 1896.

3. He now applies for a further enhancement of pension on the ground that his temporary service from 1st January 1880 to 7th April 1882 is also pensionable. During a portion of that period, viz., from 1st October 1880 to 7th April 1882, he was employed as an extra temporary classifier in Settlement Party No. II, and as that temporary service was followed without interruption by qualifying service, that portion may also be treated as qualifying under article 415 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations. It was treated as non-qualifying in the application submitted by the Deputy Commissioner, but such temporary service has been taken as pensionable in certain previous cases—vide G.Os., No. 335, Pension, dated 28th April 1897, and No. 303, Pension, dated 12th April 1897.

4. With regard to the period from 1st January 1880 to 30th September 1880, it is not clear whether the petitioner's service during that period can be counted or not. He was then a temporary gumastah in Party No. VI, but worked in the central office of the Director of Revenue Settlement, and the only records available are the acquittance rolls of the temporary establishment, from which it appears that he drew pay as shown below:—

Year and month.	Name.	Designation.	Salary.	Amount actually drawn.
1880.			Rs.	Rs. A. P.
January	S. Ramanuja Chari.	Gumastah ..	24	24 0 0
February	Do.	Do. ..	24	24 0 0
March	Do.	Do. ..	24	24 0 0
April	Do.	Do. ..	24	24 0 0
May	Do.	Do. ..	24	24 0 0
June	Do.	Do. ..	24	3 3 2
July	Do.	Do. ..	24	24 0 0
August	Do.	Do. ..	24	3 1 7
September	Do.	Do. ..	On leave.

The shortdrawals in the months of June and August are not explained; and as regards September, it is not clear whether a person holding a temporary appointment can be allowed the benefit of article 463 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations. If the periods for which no pay was drawn can be treated as periods of leave without allowances, and if such leave during temporary service will not entail forfeiture of past temporary service, the petitioner's temporary service during the period under consideration will amount to 6 months and 7 days, which, added to his temporary service from 1st October 1880 to 7th April 1882 in No. II Party, referred to in paragraph 3 above, gives a total temporary service of 2 years and 14 days, and a total pensionable service of 21 years 11 months and 9 days. If, on the other hand, the period from 1st January 1880 to 30th September 1880 cannot be counted, the petitioner's total temporary service is only 1 year 6 months and 7 days, and his pensionable service will then amount to 21 years 5 months and 2 days.

5. In either case the petitioner will be eligible only for a pension of Rs. $\frac{21 \times 24}{60}$, i.e., Rs. 8–6–5 or As. 6–5 in excess of the amount sanctioned in G.O., No. 691, Pension, dated 1st August 1896.

(True Extract.)

R. V. SRINIVASIAR, Secretary.

To the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, through the Accountant-General, with records.

Endt. No. I.A.E/545.

Submitted to Government.

2. Ramanuja Chari was granted an invalid pension of Rs. 7–9–7 a month for his pensionable service of 19 years 10 months and 25 days under G.O., No. 565, dated 6th July 1896. On appeal the pension was increased to Rs. 8 a month by condoning a deficiency of 1 month and 5 days out of his temporary service under article 465-A 2 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations —vide G.O., No. 691, Pension, dated 1st August 1896. He now applies for a further enhancement of his pension on the ground that his temporary service from 1st January 1880 to 7th April 1882 is also pensionable under article 415 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations.

3. When reporting upon his pension application the temporary service was not taken into account agreeably to article 403. But the applicant now claims it under article 415 (b) and the Board of Revenue recommend that the claim may be admitted only from 1st October 1880. This service being rendered in temporary appointments cannot be verified from the records of the office, but the Board are satisfied that it is borne out by the records of the local offices. Seeing that some consideration has already been granted for that service, it now rests with Government to determine whether or not the present application should be admitted. If, however, the claim be admitted, the applicant's whole pensionable service will amount to 21 years 5 months and 2 days as shown in the margin and will entitle him to a pension not exceeding Rs. 8–6–4 per mensem equal to $\frac{21}{60}$ths of average emoluments in lieu of the amount already sanctioned to him. With reference to article 1013 of the Civil Service Regulations, it will further rest with Government to fix the date from which effect should be given to the increased grant.

