Certificate and report from the Accountant-General, dated 15th June 1899, No. A.D.J./149.

ORDER THEREON, No 566 d/17 Aug/99—

Character - Indifferent

In Dec: 1896, the applicant was reduced by the Collector of S. Canara from the post of Head Clerk, Head Assistant Collector's Office, on Rs 70 to a clerk on Rs 25 in the Collector's Office for his conduct in obtaining loans for himself or for some of his relatives but on appeal the Board considered it sufficient to direct his reduction to a post on Rs 50. and he was accordingly appointed to the Taluk Head Accountant's post, Uppinangadi Taluk Office. He, however, did not join this appointment, but was on leave without allowances up to 12th June 1898 and then on leave on medical certificate till the 2nd January 1899, when he retired on a medical certificate of incapacity for further service. — E

Maximum pension = Rs 33-14-3 p.m.

The Board says that if the applicant had not ~~were~~ been ~~not~~ reduced to the post of Rs. 50 he would have been eligible for a pension of Rs 35. In view of this fact & of the applicant's long service the Board does not recommend any reduction in the pension admissible viz: Rs 33-14-3 p.m. (A)

Para: 3 for approval with refce to para 3 of the A. G.'s Report and para 5 of the B. P.

Rupees 25 the full half pension of the appt. to which he was reduced wd seem ample. He seems to have retired to evade the consequence of his reduction. The invaliding certificate gives as prominent causes of incapacity – [illegible] General debility & neurasthenia. These are largely subjective diseases as the medical case (on reverse of certificate) seems to show.

MMc 5/8/99

To follow the Bd's recommendn. wd be to let the man off without any punishment whatever. Since he was reduced to Rs. 50 I think the ~~natural consequences~~ U.S.'s proposal reasonable. Wives & Sons are useful on the W. Coast when loans are needed!

H.M. 7.8.99

On 2nd Jan 99 he cd. hardly write. On 24 Jan 99 he signed beautifully his letter to A.G.

I dare say he completely "humbuffed" the doctor. He had hardly a symptom that cd. not have been affected. However, let that pass.

H.S.

I have read through the file. I would pass a pension of Rs 30/-

The Accountant-General in para 2 of his report on the Collector's application refers for ~~the~~ orders the question whether any reduction should be made in the amount of pension to be granted to the applicant, with reference to his past character and conduct which are described by the Collector as "indifferent" and with reference to Board's Proceedings No.954 Mis.dated 12th March 1897 reducing the applicant from the post of Head Clerk in the Head Assistant Collector's office on Rs.70 per mensem to that of Head Accountant and Treasurer, Uppinangadi Taluk office on Rs.50.

3. The applicant was originally reduced by the Collector to a clerk's post in the Huzur office on Rs.25 for his conduct in obtaining loans for himself or some of his relatives, but on appeal the Board considered it sufficient to direct his reduction to a post on Rs.50 and he was accordingly appointed to the Taluk Head Accountant's post referred to; but he did not join this appointment and has been on leave without allowances and on medical certificate up to the date of his retirement, viz. the 2nd January 1899. The Board's Proceedings on the applicant's case form an enclosure to the pension application and the following extract therefrom will show that the censure passed on him by the Board did not imply any personal moral delinquency such as would necessitate a reduction of his pension:-"There is every reason to believe that the petitioner's son "and wife took advantage of his official position to obtain loans in ~~p~~ "the division in which he was employed .... There appears also no "reason to doubt that the loans were intended to be repaid and that "the parties who took the two loans were solvent".

4. As the applicant's salary exceeded Rs.25 a month, the pension application would, in the ordinary course, have been submitted to Government direct, but the Collector was desired to submit the application through the Board in view to its recording an opinion regarding the reduction, if any, to be made in the amount of pension proposed. If it were not for his reduction to a post of Rs.50, the applicant would be eligible to receive a pension of Rs.35 per mensem. In the circumstances of the case and considering the applicant's long service, the Board recommends that no reduction be made in the amount of pension, Rs.33-14-3 which is applied for on his behalf.

5. Orders are also requested with reference to para 3 of the Accountant-General's endorsement as to the recovery from the applicant's pension of the leave allowance, amounting to Rs.6-7-2, irregularly drawn by him in consequence of the grant to him on the 22nd November 1866 of privilege leave for one month and 11 days while he was only eligible for such leave to the extent of one month and three days.

2. Name. C. S. M. Abreo.
3. Department or Office. Revenue Department Taluk Office. Puttur.
4. Marks of identification. Two burnt marks one on the right side little above the eye brow, and another on the forehead. Three small moles on the left palm, one mark on the right arm. One big burnt mark on the left arm.
5. Age. 55 years.
6. Service.
7. Sick leave granted during the service.
8. Disease or cause of disability. Neurasthenia (Progressive)
9. Abstract statement of case showing how the disease or disability was contracted, the results of the treatment adopted. In case the disease or disability is believed to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits, the reasons for such belief should be stated.

Patient states that the present illness began at the end of 96. before which date, except for occasional fevers he was in good health. The cause he states to be disturbance of his mind owing to being suspended & reduced.

It began with sleeplessness & constipation for which he took a number of Homoeopathic drugs of which he the knew nothing, on the advice of his friends, received no benefit from them, but on the other hand grew worse.

In August 97 noticed tremors of the hands which prevented his writing properly, for the last 3 months this has considerably increased, so that now he would be quite useless as a clerk, a specimen of his writing is enclosed, it was written in ¼ hour with considerable difficulty.

He complains that his memory is failing & that his other symptoms sleeplessness, tremors, & constipation are all getting worse also that lately he has suffered considerably from pain & weakness in back & joints.

On Examination Fat & flabby in appearance. As he stands before me he frequently shakes – his legs appearing weak. There is marked tremor of arms & hands, also of tongue which is protruded to Rt side. There is latent Nystagmus of both eyes. Increased knee jerks. With white standing occasional tremor of legs. The muscles are soft to the feel.

All these are symptoms of Neurasthenia.

Besides the above he complains of joint pains in the knees which show signs of incipient osteo arthritis viz grating on movement & some swelling of patellae.

He also has Rt inguinal Hernia for which he wears a truss.

His tongue has the appearance of one whose digestive organs are not in the best condition.

