Ag. 4th Gr. Head Const. 541, Narayanaswami

Naichu - 181st B.O.

On morning of 17th March Ag. 11th Const 541 being S. H. O. of Narumburam, received a report from Village Magistrate of Chettikulam to effect that he had heard a rumour Pariah Palavasam after a drunken quarrel had died of Colic and Pariah Subramonian had wounds on his arm. Proceeding to scene he found Palavasam dead and after inquest caused body to be buried on ground. Death was due to Colic. Soon afterwards, however, 2nd class Magistrate and Inspector arrived and ascertained that deceased in trying to separate Subramonian and ~~another~~ another drunken Pariah during a quarrel had been hit on testicles by force and after a few hours sufferings had died.
The body was examined and Nanguneri Hospital assistant on examination found part of the contents of testicles displaced. That this must have been due to violence and not to disease and that injury was sufficient.

9
4
662

Sufficient to have caused the death of an elderly man like Palavasam. In Enquest Report and in S. Report 541 notes that deceased's testicles were swollen but fails to offer any explanation of this or of the rumoured drunken quarrel and merely states people all said deceased died of colic from which he had long suffered and he found Subramonian's wounds trifling and due to a fall when drunk. The evidence taken by 2nd class Magistrate in committing Subramonian for trial under Sec. 304 shows S. 41's conduct was certainly most suspicious and, personally examined by Supt, he entirely failed to account for passing over so easily the swollen testicles, the suddenness of death and the rumoured drunken brawl.

Supt therefore reduces him to 2nd class Constable 1st Class Const. Narayan as a young Naidu No. 541. I am

I. Inattention to orders in forwarding a petition direct to Supt, 26. 2. 78.

II. Tampering with evidence in case No.
52 of Tirunelveli S^{no}, Secs 380 & 328. P.C. 10. 2. 78.
1877

For the first offence I awarded 1. B. M. and for the second 2. B. M. involving the reduction of this Const. to the 2nd class.
The second offence was rather a serious one.

One Sivasangaram, son of a dancing girl was charged under Secs. 380 & 328. P.C. The Constable believing that one Velayudam Pillay a Bazar man was a friend of Supt, advised him to get Mr. Green the Barrister employed to defend the prisoner, and also told him to tamper with the evidence, as much as possible. He said that Kupachi, a witness for the prosecution, should be gained over, and that a prostitute Savadi should be admitted as a witness for the defence. The Const. added he would persuade

Kupachi

9
5
662

Senpachis eldest sister to persuade her

"to make a few alterations" in the deposition.

The District Inspector was informed by Velayudham Pillay of this conspiracy and at once inquired into it. It appears that a Curman Krishna Pillay was the active agent employed to "spoil the case" and this man and 3 of his friends were actually allowed by the Const. who by the way is the writer of the S.O. to talk with the prisoners in the S.M. The Town S.M. happened to be there at the time, and reported what he saw to H^d Com: Maduranagaram Pillay,

This Const. was also seen at 3 P.M. that day by 1st cl. Const. N^o 471. Seated near the corner of the railed lock-up, talking to 3 prisoners

Shunmugam Assari, Muthusawmy and Sivasangaram. Const. 541 denies the accusation.

The men, however, who reported the matter had no motive for making a false statement. One result of the Com's interference was that the case in which Sivasangaram was concerned was thrown out by the

Session

Session Court.

Supt of Police

Order 2nd Grade H^d Const. N^o 541. Narayanasawmy Naider is reduced to 3rd Grade H^d Constable for abetting complainant in a false case of robbery and assisting her to run in her enemies.

1st class Const. N^o 334 Muthusawmy Naider is reduced to 2nd class Const. for assisting his S. H. O. in the above.

On 28. 3. 78 a robbery was reported by a woman named Ponnammal, a woman of bad character. She is the sister of the mother-in-law of a gambling house keeper named Thiruvon Chetti.

The case was ^{thoroughly} ~~thoroughly~~ investigated by the Inspector, it was most glaringly false and has been ordered to be struck off as false by the Joint Magt.

The

The Head Constable 541 and Const. 334 did their best to conceal a case of robbery against the accused Ponnappa Taven whom they arrested on 29-3-93, searched his house but found nothing and then that of his cousin Annammal and found the jewel said to have been stolen.

The village Magistrate who was present signed the attachi but added a remark that he believed the property had been surreptitiously introduced, because 334 entered the house and remained there a short time before the house was searched, and the 2nd Const. subsequently entered it without having his person examined, and because the jewel was said to have been found in a basket of greens which had been purchased for that day's food.

The persons who signed the search list were not the respectable inhabitants of the place but gamblers, who support the Head Constable in saying the property was was honestly and properly found in the house, whereas the Village Magistrate, and several respectable persons who were present support the Village Magistrate ^{who} speaks ^{to} the owner of the house having at once accused 334 of having introduced the jewel into the house previous to the search.

The Head Const. on recovery of the property sent it up to the Magistrate with the accused, and obtained a writ of remand during which time the Inspector sent in the Reported Charge Sheet.

The accused was not named in the first report but he was suspected, it is said, simply because he was seen near the scene of crime about the time the robbery is said to have been committed.

The accused, the day before the offence, assaulted a prostitute Mahali who is kept by Perumal Chetti a copartner of Tiruvu Chetti - hence the cause of the false charge against him.

Several

Several other reasons have been mentioned in the Preferred Charge Sheet, such as:
(a) The scene of robbery is a public place but strange to say is known only to complainant who says she dropped her water pot when she was attacked, but no broken pieces ^{more} to be found near scene of crime.

(b) Ear lobe has been carefully broken.

(c) The two witnesses who state they saw accused near scene of crime were produced by Tirum Chetti one is his servant and the other a gambler in debt to him.

(d) In December the accused's party and complainant had a serious fight vide Memorandum No. 287 of Env. 1892.

Reference. Head Constable 541 states that the accused and his mother are the domestic servants of the Village Magistrate and so he (V. M.) has made a false statement and that he (541) has obtained several signatures to prove the search was valid and honestly conducted and that 334 never never entered the house. He simply denies every charge made against him.

1st class const. No. 334 states he did not enter the house and gives the same defence as 541.

Remarks

The Village Magistrate is a respectable man, he is also an Honorary Magistrate and Municipal Commissioner of Tuticorin Town.

The Inspector had great difficulty in finding the persons who signed the search list for the Head Constable.

The discovery of the stolen property in an open basket of greens is very suspicious and the Village Magistrate was justified in his conduct.

The Head Constable has 2. B. No. 101 standing against him and has been warned for reduction, this was subsequent to this offence.