To the Under Secretary—

S. Ramanuja Chari, late a classifier, Revenue Settlement, No. III Party, was invalided in April 1896 for incipient pulmonary phthisis, and for his qualifying superior service of 19 years 10 months and 25 days he was granted an invalid pension of Rs. 7–9–7 per mensem (the full amount admissible) with effect from 9th April 1896 (G.O., No. 565, Pension, dated 6th July 1896). The Government then condoned the deficiency of 1 month and 5 days in Ramanuja Chari's service to complete 20 years' service, and his pension was accordingly increased to Rs. 8 a month. He now asks for a further enhancement of his pension on the ground that his temporary service from 1st January 1880 to 7th April 1882 is pensionable under article 415 (b), Civil Service Regulations.

G.O., No. 691, Pension, dated 1st August 1896.

When reporting on the man's pension application, No. A.D.J./162, dated 18th June 1896, the Accountant-General did not take into account this temporary service agreeably to article 403, Civil Service Regulations. The Board of Revenue now recommends that the claim may be admitted from 1st October 1880 to 7th April 1882 as in the cases disposed of by G.O., No. 303, Pension, dated 12th April 1897, and G.O., No. 335, Pension, dated 28th April 1897. The Accountant-General says that this service cannot be verified from the records of his office, but the Board is satisfied that the service is borne out by the records of the local offices. If the claim be admitted, the Accountant-General certifies that the applicant's total qualifying superior service will amount to 21 years 5 months and 23 days for which he will be eligible for a pension of Rs. 8–6-4 against Rs. 8 already sanctioned. It will, however, be seen that the deficiency of 1 month and 5 days to complete 20 years' service was condoned in consideration of the fact that he had rendered a temporary service of over 2 years and an inferior service of 1 year and 11 months. So the Accountant-General says that, as some consideration has already been shown for the temporary service, it rests with Government to admit the present claim or not. He also points out that, if admitted, the date from which the increased rate should be paid has also to be fixed by Government with reference to article 1013, Civil Service Regulations. It is submitted that the temporary service claimed may be allowed to count as in the two similar cases quoted, and that the increased rate may, with reference to article 1013, Civil Service Regulations, be paid from the date of the Board's application, viz., 23rd November 1898. Hence draft order for approval.

Read also petition from S. Ramanujacharian, retired classifier, No. III Party, dated 24th September 1898, requesting to pass early orders on his application for pension for the period of his service as extra classifier, from 31st December 1879 to 8th April 1882.

Read also the following letter from M. A. Rg. M. Adinarayana Iyah Garu, Rao Bahadur, Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, Party No III, No. 543, dated dated 16th September 1898:—

I have the honor to return by registered post the original pension papers of the retired classifier S. Ramanujachari received with the Board's Proceedings No. 5381. Misc. dated 7th September 1898, and to state as follows:-

2. The pensioner prays that his temporary services from 1st January 1880 to 7th April 1882 covering a period of 2-3-7 (yrs. months. days) may be counted towards pension, and that he may be granted an enhanced pension including the above period. During the period in question, the applicant was a temporary classifier. He worked from 1-1-80 to 30-9-80 or for 9 months in in the Central office of the Director of Revenue Settlement, and from 1-10-80 to 7-4-82, or for one year, six months, and seven days in the Revenue Settlement Party No. II. The service during the latter period has already been verified by the Deputy Commissioner, No. II. Party, but the service in the Director's office was not verified with reference to B.P. No. 3367. misc. dated 1-11-88, vide also para 4 of the remarks on the original pension application of the individual.

3. In some cases, continuous temporary service has been counted as qualifying service (vide the papers marginally

1. M. Venkataramier, vide G.O. on B.P. No. 386, dated 19-1-97, communicated with B.P. No. 3121. mis. dated 4th May 1897.
2. M. S. Koneri Row. vide G.O. on B.P. No. 210. mis 11-1-97 Communicated with B.P. No. 3156. misc. 5-5-97.

marginally noted), but I am not aware whether service in the temporary establishment attached to the Director's Central office has thus been treated in any case.

In the present case, the applicant appears to have been employed continuously as a temporary Classifier in the Director's office for some time, and again in the Party office, from 1-10-80, to 7-4-82, before he was given a permanent Classifier's place on Rs. 20 in Settlement Party No. II, which was on 8.4.82. The temporary appointment held by the man in the Director's Central office office is described as "Temporary extra classifier" in the Service Register, but this must be verified from the records in the Board's office. As the temporary service from 1-10-80 to 7-4-82 was continuous with the subsequent service in permanent appointments, the former may, I think, be also treated as qualifying for pension under article 415 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations. The applicant says that he held the temporary classifier's place on the understandings that he would subsequently be given a permanent place. There is no documentary evidence in this office to support this statement.