His heart sounds are weak but there is no evidence of valvular disease, there is probably some fatty degeneration.

Resolution:- There is every reason to belive that petitioner's son and wife took advantage of his official position to obtain loans in the Division in which he was employed; but the charge that the loan from Surappa Shetti was obtained in connection with a Darkhast appeal, though mentioned in the Head Asst. Collector's report, is not put forward by the Collector and seems to be unfounded - There appears also no reason to doubt that the loans were intended to be repaid and that the parties who took the two loans were solvent -

2. In these circumstances and looking to the petitioner's long service, the Board considers that reduction from Rs. 70 to Rs. 25 was an unnecessarily severe punishment and accordingly directs the Collector to arrange at once to give him a post

Extracts of entries of remarks recorded in the Service Book and copies of Testimonials of C. S. M. Abreo.

C. Abreo has acted in my office as volunteer, since January 1860 up to March 1861. I have found him a very active, energetic man and am sorry I was unable to promote him as there was no vacancy at that time. He possesses an excellent knowledge of English and has passed both his examinations in the Uncovenanted Service. I strongly recommend his being employed in the capacity of either Police or Revenue Moonshee, should any opportunity occur.

25th March 1862. (Signed) D. Williams,
Head Assistant Collector.

This man attracted my notice, when he was Goomasta in the Cassergode Taluk, and I promoted him to an appointment in my Office. He is willing and intelligent with very fair abilities. I have a high opinion of his character. With a little more experience and teaching he will become a very useful Public Servant. He has given me great satisfaction.

C. S. M. Abreo has been in this office for about 3 years discharging the duties of English, Magisterial, and Head Clerk at different periods. During the time that I have been in charge about 1½ year I have had every reason to be satisfied with his conduct. He has a fair knowledge of English and is intelligent and hard working.

Abreo has acted as my Magisterial Clerk and has given me satisfaction. He has also served as Clerk under the Assistant Collector, who I believe has been well satisfied with him. I have a good opinion of his honesty and have never heard a word against him since I have been in the District either now as Acting Collector or formerly when Head Assistant Collector. He is very hardworking and is a very useful Clerk.

A very hard working and good man. I would certainly have promoted him to a Sub-Magistrateship had he passed the necessary examinations. I hope he will pass soon, but he has so much to do that he has little time to prepare.

Endorsement of Mr. A. M. Slight, Ag. Head Assistant Collector, on Hoozoor Petition No. $\frac{3001}{92}$ of Mr. C. S. M. Abreo, Head Clerk of his office, dated 21st July 1892, applying for a post of Stationary Sub-Magistrate.

No. 727.

Forwarded. It is not for me to offer any comment on the decision of the Government with regard to the applicant. I can only say that he is an excellent Head Clerk in my office.

As the only fault of which the Government have found him guilty is neglect of accounts, it seems to me that his trustworthiness as a Magistrate is in no way impeached, and that his eligibility for a purely Magisterial post is not affected, especially as he has not been deprived of his Magisterial powers.

Endorsement of Mr. A. M. Slight, Acting Head Assistant Collector of South Canara, on Mr. Abreo's Petition of 11. 4. 95, applying for the post of Supervisor in the Land Reveuue Settlement Department.

Endorsement on C. No. $\frac{1139}{\text{Rev.}}$ of 1895.

Forwarded to the Collector of South Canara. I always found Mr. Abreo an excellent Head Clerk in my office. He was thoroughly acquainted with all branches of the work of the office, and he kept the whole office in good working order and the work well up to date.

Kundapur, 16th April 1895. (Signed) A. M. Slight,

Remarks recorded in the Service Book of Mr. Abreo by Mr. A. M. Slight, the Head Assistant Collector.

I always found Mr. Abreo an excellent Head Clerk, thoroughly acquainted himself with all the work of the office; he kept the whole work of the office in good order and well up to date. His only fault was that he was rather impulsive and would answer question or offer information without sufficient consideration, when in a hurry. But to any one acquainted with his ways, this would very seldom cause any mistakes. He was very diligent and good at putting together information and drafting reports. He has been on leave some time, but returns soon.

Kundapur, 18. 4. 95. Ag. Head Assistant Collector.

Certificate granted by Mr. A. M. Slight, when leaving the District as Sub-Collector.

Mr. Abreo, who has served as Head Clerk under me for over 3 years, asks me to record my opinion of his fitness for the post of Deputy Tahsildar or Magistrate.

He served formerly as Deputy Tahsildar for about eleven years, and appears to have given satisfaction generally. Some charges of improper transactions in land and irregularities in accounts were then brought against him. In the final orders on these Government held that no dishonesty was proved but that on account of the bad state of his accounts Mr. Abreo should be transferred to another post on equal pay without independent charge. He was therefore put into his present post. Since then the pay of Dy. Tahsildars has been raised, so that he now loses considerably by the transfer.

I have already recorded how well pleased I have been with his work under me. Judging from it alone I should say he was well qualified to be Deputy Tahsildar or Magistrate. In the latter office there would be little in the way of account work. But I may add that all the registers and accounts of my office have been kept in very good order under Mr. Abreo's charge, and I have not seen any thing to show that he would not keep another office under his own charge in equally good order.

Yes; in ability he is far above most of the Sub-Magistrates. Although his English pronunciation is not good, nor does he understand spoken English as readily as one would expect. He can draft letters really well. Gets through his work fast and well. I have been quite satisfied with him.

Excellent Head Clerk. Deals with almost all the important Revenue work of the office, with which he is thoroughly conversant. Works hard, and diligently and keeps himself above arrears. I have not a word to speak against his behaviour, which is all it should be. He has, in fine, given me entire satisfaction. I shall be very glad to hear of his advancement.

Exhibit B

To

The Honourable the Land Revenue Commissioners,

Board of Revenue,

MADRAS.

Humble Appeal Petition of C. S. M. Abreo, late Head Clerk, Head Assistant Collector's Office, Coondapoor, South Canara District.
Mangalore, dated 23rd January 1897.

Most Respectfully Sheweth,

That Petitioner humbly begs leave to appeal from the accompanying Proceedings of the Collector of South Canara, dated 12th December 1896, by which Petitioner, who was permanent Head Clerk of the Head Assistant Collector's Office on Rs. 70, has been "appointed Clerk on Rs. 25 in the Collector's Office", and to submit the following circumstances for the kind and favourable consideration of the Honourable Board.

