CERTIFIED that ~~(subject to the remarks below recorded)~~ qualifying service in ~~inferior or~~ superior grades has been duly proved for 33 years 4 months ~~8~~ 18 days; and that a superannuation ~~(pension or gratuity)~~ pension not exceeding Rs. 200 - - per mensem equal to 30/60ths of ~~average emoluments~~, is admissible under Articles 602 and 618(b) 3rd extra of the Civil Service Regulations.

~~(pension or gratuity) is chargeable to (here specify whether to General Revenues, or to what Fund).~~

The calculations have been duly verified. ~~The (pension or gratuity) is chargeable to (here specify whether to General Revenues, or to what Fund).~~

Although the Character and past conduct of the applicant are given as "good" opposite to No. 1 On the 3rd page of the application, yet from the papers furnished in explanation of his suspension from employment from 1st May to 30th ~~August~~ 1872, they do not appear to have been entirely satisfactory. In the circumstances, it rests with Government to determine, whether any, and if so, what reduction should be made in the amount of pension admissible to the applicant with reference to Article 514(b) of the Civil Service Regulations.

Malhari Rao has been employed as writer in this Court since July 1865. He is a most intelligent young man, a willing worker and is exceedingly useful owing to his thorough knowledge of English & Tamil, & the complete & satisfactory manner in which he has learnt his duties. 24th October 1866. Signed/ F. M. Kindersley I have every reason to confirm the above remarks. Malhari Rao is a most intelligent & well mannered young man. 19th January 1867. Signed/ F. M. Kindersley I have a very good opinion of Malhari Rao; he knows his work very well & is a good English scholar: Moreover he is free from that self conceit which is displayed by so many young Hindus whose acquirements or abilities are above the average. Had I remained in this Court I should have taken an early opportunity of promoting him = for I consider that he deserves a better post than his present. December 8-1867. Signed/ W. S. Lilly Ag Judge I concur with what my predecessors have said as to Malhari Rao's abilities, & when an opportunity offered I promoted him to the post of Deputy Head Clerk. If he takes my advice, he will apply himself a little more vigorously to routine work & carrying out the Judge's orders. He has the making of an excellent public servant in him, but he must exert himself a little more to please, or he will not get on. No doubt as he gets older he will see the necessity of this, & get on famously. Signed/ J. H. N[illegible]son Judge 26th January 1870.		24-1.68	Promotion

V. Malhari Rao was Deputy Head Clerk when I took charge of the Court & shortly after I did so the Head Clerk's place became vacant & I gave him the post. I have had every reason to be satisfied with the way in which he has discharged his duties & trust he will still continue to maintain his good character & give satisfaction in the performance of his duties. (signed) A. Cruickshank Ag. Judge. 12 May 1871. V. Malhari Rao has now left this Court, having been appointed to the post of Sheristadar in the District of Coimbatore. I have much pleasure in adding my favorable testimony to that of my predecessors and I hope that he will, in his new position, give the same satisfaction to his superior that he has done here. From the Register it will appear that he was under suspension for 4 months. He was suspended by Mr. Nelson, pending an enquiry into the cause of the great arrears found in the office at the commencement of the adjournment in 1872. The enquiry was completed when I took charge and I have already recorded my opinion that Malhari Rao was not so much to blame as others in the matter. As, however, he had been suspended by my predecessor & I considered he had been, to some extent in fault, I did not think proper to remit any portion of his punishment. Since that time I have been satisfied with his work and therefore record my	Acting District Judge			Acting District Judge

On saturday the 20th Instant th judge went into the office to inspect t working of it, and found irregulari of the gravest kind had prevailed for so time.