4. The qualifying service for which the applicant has already been given a pension of Rs 7-9-7 per mensem, amounts to 19 yrs. 10 months, & 25 days. If the period of temporary service above referred to, viz 2-3-7 yrs. m. d. is also included, the total service comes to 22-2-2 yrs. m. d., & the petitioner would get a pension of $\frac{22}{60}$ ths of Rs. 24, or Rs. 8. 12. 10, which is Rs. 1-3-3 per mensem more than the pension already sanctioned to him in G. O. No 565, dated 6th July 1896.

5. If the Board is inclined to recommend the enhanced pension, I request this retired classifier's services from from 1-1-80 to 30-9-80 may be verified from the pay bills in the Director's office.

Read also the following Reference to the Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, Party No II, dated 12th October 98:-

Pensioned classifier S. Ramanujachari having applied for an increase in the amount of his pension in consideration of his temporary service from 1-1-80 to 7-4-82, and as it appears that for the period from 1-10-80 to 7-4-82, he was employed in Party No II, the Deputy Commissioner of that Party will be requested to report particulars of leave, if any, granted to him during that period.

2. The Service Register and original pension application are forwarded herewith for reference and return.

Read also the following letter from M.R.Ry. T. Krishnamurti Iyengar Avergal, Deputy Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, Party No. II, No. 846 Emg dated 25th October 1898:-

In reply to Board's Reference on G.R. & Edition No. 6308 & 604 of 1898 dated the 12th instant, I have the honor to report that pensioned classifier S. Ramanujachari had had no leave during the period he was employed as an extra classifier in this Party viz from 1-10-80 to 7-4-82.

2. The Service Register and the original pension application received with the Board's reference under reply are herewith returned.

Resolution. No 6789 Mis. d/ 23-11-98

The papers read above relating to a petition for enhanced pension received from S. Ramanujachari, a retired classifier of No. III Settlement party, will be submitted to Government, through the Accountant-General, with the following remarks.

2. The petitioner was granted a pension of Rs. 7-9-7 for a qualifying Superior service of 19 years, 10 months x 25 days under G.O. 565 Pension, dated 6-7-96.

This amount of pension was subsequently raised to Rs. 8. in G.O. No. 691 Pension, dated 1-8-96, by condoning a deficiency of 1 month x 5 days required to make the petitioner eligible for a pension equal to 1/3rd Salary. This was done in consideration of his long temporary and inferior service extending over 3 years x 11 months. (vide B.P. No. 3013. m 18.6.96.)

3. He now applies for a further enhancement of pension, on the ground that his temporary service from 1-1-80 to 7-4-82 is also pensionable. During a portion of that period, viz from 1-10-80 to 7-4-82, he was employed as an extra temporary classi-fier in Settlement Party No II, and as that temporary ser-vice was followed without interruption by qualifying service, that portion may also be treated as quali-fying, under article 415(6) of the Civil Service Regulations. It was treated as non-quali-fying in the application submitted by the Deputy Com-missioner, but such tem-porary service has been taken as pensionable in certain previous cases (vide G.O's $\frac{335 \text{ Pension}}{28\text{-}4\text{-}97}$ flag C × $\frac{303 \text{ Pension}}{12\text{-}4\text{-}97}$ flag D.)

4. With regard to the period from 1-1-80 to 30-9-80, it is not clear whether the petitioner's service during that period can be counted on not. He was then a temporary Gu-mastah in Party No VI, but worked in the Central office of the Director of Revenue Settle-ment, and the only records available are the acquittance rolls of the temporary establishment, from which it appears that he drew pay as shown in the margin. The short drawals in the months of June & August are not Explain-ed, and as regards September, it is not clear whether a a person holding a temporary appointment can be allowed the benefit of article 463(a) of the Civil Service Regulations. If the periods for which no pay was drawn can be treated as periods of leave without allowances, and if such leave during temporary service, will not entail forfeiture of past temporary service, the petitioner's temporary service during the period under consideration will amount to 6 months & 7 days, which, added to his temporary service from 1-10-80 to 7-4-82 in No. II Party, referred to in para 3 above, gives a total temporary service of of 2 years and 14 days, and a total pensionable service of 21 yrs, 11 months & 9 days. If, on the other hand, the period from 1-1-80 to 30-9-80 cannot be counted, the petitioner's total temporary service is only 1 year, 6 months & 7 days, and his pensionable service will then amount to 21 years, 5 months & 2 days.