2. That before coming to the merits of Petitioner's case, Petitioner considers it necessary humbly to represent that he is a servant of 36 years' standing in the Department and that he has only 2¼ years more to serve to entitle him to pension, Petitioner's age now being 52¼ years. A kind reference to the enclosed copies of testimonials will show how well Petitioner has been spoken of by the many Collectors, Head Assistant and Assistant Collectors under whom Petitioner had the honour of serving; he begs to add that he was the happy recipient of a gift from a popular Collector of this District, Mr. A. McC. Webster, who kindly presented Petitioner a gold watch with an inscription thereon and a photo, which Petitioner has preserved out of regard which Petitioner entertains towards the donor. It is hardly necessary for Petitioner to point out that any degradation or other punishment inflicted on Petitioner on the eve of his retirement on a well-earned pension and this at his advanced age must necessarily prey on his mind and body and would seriously affect his large family consisting of a wife and twelve children, most of whom are but minors. Petitioner therefore most earnestly appeals to Your Honourable Board that amidst the onerous and multifarious duties Your Honourable Board may be pleased to bestow the most earnest and favourable consideration on this humble appeal. Petitioner begs to bring to Your Honourable Board's notice that notwithstanding the facts stated above and in G. O. No. 424, P. D., dated 20th June 1892, and G. O. No. 6, dated 9th January 1896, which say that the rules may be relaxed in the case of non-gazetted officers, the Collector has not dealt Petitioner's case as he ought to have done. The copy of the Head Assistant Collector's report as to the second charge has not been furnished to Petitioner, though he applied for it, while only an extract from the Head Assistant Collector's report on the first charge has been given to Petitioner. The copy of the telegram sent by the Head Assistant Collector to the Collector requesting sanction for Petitioner's suspension has been refused to Petitioner, though he applied for it. Petitioner is at a loss to understand why these copies should have been withheld from Petitioner notwithstanding the repeated orders of the Honourable Board and Government (G. O., 7th November 1890, No. 6893) to the contrary. If Your Honourable Board sends for the said telegram, dated 17th November last, the reason for withholding a copy of it will be evident; because it is couched in a very misleading wording. Petitioner begs also that the Collector should have exercised his discretion by giving Petitioner a fair opportunity of adducing evidence on his behalf, as prayed for in his explanation to the Collector.

G. O. $\frac{424}{1892}$ published at page 43, Police Weekly Circular, 20th July 1896.

In the case of Non-gazetted Officers the prohibitions from taking loans from persons subject to their authority or influence applies, as in the case of Gazetted Officers, but with this difference that the prohibition is absolute in the latter case, while in the former it may be relaxed in exceptional cases at the discretion of the Head of Office.

3. That before narrating the facts on which the said change in the status of Petitioner has been effected by the Proceedings under appeal it may be necessary to point out from the said Proceedings themselves what the Collector himself thinks of Petitioner's case and how his concluding order, quoted above, is opposed to such view, for the Collector says "there is no post in the Collector's Office or in the District without serious responsibility or not requiring knowledge of accounts or on nearly equal pay to which it seems possible to reduce Mr. Abreo, but a post on Rs. 25 happens to have just become vacant with a prospect of promotion to Rs. 45 in April 1898 on the retirement of M. R. Ry. O. Annappaya; Mr. Abreo is therefore appointed Clerk on Rs. 25 in the Collector's Office." But Petitioner learns that only a sub-pro tem. appointment has been made.

4. That from the Collector's view, just quoted, it is clear that all that the Collector wants is that Petitioner should not hold a post of responsibility (like the one mentioned in Article 26 of the Rules regulating the personal conduct of Government Servants) or one requiring a knowledge of accounts (probably relying on an erroneous construction of G. O., dated 23rd October 1890, No. 6440, relating to Petitioner, communicated in Board's Proceedings, No. 7008, Mis., dated 3rd November 1890, which will be adverted to later on); but has apparently no objection whatever to Petitioner's holding a post of nearly equal pay, provided it neither carries responsibility nor requires a knowledge of accounts. And if the Collector now appoints Petitioner on a salary of Rs. 25 only, it is not because the ends of justice require that Petitioner should suffer any such reduction in his pay, but because the Collector finds no post on nearly equal pay available just now to confer on Petitioner. And even while so appointing Petitioner on Rs. 25 the Collector expressly contemplates his promotion to Rs. 45, but on the retirement of some other man in April 1898, a retirement which however may not take place for a few years more, the incumbent thereof having the option to continue in the service till he attains the age of 60, if strong and fit, by which time Petitioner, who has already 36 years' service and is aged 52½ years may himself retire and thus fail to reap the advantages of the promotion so kindly held in store for him.

5. That if the Collector's objection is that Petitioner should not hold any of the posts mentioned in Article 26 of the Rules regulating the personal conduct of Government Servants, the Collector could have appointed Petitioner as his own Vernacular Head Clerk and thus retained Petitioner directly under him, the present incumbent being only sub-pro tem. or he could have given Petitioner the post of Translator in his office, the present incumbent of which is also sub-pro tem. (by appointing either of these in Petitioner's place of Head Clerk), and neither of the said two posts comes under the said Article 26 of the said Rules. And if Petitioner has not deserved the very low degradation to which he has been so disgracefully subjected, it is unjust and extremely hard to direct that, because there is only a post of Rs. 25 now vacant, Petitioner should fit himself into it.

6. That as regards Petitioner's inefficiency to do account work, it does not appear any where to have been so laid down. The G. O., dated 23rd October 1890, referred to above, on which perhaps the Collector relies, does not say that Petitioner is considered inefficient to be an Accountant. On the other hand, the Government in the said G. O. distinctly admitted the force of Petitioner's contentions that the confusion in the accounts of his office of Deputy Tahsildar of Bantval, which he then held, existed when he took charge, and that his Magisterial and other work was so heavy that he had not sufficient time to set the accounts right. All that the Government there ordered is that Petitioner was "unfit to be in independent charge" withont reference to his efficiency or inefficiency as an accountant. Petitioner begs to add that a thorough knowledge of accounts is as neecssary for the post of Head Clerk of the Head Assistant Collector's Office, which he held for the last 6 years after the date of the said G. O., as it is for other posts of equal or higher pay, and Petitioner has never been found wanting in the discharge of his duties as an accountant.

