This Superintendent of the Paper Currency Office has been sent to me by the Asst Accountant General for opinion as to his fitness for further service.

He has suffered in his present condition for about 4 years: and has tried every available treatment, tonics, liniments and Electric battery. Lately, his thumb has got much affected; which "jerks" when attempting to write.

Last March he was treated by the Resident Surgeon at the General Hospital, with no effect.

He has also had a Congenital irreducible Hernia which gave him great trouble. Col Maitland operated upon him in 1896 but not altogether successful, and occasionally gives him pain especially going up & down stairs which he has to do very much at Office.

Present Condition: his hand is perfectly useless for writing. (Specimen of his hand writing attached) and had he been a Clerk with much writing to do would have been quite unfit years ago. As Supt of the Office he has not so much writing, but he is totally unfit to do any writing