5. In either case, the petitioner will be eligible only for a pension of Rs. $\frac{21 \times 24}{60}$, i.e. Rs. 8.6.5, or Rs. 0.6.5, in excess of the amount sanctioned in G.O. No. 691 Pension dy 1-8-96.

Submitted to Government.

Ramanuja chari was granted an Invalid pension of Rs 7-9-7 a month for his pensionable service of 19 years 10 months & 25 days under Government order No 565 dated 6 July 1896. On appeal the pension was increased to Rs 8-0-0 a month, by condoning a deficiency of one month and 5 days out of his temporary service under article 465 A 2(a) of the civil service Regulations-vide Government order No 691 Pension dated 1 august 1896. He now applies for a further enhancement of his pension on the ground that his temporary service from 1st January 1880 to 7th April 1882 is also pensionable under article 415 (b) of the civil service Regulations.

When reporting upon his Pension application, the temporary service was not taken into account agreeably to article 403. But the applicant now claims it under article 415(b) and the Board of Revenue recommended that the claim may be admitted only from 1 October 1880. This service being rendered in temporary appointments cannot be verified from the records of this office, but the Board are satisfied that it is borne out by the records of the local offices. Seeing that some consideration has already been granted for that service, it now rests with Government to determine whether or not the present application should be admitted. If however, the claim be admitted, the applicants whole pensionable service will amount to 21 years 5 months & 2 days as shown in the margin and will entitle him to a pension not exceeding Rs 8-6-4 per mensem equal to 21/50 of average Emoluments in lieu of the account already sanctioned to him. With reference to article 1013 of the civil service Regulations, it will further rest with Government to fix the date from which effect should be given to the increased grant.

To the Government

FOR ORDERS.

S. Ramanuja Chari, late a classifier, Revenue Settlement, No III Party, was invalided in April 1896 for Incipient Pulmonary Phthisis and for his qualifying (Superior) Service of 19 years, 10 months and 25 days he was granted an Invalid pension of Rs. 7-9-7 p.m. (the full amount admissible) with effect from 9th April 1896 - G.O. No. 565 Pension d/6th July 1896 - The Govt then condoned the deficiency of 1 month and 5 days in Ramanuja Chari's service to complete 20 years' service; and his pension was accordingly increased to Rs. 8/- a month - He now asks for a further enhancement of his pension on the ground that his temporary service from 1st Jan 1880 to 7th April 1882 is pensionable under art. 415 (b) CSR

G.O. 691/1.8.96 Pension. A

When reporting on the man's pension application in G.O. 565/6.7.96 Pension. B — ADJ 162 d/18-6-96 - the Acctt-Genl. did not take into account this temporary service agreeably to art. 403 CSR. The Board of Revenue now recommends that the claim may be admitted from 1st Octr 1880 to 7th April 1882 as in the cases disposed of by GO. 303/12-4-97 & 335/28-4-97 Pension. The Acctt Genl says that this service cannot be verified from the records of his office, but the Board is satisfied that the service is borne out by the records of the local offices. If the claim be admitted, the Acctt Genl certifies that the applicant's total qualifying superior service will amount to 21 years, 5 months & 23 days for which he will be eligible for a pension of Rs 8-6-4 against Rs. 8/- already sanctioned. It will, however, be seen that the deficiency of 1 month & 5 days to complete 20 years' service was condoned in consideration of the fact that he had rendered a temporary service of over 2 years and an inferior service of 1 year and 11 months. So the Acctt Genl says that as some consideration has already been shown for the temporary service, it rests with Govt. to admit the present claim or not. He also points out that if admitted, the date from which the increased rate should be paid has also to be fixed by Govt. with reference to art. 1073 CSR. It is submitted that the temporary service claimed may be allowed to count as in the two similar cases quoted, and that the increased rate may, with reference to art. 1073 CSR. be paid from the date of the Board's application viz. 23 Nov 1898.