7. That Petitioner begs now to proceed to answer the charges, which the Collector has unfortunately for Petitioner relied on in passing the said Proceedings under appeal. These charges are two. (i.) That Petitioner arranged for a loan of Rs. 200 from one Surappa Shetti, Potail of Basrur, for Petitioner's son J. B. Abreo at the end of 1893, and obtained the money for him in January 1894, and (ii.) that Petitioner either borrowed Rs. 1,000 or arranged for obtaining Rs. 1,000 as a loan for his wife from Haji Kasim Sahib (now dead), a merchant of Udipi, in May 1893.

8. That before entering into these charges Petitioner begs strongly to represent that his financial condition is not such as to warrant any suspicions against him in the matter of these loans, his wife's property alone amounting to more than Rs. 10,000, free from all encumbrances, while with regard to his own property inherited by Petitioner and to be inherited by his sons, though he has some debts, his property yielding an annual income of about Rs. 1,200 a year, would yet leave a large balance in their favour; and under these circumstances it is not fair to assume that the loans in question were not lawfully contracted.

9. That Petitioner begs to submit that Petitioner is a member of one of the wealthiest and most respectable among the Roman Catholic Native Christian community of South Canara, his family concerns are large, and his wife and son J. B. Abreo, who have been both looking after the management at Mangalore since his appointment as Head Clerk of the Head Assistant Collector's Office at Coondapoor, had now and then to obtain debts from money-lenders at Mangalore or elsewhere for the carrying of the said concerns.

10. That the question therefore is not merely whether the said debts were or were not contracted, but whether Petitioner had any direct share in the contracting of those debts and whether the transactions were not bonâ fide on the part of Petitioner's wife and son.

11. That the history of the loan forming the first charge is as follows:—Petitioner's son, the said J. B. Abreo, who had come to Coondapoor in December 1893, appears to have asked Sheshagiri, the 3rd Clerk of the Head Assistant Collector's Office, who was frequently coming to Petitioner's house at Coondapoor, whether he could get him a loan of Rs. 500 on a pro. note, and Sheshagiri appears to have promised him that he could secure one from Surappa Shetti, the Potail of the Basrur village, whom he declared to be his personal friend, and as the said J. B. Abreo was to leave for Mangalore shortly, it was arranged between them that Sheshagiri should send the money to Mangalore, whence J. B. Abreo was to post his pro. note. On the 21st December the said J. B. Abreo wrote from Mangalore to Sheshagiri at Coondapoor to get Rs. 500, for which he duly enclosed in his letter a pro. note for the said amount in favour of the said Surappa Shetti, from whom Sheshagiri had promised to obtain the amount. It is very unfortunate that Sheshagiri's reply to this letter has not been preserved by the said J. B. Abreo and cannot consequently be availed of now; but from J. B. Abreo's subsequent letter, dated 26th December 1893, written apparently in answer to Sheshagiri's said reply of the 24th December, it is sufficiently clear that in the said reply Sheshagiri must have stated that he could get only Rs. 200 and not so much as Rs. 500, the amount of the pro. note already sent by the said J. B. Abreo with his letter, dated 21st December, and hence that in his letter of the 26th the said J. B. Abreo asks Sheshagiri to bring with him to Mangalore those Rs. 200 at least, if it was not convenient to procure the full amount. Sheshagiri came to Mangalore with the said Rs. 200 on the 1st of January 1894 and sent it with a messenger to the said J. B. Abreo, living of course with Petitioner in the same house, and with this messenger Sheshagiri also sent for Petitioner some plantains as New Year's present. At the time the said messenger brought the Rs. 200 for the said J. B. Abreo and the plantains for Petitioner, the said J. B. Abreo happened to be absent from home, and the messenger asked for an immediate acknowledgment which could have been given by any inmate of the house, but the unsuspecting Petitioner undertook to receive the money for his son, and handed over to the messenger an acknowledgment in these words: "Received Rs. 200 only". In this note Petitioner duly thanked Sheshagiri for his New Year's present of plantains intended for himself and wished him the usual greetings for the year as follows: "Many thanks for the plantains. I wish you a happy New Year."

12. That the above is a true and correct account of the loan from Surappa Shetti. The fact is that Petitioner had nothing to do with the said loan. It was a transaction between Petitioner's son, the said J. B. Abreo, and Sheshagiri on the one hand, and Sheshagiri and Surappa Shetti on the other. It may be that Sheshagiri in arranging for the loan for the said J. B. Abreo thought he was obliging Petitioner rather than his son, and it may also be that but for Sheshagiri's frequently coming to Petitioner, his son would not have known Sheshagiri or asked him to negotiate a loan for him. Anyhow Petitioner never asked Sheshagiri to get a loan for his son nor did he ask Surappa Shetti to lend to him. Nor did Petitioner's son ask Surappa Shetti, whom he does not know and whom he may have never seen; in fact, he does not know his name correctly, he calls him Suranna Shetti in his letter; his request to Sheshagiri was to get him a loan of Rs. 500 from anybody from whom Sheshagiri could get it, and Surappa Shetti's name appears to have been mentioned by Sheshagiri himself as being the person from whom he hoped to get money and in whose favour the pro. note was to be executed. Petitioner was not aware of the said loan till after his son told him about it on receipt of the said Rs. 200 on 1st January 1894.

