COIMBATORE 19 JUN 1899

Rama Chary,

Both my horses have cast shoes, so I am a prisoner here until the man comes from Villupuram; this prevents my coming to the meeting and also obliges me

C.R.

to stay here over Sunday.

I have received no notice of business to be transacted at the Meeting; now of course even if it comes there will be no time to circulate it, so the Supplemental Budget cannot be discussed and settled, and nothing can be done without notice except ordinary current business.

Unless Mr. Sullivan gives you contrary instructions you must join the office here on Monday morning.

I am sending a letter to Mr. Sullivan's address which you can give him if he comes to Vridachellum; if he does not come post it at once;

It is about Parthasaradhy Iyengar's leave.

Yrs faithfully,
Allen

This is to certify that P. Ramachary has been employed as Local Fund Clerk and accountant in the Collector's office from July /71 to the end of May /72. While employed as accountant he was under my ats immediate supervision and from the opportunities I have had of seeing his work, I was led to form a very favourable opinion opinion of him – He possesses fair abilities

and steady habits and if not for his promotion
I would have objected to his leaving the Accounts Department in which he has always made himself useful during his short stay –