Amongst other things the diary o the Principal Sudder Amin's Side had not been written up for upwards of a month: and that on the Small Cause side had not been written up for so ten days or more. The explicit rules laid down by the High Court for the management of the Copyists Departm had been systematically ignored, and a system was maintained which one the fa of it was unjust to the Copyists, and inconvenient to the public. And the results of the system were, that great delay in furnishing Copies was the rule and not the exception; that the Copyists did not get the proper remuneration for their labors; and the whole department was in confusion, nobody being responsible for the prompt supply of copies, the safe custody of records, or for any thing else. It also appeared that the Copyists were largely employed about the work of the Clerks, and that the Clerks had been very idle and dilatory, especially in the matter of preparing decrees, writing up diaries, entering plaints &c in the Registers, and the like.

Altogether the Judge felt much ashamed of the result of his inspection and came to the conclusion that the office was in bad order, principally, if not entirely through the incompetence of the Head Clerk, who has again and again been spoken to about various irregularities.

The Judge is at present of opinion that the Head Clerk is unfit for his p and should be removed; but before disposing of the matter will be glad to take from him and consider any written statement he may wish to offer in defence of himself. The same must be presented before Thursday night. Memorandum

Since writing the proceeding of the 23rd instant I have read the Head Clerks written statement, and heard his oral explanations, and I have made some further investigation into the state of the office.

DISTRICT C. U. T.

TINNEVELLY.

I find that things are even worse than I thought they were: and it is doubtful what irregularities might not now be brought to light by careful and patient investigation. This however is made impossible by the recess having arrived, and my leaving the Court in consequence this day.

DISTRICT C. U. T.

As soon however as the Court re-opens there must be a complete enquiry into the working of the office, and the Head Cler and his subordinates generally must be punished unless the state of the office to draw up a particular statement showing exactly the amount and nature of arrears of work existing last Saturday week, namely on the 21st instant; and showing specifically to the best of his ability the causes of the arrears accumulating, and on whom after the Head Clerk the blame principally rests.

As the Head Clerk has been allowed the amplest possible power and authority over the whole establishment, he must be primarily responsible for all irregularities and shortcomings brought to light. And as I have repeatedly called his attention to various irregularities, he has the less excuse.

Since I wrote the proceedings of the 23rd I have discovered amongst other things that the ledgers and Cash books have not been signed or counter-signed for about nine months; that no judgments have been translated, as required by the Code, for years; that no separate diaries have been prepared as expressly ordered by the High Court.

and that in spite of former animadversion on the subject of records, duly signed Diaries have not been prepared for a long time. The diary on the Small Cause Side was also more defective than was supposed.

It is abundantly clear that ~~every~~ every department in the office has been managed for some time back in defiance of written rules and verbal Orders, and that probably through the expectation of my soon leaving the Court, many rules insisted upon or introduced by me have been suffered to fall into desrepute.

The general state of the office appears to be almost chaotic, and it will be necessary for the Acting Head Clerk to report carefully upon every department of it.

After a consideration of the memo of my predecessor and the explanation of the Head Clerk called for as well as the investigation conducted by the Acting Head Clerk, I have come to the conclusion that the delay which formed the subject of investigation, is chargable generally on the office, though no doubt the Head Clerk was ultimately responsible. Had I more knowledge of the different officers, I should, no doubt be able to award proper punishments to the offenders. But having only recently joined I feel that I am unable to do so. I therefore have contented myself with a general censure and a notice that any repetition of the delay will ~~be foll~~ meet by severe punish.

to mention that, in my opinion the Depu[ty] Clerk is far more immediately responsible for the delay than he was.

The Head Clerk will be reinstated at the end of the period for which he was suspended by the Judge.

He appears to have erred, more through leniency towards the rest of the office, and want of firmness in exacting work than anything else. Should he continue in office, which appears doubtful, he will have to be careful not to allow arrears to accumulate.

As I find that the Copyists, who were dismissed, are not really responsible for the delay in granting Copies, the originals not having been supplied in time to them I have reappointed them and directed the Ag. Head Clerk to appoint others as temporary Copyists to do the present emerg[ent] work