13. That the said loan to be not barred by time, was to be discharged before the expiry of three years from the date of the pro. note, i. e., before the 21st December 1896, and, as Sheshagiri himself admits, a promise had been made for the due discharge within the time. But Sheshagiri, knowing full well that arrangement had been made for such discharge and thinking that the Head Assistant Collector Mr. Couchman would be pleased if he told some tales against Petitioner, must have contrived, with the view of rising in his good graces and probably also of displacing Petitioner if, possible (the Second Clerk, then on leave, being not qualified for the Head Clerkship and Sheshagiri was then acting as 2nd Clerk), to bring this matter of Surappa Shetti's loan to his knowledge by requesting Surappa Shetti to write to him a registered letter asking for repayment of the loan and by so arranging that in the letter it was made to appear that the loan was intended for Petitioner, while, as a matter of fact, it had been given to his son who executed the pro. note. Sheshagiri's antecedents referred to in para. 24 infra were not known to Mr. Couchman, and hence Sheshagiri should have thought of paving his way for promotion during the time the Head Assistant Collector was in the dark about his antecedents. And what verifies this fact is that this registered letter, dated 14th November 1896, addressed to Sheshagiri by name is opened by Mr. Couchman, registered receipt signed by Mr. Couchman, and the letter is initialled by Mr. Couchman on 16th November 1896, thereby infringing Postal Rules. Anyhow Sheshagiri's plan succeeded; the said registered letter, dated 14th November 1896, addressed to Sheshagiri was duly posted, it fell into the hands of Mr. Couchman on 16th November 1896, the very next day (holiday Tulashi Puja) he commenced his enquiry. Surappa Shetti was examined and he was cross-examined by Sheshagiri, Sheshagiri was then examined and he was cross-examined by Surappa Shetti, and then all on a sudden, late in the evening, Petitioner was sent for from his house to Mr. Couchman's bungalow, he was shown the depositions of Surappa Shetti and Sheshagiri before his own deposition was taken, so that when Petitioner saw that there was such a deep-laid plot he did not know what to say, and in his confusion, which is characteristic of Petitioner, as his superiors well know, he made a mis-statement that Petitioner also asked Surappa to lend the amount, while, as a matter of fact, Petitioner had not done so, as Surappa Shetti's statement itself shows. This error was subsequently corrected by Petitioner before the Collector. In all respects, Petitioner was straight-forward, believing that nothing serious could happen to him under the circumstances. But the Head Assistant Collector Mr. Couchman, after taking down Petitioner's deposition, unauthorisedly suspended him at once and wired to the Collector at Mangalore, intimating to him the said suspension was due to Petitioner's receiving money (a very misleading wording) and asking for a substitute immediately, and after hearing of the Collector's acceding to his request, the next day the Head Assistant Collector passed a formal Proceedings, bearing date 18th November 1896, suspending Petitioner till further notice and on the 20th November wrote to the Collector his letter, Ref. on C. C. $\frac{\text{No. 1}}{\text{Tour-96}}$, recommending Petitioner's dismissal from the service. In fact Petitioner regrets to state that the whole procedure in the case was hasty and irregular.

14. That subsequently the Head Assistant Collector appears to have written to the Collector a second letter, II Ref. on C. C. $\frac{\text{No. 1}}{\text{Tour}}$, dated 28th November 1896, in which he urged against Petitioner another loan of Rs. 1,000 borrowed by his wife from one Kasim Sahib of Udipi and duly discharged by her long before the commencement of these Proceedings by the Head Assistant Collector (Petitioner applied for a copy of the said letter, but the Collector declined to grant him a copy). It is questionable whether the Head Assistant Collector was justified in referring to this loan which no longer existed, and it is therefore clear that in thus exposing a satisfied debt the Head Assistant Collector acted with prejudice against Petitioner on account of the machinations of Sheshagiri.

15. That before the Collector, who finally heard these charges, Petitioner avowed with reference to the said second loan of Rs. 1,000 to his wife, that Petitioner had attested the pro. note executed by her to Kasim Sahib of Udipi. Here also there was nothing to compel Petitioner to state this, the transaction having been closed long ago and the pro. note returned to his wife, which was therefore in her possession, and neither the Collector nor the Head Assistant Collector knew or could have known as to whether Petitioner had attested it or not.

16. That it may be naturally questioned why then Petitioner admitted with reference to the second loan his attestation to the wife's note which he was not bound to state nor was there any proof of it nor could proof be got. The answer is because it was a fact and an innocent act and Petitioner's act was bonâ fide throughout. The loan had been all arranged for her by their son-in-law, an influential First Grade Pleader at Mangalore, whose constituent and friend the said Kasim Sahib was, and to oblige whom and whom alone did he give that loan. And if Petitioner attested the pro. note, it was because the executant being a female, Kasim Sahib wanted the attestation of a male, and Petitioner being himself present at the time, he, instead of asking a stranger to do this attestation, did it himself. It will be observed that his son's pro. note to Surappa Shetti, which was executed in Mangalore when Petitioner was at Coondapoor, bears the attestation of some Mangalore friend of his, Mr. Saldanha.

17. That with regard to the first loan, its real nature and intent can be inferred from the depositions of Surappa Shetti and Sheshagiri before the Head Assistant Collector and from the documents filed before him. Surappa Shetti's evidence shows that he paid the money on account of Sheshagiri, that but for Sheshagiri he would not have paid it, that he paid it in his own house, into Sheshagiri's hands, that he relied on Sheshagiri for its repayment, that he did not care whether the note was executed by Petitioner or by his son (for it was to oblige neither of these that he paid the money), that although Sheshagiri told him he had the note as security, he did not care to receive it from Sheshagiri, that he allowed it all the while to be with Sheshagiri, that even when he wanted the money back, he wrote his registered letter demanding payment, to Sheshagiri and not either to Petitioner or his son, all which go to establish that Surappa Shetti looked to Sheshagiri and Sheshagiri alone for the discharge of the loan. It further appears from Surappa Shetti's evidence that he looked upon his transaction with Sheshagiri as one of pure trust caring neither to enter the loan in his accounts nor to seek the custody of the note. Sheshagiri's evidence simply confirms this and shows that as between him and Surappa Shetti neither of them thought it necessary to enter into any of the legal formalities incidental to a money transaction, except the final registered letter, which however, is admitted by Sheshagiri to have been written at his own motion and whose real object was quite different from the avowed one. But as between Sheshagiri and Petitioner's son J. B. Abreo, who executed the note and got the money, the documents show that Sheshagiri never reposed any confidence in J. B. Abreo, he took from him a note for Rs. 500, but advanced only Rs. 200, the amount actually paid, and that when at last he solicited Surappa Shetti to write a letter he never scrupled to ask him to demand 12 per cent. interest, though in the note the interest was clearly put down as 6 per cent. according to the arrangement with Sheshagiri. It is impossible to assume under these circumstances that this transaction was the result of any official influence or authority of Petitioner over Surappa Shetti.

