Dist Police office
 The month of 19-7-99

Superintendent of Police
 Chingleput Dist.

At about 1.30 or 2. a.m. on 12th Morning while all the Police (i.e. Hf Const: no. 202, and Const: no. 198 of the Railway Police and Hf Const: no. 7 and Const no. 372 of the Village Police) were present as well as some local talukdar, these Byragies at a given signal arose and began to move off, when the Police tried to stop them the Byragies used force and effected their escape leaving certain pots and clothes behind them.

It appears that at the place where these Byragies were first found they have dug a pit which was found in the morning after their escape. It is presumed that on arrival they had buried some property there which they have dug up again before their escape.

This story is supported by a rumour I hear but am unable to get authentication viz that prior to the general bolt of the Byragies each one had got permission to leave the pith to answer the calls of nature, that they had left one by one each man being absent some little time and that it was on the return of the last man that they made their rush. Two of these Byragies who assaulted the Police and ran away from the pith were recaptured and identified as being of the 9 detained by the Police.

These men were charged before the 2nd class Magistrate of Jorjeveram under Sec: 353 and 224 I.P.C who discharged them on the ground that they were never in lawful custody, the Court holding that these Byragies were under Surveillance and not in custody at least that is what I make out of the judgement.

Of course all the Police concerned depose to the men not being under arrest, that is natural enough as if the Byragies escape from lawful custody the Police concerned are liable to be charged under Sec 223 I.P.C.

I differ from the Sub. magistrate and departmental Consider that these Byragies were under arrest and hold that 1st Grade Hf Const: no. 7 Jagannatha mood is mainly responsible for their escape and that 2nd class Const: no. 372 is also to blame though possibly in a minor degree. The indifference of these Hf Const: and Const as to their responsibility in such a case is borne out by their arriving on the scene in undress.

The defence of Hf Const: no. 7 and Const: no. 372 is that the Byragies were not under arrest whereas I hold they were forced to stop as they were where the Police looked and surrounded by Police and Village Servants.

1st Grade Hf Const: no. 7 Jagannatha mood is reduced to 4th grade Hf Const: and 2nd class Constable no. 372 are suspended for a month as a specific punishment and awarded a B.M. to take effect from 12.5.99 and 26.5.99 respectively.

1. 1st Sub Const. 7 in Jagannatha mudali, Trivellore Str. D i Du. -
2. Arresting and Charging a bargasman on a frivolous Complaint of theft. -
3. About 6 pm. on 18.11.97 Vengu Reddy, a wealthy ryot (V. magte and union Chairman) of Sulurpet, Nellore District who is in the habit of visiting Trivellore Complained to S.H.O. (this report) that as he passed Sektaramiah Chetty's bazaar one Murupason mudali declined to sell Sektaramiah for 10 annas & 12 pumbleppas he had in a basket, he there on offered Murupason Rs 1.2... and on his assenting to offer, handed him Rs 1 and told him to bring the fruits to his looking, but, when Murupason started Sektaramiah snatched the basket from him and took it, its contents into his house. S.H.O took Complaint as one of the fr. and proceeding with Trivellore Village magistrate to Sektaramiah's bazaar secured the fruits from him next day. S.H.O Examined Murupason and 2 witnesses cited by Vengu Reddy, and as these corroborated Complaint arrested and charged Sektaramiah under Sec. 379. Before Sub. magte the witnesses spoke of assault in taking the basket of fruit and Sub. magistrate sent case to Deputy magte, ^{for disposal under Sec 392. The Deputy magte:} having inquired fully dis. charged Sektaramiah and remarked Case was a mere petty & Squabble and S.H.O's action was suspicious and unwarranted. During the inquiry it transpired one of the 2 witnesses cited by Vengu Reddy belonged to his village, Sulurpet, and the other was farrier who who shod his pony, the S.H.O admitted he had examined none of the neighbouring bargasman and Sektaramiah asserted Murupason had sold him the fruits for 10 annas when Vengu Reddy offered Rs 1, words passed between between them and Vengu Reddy went away threatening to teach him a lesson, he at once produced the fruits on demand of S.H.O and was called on to carry them to Station which he did. In station Report of 18.11.97 S.H.O reported complaint & merely added he went with Village Magistrate and recovered the fruits, wrote nothing about Saktaramiah's Statement or the circumstances of recovery. In station Report of 19.11.97 again S.H.O having given statements of Murafason and the 2 other witnesses added Village Magistrate stated accused at first denied but afterwards Confessed and produced the fruits and accused on inquiry stated according to V. Magistrate's report. In victim's Report was there any attempt to give accused's Statement or details regarding recovery of the fruits. There can be no doubt there was nothing Criminal in the case. —

4. The 1st forest: pleads he thought the case was one of theft but this plea on part of a 1st Grade 1st forest of long experience is quite incredible.
5. Reduced to 2nd grade for 3 months from 1st April 1898.
6. Has not been Suspended.
7. The case was first brought to Supdt's notice by Dy. Magistrate, on 10.3.98 and disposal delayed by awaiting Copy of 1st Const's deposition which was received only on 31.3.98.
