Instead of coming on his beat he sent official covers by one Lala Saheb, a resident of Naidupett. At the same time he wrote a pencil chit to Ojili Station House Officer requesting him to falsely enter his number as having met Ojili constable on beat. This chit has been produced by Ojili S. H. Copy of minute of 3 C H C No 382 Sheik Ibrahim of Dachur Station, Rapur Dn.

This Head Constable with 2 constables N^os 702 and 630 were escorting 2 yanadies, prisoners arrested in House-breaking cases from Sydapuram Station to Rapur. On the way the prisoners escaped. The head constable's account is that he was easing himself at some distance behind, having warned the escort during his absence to be very careful. He was about to join an escor and got within ½ a furlong of them, when they shouted out that the 2 prisoners were runnin away. They all ran after the prisoners but the bushes were so thick that even if persons were within a few yards of one another, they would not be able to see one another. The constables, he says, reported to him that when the prisoner got up from easing themselves they ran away, as the hand cuffs got loose and severed from the hands of one. The constables declare that soon after they set out, the Head constable ordered the hand cuff to be taken off the one pri-soner, they started hand-cuffed together

so that

so that he could the more easily carry the bundle, that they protested against this as they knew the road they were going led through jungle. That the hand-cuff was not fastened, to both, when the prisoners ran, is evident. If fastened they could not have got away. It would be an impossibility even in open ground much more so in thick scrub jungle. For this the Head-Constable must be held responsible. Had it not been for this gross carelessness, the prisoners would not have attempted an escape. The constables say that at the moment of the escape, the Head Constable was following 1st prisoners. 1st prisoner jumped down off the road calling out "Come on pappa" to the other. The Head constable ran after 1st prisoner and fell down. No 630 who was following the Head constable gave chase and no 702, who was behind all ran across the thorn bushes to catch them.

This does not satisfactorily account for the escape. It merely shows that the prisoners had a good start of the Constables proving that they must have been going along in very loose order. With ordinary care and even supposing the prisoners were not hand-cuffed an escape could not take place under the circumstances. Head Constable was

4 = Copy heading only.

was suspended pending enquiries and remained under suspension ever since. He was engaged and ~ honestly, it is believed, in trying with the other constables to find the prisoners, who are probably in hiding in Cuddapah District, where they were arrested; there was considerable delay in communicating with him and the other constables and getting their explanations. Head Constable is now reduced to 4th Grade Head Constable, and ~~as~~ as lose of pay while he was under suspension would be too heavy a punishment in addition to reduction, he has been recommended to the Deputy. Inspector. General for re-instatement from suspension with benifit of arrears of pay for the period he was under suspension.

Copy of minute of 3d GHC no 382 Sheik Ibrahim.

(I) Not recording in occurrence report for the day statement of a witness examined in a murder case.

(II) Delay in arrest and search of accused in the case.

(III) Delay of a day and a night in forwarding occurrence report; these clear points were specially noted by Sessions Judge and Superintendent was adressed officially by District Magistrate with request to notice them.

Charges 1 and 3.

9 & 696.

Delinquent got report of a murder case and reached scene of crime on 18th. He held punchayet on 19th. On 18th he examined 5th witness but did not embody this with statement in the occurrence report for 18th. and the occurrence report was not sent to Magistrate on 18th as it should have been, but on 19th.

4 = Copy heading only.

The evidence of the 5th witness was found suspicious by Sessions Judge.

The delinquent's defence on charge (1) is that he did not include 5th witness' evidence in the occurrence report by 'oversight'. This is no defence at all. In charge (3) his defence is that he had no occurrence report forms with him on 18th and had to send to Station for them. This is nonsense. He had writing materials & to paper and he ought to have taken out forms with him when he went out to enquire. He must have known they were wanted.

Charge 2

The delinquent reached scene of crime on 18th and on 18th evening had sufficient evidence to implicate all the accused. In the Judgement the Sessions Judge says this fact was clear. He did not however arrest any of the accused or search their houses till 20th.

Delinquent's defence is that he had not enough evidence to arrest on till 19th and that on 19th he could not find the accused. These statements are both deliberate falsehoods. He says he did not search their houses because he thought it was no use doing so. He searched them on 20th on Inspector's arrival.

The delinquents action in this case in the above 3 ways caused the case to break down in court. His conduct in not ~~at once~~ at once reporting this evidence of 5th witness is very suspicious because this witness' evidence is suspicious and he gave 2 different statements. His failure to arrest and search is due either to stupidity or fear of responsibility. The statement that he could not find accused on 19th is all nonsense. They were ~~in~~ the village on 20th when arrested; and even if absent on 19th their houses might have been searched. Besides they ought to have been arrested on 18th.