18. That from the evidence of Surappa Shetti and Sheshagiri it is further plain that Petitioner never spoke to Surappa Shetti about the loan. The only record which is relied on as implicating Petitioner in the transaction is Exhibit D, an acknowledgment by Petitioner, which runs as follows: "Received Rs. 200 only. Many thanks for the plantains. I wish you a happy New Year." In the note there is an acknowledgment of two things, namely, the rupees and the plantains, the former intended for Petitioner's son (but for whose absence Petitioner had to acknowledge the receipt) and the latter for Petitioner himself, and this is the reason why Petitioner expresses "many thanks" for the plantains being sent to himself, whereas the acknowledgment of the rupees, not being to himself but to his son, is not accompanied by any such thanks. This difference in giving thanks for one and no thanks for the other renders it plain that Petitioner had no reasons to offer any thanks for the rupees, because he was in no way obliged. Secondly, this acknowledgment must be read in the light of the other exhibits B, E, C, which are all from Petitioner's son. If Petitioner was not withheld by any fears from writing the acknowledgment D on his own behalf, why should Petitioner not have executed E himself or why should he have asked his son to write for him the letters B and C? These exhibits must all be taken together and then it will be clear that the whole transaction disclosed by them was Petitioner's son's and not Petitioner's. The only unfortunate thing is that Petitioner's son, the said J. B. Abreo, was careless enough to lose Sheshagiri's letter, dated 24th December 1893, which was a reply to Petitioner's son's B, dated 21st December 1893, and to which again the said J. B. Abreo's C, dated 26th December 1893, was a reply. While B and C are J. B. Abreo's letters, it is impossible that Sheshagiri's letter, dated 24th December 1893, which forms a connecting link between B and C could have been addressed to Petitioner and not to Petitioner's son who wrote B and C. Sheshagiri's allegation that he wrote it to Petitioner is therefore false on the face of it. When Sheshagiri was content to receive the pro. note under the signature of Petitioner's son and not that of Petitioner, and even mentioned this to Surappa Shetti, what object could have been served by Sheshagiri's writing this letter, dated 24th December 1893, alone to Petitioner instead of to his son, who executed the said note E and wrote to him letter B with it and afterwards C? It is clear that Sheshagiri's motive in introducing this falsehood was to implicate Petitioner in the loan somehow or other for motives explained already.

19. That much appears to have been made of Petitioner's son's request to Sheshagiri in Exhibit C (his letter, dated 26th December 1893) to press Surappa Shetti for the full amount and this is used as an argument that the pressure here meant that Petitioner's official influence was to be brought to bear upon Surappa Shetti. But such an interpretation is hardly possible seeing that Petitioner's son, the said J. B. Abreo, had already written on 21st December 1893 his letter (Exhibit B) enclosing with it a pro. note for Rs. 500 (Exhibit E). And it was but natural that having entrusted to Sheshagiri the note for the full amount, Rs. 500, J. B. Abreo should not rest content with only Rs. 200, but should attempt to get the full Rs. 500, and if in this matter of getting the full Rs. 500 J. B. Abreo relied on anybody's influence, it was on that of Sheshagiri on Surappa Shetti and never that of Petitioner. And if Petitioner had any influence over Surappa Shetti there was no need of transacting the business vicariously, that is, through the medium of Sheshagiri. In fact, the whole evidence about the loan proves that it was a pure business transaction as between man and man, and that if anybody was to suffer, it was Petitioner's son, who had got only Rs. 200 for a note of Rs. 500, but then he trusted Sheshagiri who held out hopes to him but eventually not only disappointed him, but also utilized the loan as a means at an attempt to ruin his father (Petitioner) with ulterior objects. The evidence further shows that Surappa Shetti in giving the said Rs. 200 obliged Sheshagiri only and neither Petitioner nor his son.

20. That with regard to the Collector's remark about Petitioner in his said Proceedings, dated 12th December 1896, that "the explanations do not show why resort was had to persons in his Division rather than to persons residing in Mangalore or elsewhere unless his influence was in some way to facilitate the loans", Petitioner begs to submit that he has already explained that Surappa Shetti's loan was due to the accident that Sheshagiri who undertook with Petitioner's son to get it for him happened to seek it from his special friend Surappa Shetti, who again happened to be in Petitioner's Division. There was no objection on the part of Petitioner's son to Sheshagiri's procuring the amount from any other person whether at Mangalore or elsewhere, but if Sheshagiri chose to get it from Surappa Shetti how could Petitioner's son have helped for it inasmuch as he cared very little whence the loan was taken so long as he gave proper security for it?

21. That the same may be said of Kasim Sahib's loan. Here Kasim Sahib, with whom Mr. Mascarenhas negotiated the loan, happened also to be within Petitioner's Division. But in neither case can Petitioner be guilty for these accidents over which he had no control? If however Petitioner had the least suspicion that in spite of his innocence he would in any way be connected with the said loans, he might have asked his wife and son to take care not to raise any loans in his Division through whomsoever. But the loans being honestly contracted without any intervention on Petitioner's part or use of influence (of which he can have none), it is not fair to connect Petitioner with these loans, by assuming on the strength of what are mere accidents that Petitioner's influence had been used. Neither does Surappa Shetti nor did Kasim Sahib himself believe that it was on account of Petitioner's influence that the loans were given.

22. That the next question is whether Article 23 of the Rules regulating the personal conduct of Government Servants is applicable to the present case against Petitioner. The said Article apparently makes a distinction between the lending of money and the borrowing of money by a Government Servant. It is distinctly laid down that in the former case the prohibition extends to the lending of money through relatives or other agents, while in the latter no such prohibition extends to the borrowing through relatives or other agents. It is difficult to make out whether the omission of the words "through relatives or other agents" in the case of restrictions on borrowing are intentional or accidental. When it is seen that the wording in Rule 13 is also similar to the wording used with regard to the lending of money, the distinction in the wording of the rule about the lending of money seems to be intentional. But the reason for the distinction is clear. For, if the prohibition regarding borrowing applied also to that of relatives, it would be easy for those relations of a Government Servant as are not in good terms with him to borrow monies in their own names and for their own benefit and then when the time for repayment comes, declare that the amounts were borrowed for such Government Servants so as not only to defraud the lenders on the one hand but also to bring the said Government Servant into troubles on the other, whereas no such mischief can be worked by relatives in the case of lending unless they are prepared to lose their own money by declaring it to be that of such Government Servant. It appears therefore that the distinction was made intentionally to obviate evils of the kind. In Petitioner's case he does not mean to say, however, that his son or wife borrowed the money to bring him into troubles. All that he shows is that the said Article is not so stringent, as is made out, and is not capable of the interpretation put on it by the Head Assistant Collector or the Collector, and it is questionable whether it is at all applicable to the present case, the amounts being borrowed by Petitioner's relatives and not by Petitioner.

