To

The Rt. Honble the Sec^y of State for India,

My Lord.

In reply to your Lordship's Despatch
2/4th May last No ⁵⁰³ ~~503~~ _{Final No 5}, we have the honor to state that in the Last Pay Certificate of Mr. Paezinsky, 16th March 1898 was entered as the probable date of departure of
S. S. Clan Ogilvie from Madras, but that the vessel actually sailed on the 18th idem. His furlough therefore commenced from the latter date and terminated on the 17th March 1899.

2.

While on furlough in Europe, Mr.
Paezinsky signified his willingness to retire voluntarily from the service under art. 509, C.S.R. with effect from the 18th March 1899 (the date following that of termination of his furlough) as on that date he completed a qualifying superior service of 34 years, 8 months + 29 days; and his pension has accordingly been sanctioned by this Govt. from the 18th March 1899.

3. It will thus be seen that Mr. Paczynsky's furlough has not been extended by this Govt. and that he has retired 31 days before attaining the age of 55 years.

NOTE FOR THE UNDER SECRETARY.

Under art. 359 of the C.S.R. furlough commences from the day (inclusive) of the departure of the vessel in which the officer sails. From Mr. Paczynsky's L.P.C. (flag A) it appears that 16th March is given as the date of sailing of S.S. Clan Ogilvy from Madras, and the Sec^y of State naturally says that his furlough terminated on the 15th March 1899. It is however found from enquiries made in the Acct Genl's office that Mr. Paczynsky gave 16th March 1898 as the probable date of departure, but that the vessel actually sailed on the 18th idem; his furlough therefore commenced from the latter date and terminated on the 17th March 1899. Hence the discrepancy noticed. Mr. Paczynsky does not seem to have given this information to the Sec^y of State.

C. No. 481.

Despatch from the Rt. Honble the Sec^y of State for India N^o. 503
Im^l. N^o. 5

Dated

4th May 1899.

FOR ORDERS.

Mr. Paczynsky, late D^y Collector of Sea Customs, Madras, availed himself of one year's furlough out of India with effect from the 18th March 1898. Before the expiry of his furlough Mr. Paczynsky, having completed 34 years' qualifying service applied from Europe to the Board of Revenue for permission to retire from the service under art. 509 C.S.R., from the date of termination of his furlough viz the 18th March 1899. His pension has accordingly been sanctioned with effect from that date but the G. O. has not issued pending the disposal of a Despatch since received from the Sec^y of State.

From the correspondence forwarded with the above despatch, it appears that in consequence of an erroneous application made to the India Office by Mr. Paczynsky's Agents for the continuance of his furlough pay, it was pointed out to him that his furlough expired in India on the 15th March 1899 and he was requested to explain the circumstances in which he remained absent from India after that date. FOR ORDERS.

Mr. Paczynsky explained that the Board of Revenue intimated to him in its Proceedings N^o 4452 of 11-11-98, that this Govt. had not sanctioned an extension of his service and that he was to be retired on attaining the age of 55 years, that he made no application for an extension of service but on the contrary had, before the receipt by him of the above Board's Proceedings, applied to be permitted to retire from the date of termination of the furlough granted to him. He added that considering that he applied in Novr. 98 to be allowed to retire from the date of termination of his furlough, he expected to hear before the end of his furlough that his application had been favourably entertained and hence failed to return to India. Seeing that no orders were received from this Govt. on Mr. Paczynsky's application (and as the Board had already intimated to him that he was to be retired on attaining the age of 55 years) the Sec^y of State has probably thought that his furlough might have been extended by this Govt. His Lordship now points out with reference to the entry in clause 13 of the leave & pay certificate furnished to Mr. Paczynsky to the effect that his furlough could be extended only up to 19th April 1899, the date following that of his 55th birthday, that under the Govt. of India Resolution N^o 3157 P. of 18th July 1898, which rules that an officer, who is required to retire under the rules of the C.S.R. on attaining the age of 55 years, must retire with effect from and including his 55th birthday - Mr. Paczynsky's pension cannot take effect from a later date than his 55th birthday. As however Mr. Paczynsky has signified his willingness to retire voluntarily from the service under art. 509 C.S.R. with effect from the 18th March 1899, the date of termination of his furlough, his pension should, it is submitted, commence from that date. Further Mr. Paczynsky will not benefit in any way by an extension of his furlough up to his 55th ^{birthday} ~~year~~ and by the commencement of his pension from that date inasmuch as the leave allowance that would be admissible to him for the period by which his furlough may be extended will be equal to the pension he would otherwise draw for the same period. Submitted therefore that no alteration need be made in the date of commencement of Mr. Paczynsky's pension and that the draft order on C.N^o 457 may now issue.

To The Under Secretary of State for India,

Whitehall,

London, S.W.

Sir,

In reply to your No. F.1871/19.4.99, I beg to explain that the Board of Revenue Madras, in its Mis: Proceedings No. 4452/11.11.98 intimated to me, that the Government of Madras had not sanctioned an extension of service in my case, and that I was to be retired on attaining the age of fifty-five years. I made no application for an extension of service, but on the contrary had before the receipt by me of the above Bd's Proceedings, applied to be permitted to retire from the Service from the 18th March 1899, the date of the termination of my furlough, and 31 days before attaining my fifty-fifth year of age. The fact of my having done so was duly communicated to my Agents Messrs. Macfadyen & Co, and I regret their error in applying for my furlough pay in this month.

I am in daily expectation of my papers authorizing the

the drawing of my pension in London, and considering that I applied in November 1898 to be allowed to retire from the 18th March last, I expected to hear before the end of my furlough that my application had been favourably entertained, and hence my failure to return to India which I beg will in the circumstances explained, be overlooked.

I have, &c.,
