mentioned in the certificate on the reverse of the Bill presented for payment of his pension, the Accountant General retrenched the above said sum of Rs.35-15-4 from the amount of pension on the ground that the re-employment is objectionable.

4. It is needless to point out how much inconvenience the petitioner was put to by the said retrenchment, specially at the petitioner's old age when he has to support a large family in these days of scarcity.

5. In these circumstances your humble petitioner most respectfully craves that the Accountant General may be instructed to refund the amount retrenched from his pension by according sanction to his temporary re-employment under article 579 of C.S.R.3rd Edition.

6. For which act of generosity the petitioner shall as in duty bound ever pray.