23. That a connected question is whether Petitioner in the matter of the said loans placed himself under pecuniary obligations to either Surappa Shetti or Kasim Sahib. It is sufficiently clear from the history of the loans given above, that in Surappa Shetti's loan the person directly obliged was Sheshagiri who undertook to oblige Petitioner's son at the latter's request, and any obligation of Petitioner to Surappa Shetti, who does not at all seem to have cared for Petitioner or his position or authority, is only too remote and far-fetched. The same may be said with regard to Kasim Sahib's loan where the person whom Kasim Sahib obliged was Mr. Mascarenhas, and Petititner's wife, who executed the note, had vast independent property of her own wherewith to discharge the debt. Consequently in neither case was Petitioner's official authority or influence, if any, either used by Petitioner or recognized by the lenders, a suit being formally filed in Kasim Sahib's loan and threatened in that of Surappa Shetti. Nor would it have been necessary to make use of third parties (Mr. Mascarenhas and Sheshagiri) to procure these loans if Petitioner intended that such official authority or influence should be felt by them. Nor would the pro. note legally executed have been tendered in each case. With regard to the allegation of Surappa Shetti that he had a Darkhast appeal before the Head Assistant Collector just prior to his giving the loan, the Head Assistant Collector ought to have, before relying on the said allegation, referred to his records and satisfied himself what that Darkhast matter was and how Petitioner rendered himself serviceable to Surappa Shetti in respect of the same. That Mr. Couchman was very much prejudiced is verified by para. 5 of his Proceedings, dated 18th November 1896, wherein he says that "it is to be noted that the loan was asked for,...while he (Surappa Shetti) had just brought his Darkhast appeal to a successful termination", whereas when Petitioner asked for a copy of the decision in the Darkhast appeal, Mr. Couchman passes the following endorsement: "No Darkhast appeal was made by Surappa Shetti". Some Petition of 1894 is referred to by the Head Assistant Collector in the said endorsement, for a copy of which application has been made. But all Darkhast appeals are referred to the Tahsildar for disposal and are never disposed of by the Head Assistant Collector. So far as Petitioner is concerned, he is not conscious of having obliged Surappa Shetti in any way nor did Petitioner look to Surappa Shetti to oblige him, nor, as a matter of fact, was there any Darkhast appeal. And as for the rate of interest, which is 6 per cent., it is admitted that Surappa Shetti and Kasim Sahib are owners of lakhs and possessed of plenty of cash and consequently large funds, the money dealings in the Taluks being small and limited, there is therefore nothing unusual in their granting the loans at 6 per cent. interest (the Bank and Post Office paying only $3\frac{3}{4}$ or 4 p. c. for deposits, while Government has twice within the course of a short period reduced the rate of interest on Government securities) and since both Petitioner's wife and son are possessed of property, the pro. notes executed by them cannot be regarded as any insufficient security.

24. That if the antecedents of a person are an index to his character, it has to be submitted that the above-said Sheshagiri was found by the Stationary Sub-Magistrate of Coondapoor in Cal. Case No. 583 of 1893 and by Mr. Slight, the then Head Assistant Collector, in his letter to the Collector, dated 26th April 1894, to be capable of perjuring himself. And Sheshagiri's character as a perjurer being thus established, it is questionable whether in the present case his evidence is at all entitled to any weight, except as against himself. It may be added that Mr. Slight further remarked of the said Sheshagiri in his Service Book that no confidence could be placed in him. Such is the person whose evidence is principally used in this case against Petitioner and believed in and acted upon by the Collector and Head Assistant Collector.

25. That in spite of the above described bonâ fides in the matter of the said two loans regarding which so much stress has been undeservedly laid, the Head Assistant Collector recommended a criminal prosecution under Section 165 of the I. P. C. But the Collector found that the said recommendation was not a sound one. That if Your Honourable Board should be of opinion that Petitioner should have stopped these two transactions, Petitioner begs to represent that it is due to his misconception of the construction of the rules and not to a wanton violation of them; and an instance that the rules are capable of being wrongly interpreted is furnished by Mr. Couchman himself. On two occasions Mr. Couchman asked Petitioner to give him money for his private use by two notes only a few days prior to the present case against him. The notes are as follows: 1st Note. "Head Clerk, can you give me Rs. 15 or 20 from the perm. advance* as I have shot a bison and want to give presents. I have written to the Bank for some which will be in Coondapoor. 26. 10. 96. (Initialled) M. E. C." 2nd Note. "Head Clerk, as I cannot get the Bank Agent to send me any money, I must get you to send me Rs. 15 from the perm. advance.* I leave to-night in bandy for Brahmavar and want one more bandy for Saman today. Shall reach Udipi Tuesday. 8. 11. 96. (Initialled) M. E. C." Though if the law should be rigidly interpreted without wrenching it, as Mr. Couchman has done in recommending Petitioner's prosecution, the acts of Mr. Couchman amount to an attempt of criminal misappropriation. Yet Petitioner ventures to presume that Mr. Couchman never did for a moment think that he was doing wrong. He must have honestly believed that if the money were recouped, no harm was done. Petitioner mentions these circumstances not to comment on Mr. Couchman's conduct, but only as an instance as to how even good English scholars like Mr. Couchman, with the best of intentions, could be carried away by a wrong interpretation of the rules or law. If gentlemen of such liberal English education should not interpret the rules correctly, does this not show that Petitioner's case should not have been viewed with so much rigour and severity? There is no doubt Petitioner has been made the victim of a deep conspiracy, and unfortunately for Petitioner Mr. Couchman was carried away by misrepresentations of persons like Sheshagiri, who has, as stated already, been judicially and departmentally found to be a perjurer.

