Sir,

I have the honor to send herewith the application for invalid gratuity of Sheik Mustan, a first class Process server of this Court who retired on 30th June 1899 on the completion of his 60th year.

The following points are stated with regard to this application.

9
10
658

1. The country name of the applicant was not given in the Service Book. It is now given both in the Service book and in the application as required by rule 30 of the Rules of the Accountant General.

2. The exact date of birth was was not given in the Service Book. It is now entered as 1st July 1839 as required by rule 3 of the Accountant General. As this is no subsequent amendment, no Government order is submitted.

3. On 27th January 1877 when the entries on the first page of the Service Book were made, the date of birth of the applicant was not known and so it was entered in Column 6 of that page under the head "date of birth" not known and in Column 7 under the head age "about 38". On 20th November 1883, the date of the birth of the applicant seems to have been ascertained and the year of applicant's birth was then entered in Column 6 to be 1839 and his age is entered in Column 7 to be 45.
