To The Court of the District Munsif of Kutnad

Submitted by V. Kumarappan nair, Court-Keeper of the above court.

I petitioned that I have become unable to discharge my duties further on account of my advanced years and ill-health and that I may be retired from the Service on a gratuity. I have received your Honor's order directing me to produce the necessary medical certificate under the rules.

I am bedridden being unable to stand up or walk on account of dropsy throughout my body brought on by excess of bile. Besides being unable to swallow any sort of food, I am suffering from a pain in the stomach and fever. Therefore I have been unable to present myself before the Surgeon and bring his certificate. I humbly submit that in my present state of health it is impossible for me to appear before the Surgeon.

I therefore humbly pray that your Honor will be pleased to exempt me from getting medical certificate and recommend payment of gratuity to me. Letter to the