26. That Petitioner begs to represent, if such strained interpretation be put on these ordinary transactions of every-day life carried on with nothing but the purest of motives, it would be extremely difficult for low-paid Government Servants to get on in the world. That the loans were honestly contracted with the serious intention of repaying them within the time is evident from the fact that in Kasim Sahib's loan the debt had been duly discharged long before the case was thought of, and the fact that Abbas Sahib, the manager of Kasim Sahib's estate, had to sue Petitioner's wife for the debt cannot be an argument that there was any want of intention to repay. For the suit was allowed to be brought at the request of Petitioner's wife herself, because when Kasim Sahib died and his children were minors it was necessary that to legalize the repayment the person (Abbas Sahib) who demanded it should show that he had the right to collect the debt due to Kasim Sahib, and this he was asked to do by a suit. There can be nothing wrong or unusual in this. And as regards Surappa Shetti's debt Petitioner's son had admittedly taken only Rs. 200, while he had delivered a pro. note for Rs. 500, and it is admitted by Sheshagiri that even those Rs. 200 had been promised to be soon discharged. Wherein then does Petitioner's guilt consist?

27. That the Head Assistant Collector having in his letter to the Collector, dated 20th November 1896, referred to a past case against Petitioner and worded the reference in a way which would have the effect of prejudicing the Collector against Petitioner, Petitioner only thinks it fair to say in reply what the Government thought of him in that case. In Government Order, dated 23rd October 1896, No. 6440, the Government emphatically said in para. 3—"The Government has gone through the papers very carefully and has come to the conclusion that there is no proof of fraud and that there is no sufficient ground for even suspecting it". And as regards the confusion in the accounts, the Government accepted Petitioner's contentions as having "force" in them, but only thought that Petitioner was "unfit to be in independent charge," adding however that "after his long service of 28 years, it appears to Government that he should not be reduced in pay, but that he should cease to be a Deputy Tahsildar and revert to a Clerkship on the same pay". It was in accordance with this order that Petitioner had been given the post of Head Clerk in question, and here he so distinguished himself that when the Stationary Sub-Magistrate's scheme came into operation, Mr. Slight, the then Head Assistant Collector, repeatedly urged Petitioner's claims in very strong terms before the Collector for a post of Stationary Sub-Magistrate, and Mr. Slight's successors also have admitted Petitioner's efficiency (vide copies of Testimonials enclosed). In this connection Petitioner may be permitted to state that there are orders of Government ruling that when a Government Servant has once been punished for a distinct offence, this offence should not be brought forward against him when he is again charged with any other offence subsequently, but simply punished for the subsequent offence. Petitioner regrets his inability to quote the date and No. of the G. O.

28. Petitioner most humbly and respectfully begs to solicit therefore that on a kind and favourable consideration of the above circumstances and after perusal of the full records of this case, Your Honourable Board may be graciously pleased to save Petitioner from any official degradation and mental troubles by being restored with arrears of pay to his own post of Head Clerk of the Head Assistant Collector's Office or, if that is not feasible, by being given any other post of equal pay till he is able to retire and that he may not be unnecessarily driven mad by being compelled to serve on Rs. 25 in a post that in the public estimation is as good as dismissal to him.

For which act of kindness Petitioner shall, as in duty bound, ever feel grateful.

4. That accordingly Petitioner was appointed by the Collector to the post of Head Accountant and Treasurer, Puttur.

5. No sooner Petitioner received the above Board's order, he applied for the copy of the same and Collector's report submitted to the Honorable Board. But to the great disappointment of Petitioner, the Collr. refused twice to grant such copy (Copies of Collector's orders are enclosed) On account of Petitioner's long sickness in a state of melancholy he was unable ere this to apply for such copy to the Honorable Board. 7. That Petitioner did not however derive any benefit from such medical treatment. During this interval Petitioner received order (copy× enclosed) from the Ag. Collector declining to grant such further leave. × Ex. H

That Petitioner therefore put in a petition on 4th June 1898 (copy× enclosed) praying that the Dt Surgeon may be asked to grant Petitioner a medical certificate contemplated in the Collector's endorsement dated 18-2-97 No 201 quoted in para 2 of this petition, but the Dt Surgeon as per requisition of the Collector so it appears, has furnished 2 medical certificates (copies× enclosed) recommending Petitioner each time leave of absence for 3 months. As directed in the last certificate, although Petitioner took a sea voyage he did not improve much in his ill health so just before the expiry of his leave Petitioner submitted another application (copy enclosed) to the Collector again requesting that the Dt Surgeon may be asked to examine Petitioner with the view of granting him a medical certificate for retirement as his present ill health mentioned in the certificates will not permit Petitioner to do any further public service. × Ex. I; Ex. J and K; Ex. L

9. That Petitioner will attain 55 years of age in July 1899. He has been ailing for a long time even with loss of pay, and therefore respectfully prays that on kind consideration of his long and faithful service of 36 years and his present untimely sickness he may be allowed to retire from the post of Head Clerk, Head Assistant Collector's Forwarded.

Mr Abreo's petition to Board dated 16.12.98 (enclosure m to the present petition) was forwarded to Board with the following remarks:-

The petitioner having been found by the District Surgeon to be permanently incapacitated for further Government service, has been ordered to retire on invalid pension with effect from 2.1.1899, the date of the medical certificate with reference to Rule 13 of the rules published at page 6 of G.O. No 1662 dated 26.8.97.

I think the petitioner's prayer be allowed to retire as Head lerk of the Head Assistant llector's office is not admiss under the rules, as he is titled only to invalid nsion with effect from the Instant and also in view is reduction to a post of o as a penalty.

In paras 1 & 2 of the petition petitioner refers to two idents in his official career which were finally disposed of in Board's Proceedings Mis No 7008 (L.R) dated 3rd November 1890 and Mis No 954 L.R. dated 12th March 1897.

Petitioner's application for copies of Board's Proceedings Mis No 954 L.R dated 12th March 1897, Board's Reference No 389 dated 6th February 1897 and Collector's order Dis No 142 dated 7th February 1897 was rejected as the documents of which copies were applied for are of a confidential nature
