Negligently allowing 9 Byragies to escape from their Custody on night of 11th and morning of 12th April 1899.

On 11.4.99 the V. M. of Palavi found 9 Byragies Camped near his village and thinking they were concerned in House Breaking at Chinglepet reported the matter to Railway Constable No. 202 & 2 Pianada Sepoys who with the Village Magistrate and Village Servants brought these Byragies to the Village Chultram Sending word to the Chinglepet Station House Officer Chultram Sending word to the Chinglepet Station House Officer who with Constable No. 372 arrived on the scene about 9 P.M. that night. These Byragies were taken by the Railway Police to the Village Chultram about 7.30 P.M. and detain them by the Village Magistrate, Railway Police and Village Servants till the arrival of Head Constable No. 7 Jagannatha Mooda. Station House Officer in Charge of Chinglepet Station.

On the arrival of H.C. No. 7 the Village Magistrate and Villagers (a large number of the latter had assembled) wanted Station House Officer No. 7 to search these Byragies and lock them up in one of the rooms of the Choultry but this he refused to do saying that search could not be made at night-time and he had not sufficient grounds to search the men Station House Officer No. 7 told the Byragies to sleep that night on the pial and told the Villagers who were clamouring for the Byragies to be searched that they could be searched in the morning.

The Village Magistrate of Chinglepet accompanied the Sub. Station Officer No. 7 and Const. No. 372 to Palavi and both No. 7 and 372 were in uniform (The House Breaking these Byragies were suspected of being concerned took place in Chinglepet Sub. Magistrate's house hence the interest the Chinglepet Village Magistrate took in it)

OFFICE OF THE SUPDT. OF

At about 1.30 or 2. a.m. on 12th Inst while all the Police (ie. 4th Const: No. 202, and Const: No. 198 of the Railway Police and 4th Const: No. 7 and Const No. 372 of the Chinkapuk Police) were present as well as some local talaries, these Bypagies at a given Signal arose and began to move off, when the Police tried to stop them the Bypagies used force and effected their escape, leaving certain pots and clothes behind them.

It appears that at the tope where these Bypagies were first found they have dug a pit which was found in the morning after their escape. It is presumed that on arrival they had buried some property there which they have dug up again before their escape.

This idea is supported by a rumour I hear but am unable to get authentication Viz that prior to the general bolt of the Bypagies each one had got permission to leave the pial to answer the calls of nature, that they had left one by one each man being absent some little time and that it was on the return of the last man that they made their rush Two of these Bypagies who assaulted the Police and ran away from the Chinkapuk were recaptured and identified as being of the 9 detained by the Police.

These men were Charged before the 2nd Class magte. of Jonjeeveram under Sec: 353 and 224 I.P.C. who discharged them on the grounds that they were never in lawful Custody, the court holding that these Bypagies were under Surveillance and not in Custody at least that is what I make out of the Judgment.

Of Course all the Police Concerned depose to the men not being under arrest, that is natural enough as of the Bypagies escape from lawful Custody the Police concerned are liable to be Charged under Sec 223 I.P.C.

I differ from the Sub. magistrate and department Considers that these Bypagies were under arrest and hold that 1st Grade 4th Const: No. 7 Jagan atha mood is mainly responsible for their escape and that 2nd class Const. No. 372 is also to blame though possibly in a minor degree the indifferent of these 4th Const: and Const. as to their responsibility in such a case to turn out by their arriving on the scene in undress.

The defence of 4th Const: No. 7 and Const: No. 372 is that the Bypagies were not under arrest whereas I hold they were forced to stop as they were where the Police washed and surrounded by Police and Village Servants.

1st Grade 4th Const: No. 7 Jaganatha mood is reduced to 4th Grade 4th Const: and 2nd class Constable No 372 Arumugam to suspended for a month as a specific punishment and awarded a B.M. to take effect from 12.5.99 and 26.5.99 respectively.

Memo No 42 dt 6/4/98.

1. 1st Sub Court of Jagannatha Mudali, Jewellers Str: D i Dt. —

2. Arresting and Charging a bazaarman on a frivolous Complaint of theft. —

3. About 6 pm. on 18.11.97 Venga Reddy, a wealthy ryot (V. mayte and union Chairman) of Sulurpet, Nellore District who is in the habit of visiting Jewellore Complained to S.H.O (this Sub Court) that as he passed Seetaramiah Chetty's bazaar one Muruposa Mudali declined to sell Seetaramiah for 10 annas 12 pumbleposas he had in a basket, he thereon offered Muruposan Rs 1.2.- and on his assenting to offer handed him Re 1 and told him to bring the fruits to his lodging, but, when Muruposan started Seetaramiah snatched the basket from him and took it, to contents into his house. S.H.O took Complaint as one of theft and proceeding with Jewellore Village magistrate to Seeta-ramiah's bazaar secured the fruits from him next day S.H.O examined Muruposan and 2 witnesses cited by Venga Reddy, and as these corroborated Complaint arrested and charged Seetaramiah under Sec: 379 Before Sub-mayte the witnesses spoke of assault in taking the basket of fruit and Sub magistrate sent case to Deputy mayte for disposal under Sec 392. The Deputy mayte having inquired fully discharged Seetaramiah and remarked Case was a mere petty squabble and S.H.O's action was suspicious and unwarranted. During the inquiry it transpired one of the 2 witnesses cited by Venga Reddy belonged to his village, Sulurpet, and the other was Jarrier who plied his poney, the S.H.O admitted he had examined none of the neighbouring bazaarman and Seetaramiah asserted Muruposan had sold him the fruits for 10 annas when Venga Reddy offered Re 1, words passed between between them and Venga Reddy went away threatening to teach him a lesson, he at once produced the fruits on demand of S.I.o and was called on to carry them to station which he did. In station Report of 18.11.97 S.I.o reported Complaint & merely added he went with Village Magte: and recovered the fruits, wrote nothing about Seetaramiah's Statement or the circumstances of recovery. In station Report of 19.11.97 again S.I.o having given statements of Narasa son and the 2 other witnesses added Village magistate stated accused at first denied but afterwards Confessed and produced the fruits and accused on inquiry stated according to V. magte's report. In neither Report was there any attempt to give accused's statement or details regarding recovery of the fruits. There Can be no doubt there was nothing criminal in the case. —

4. The Headconst: pleads he thought the case was one of theft but this plea on part of a 1st Grade Headconst of long experience is quite incredible.

5. Reduced to 2nd grade for 3 months from 1st April 1898.

6. Has not been Suspended

7. The case was first brought to Supts notice by Dy: magte, on 10.3.98 and disposal delayed by awaiting Copy of Std Consts deposition which was received only on 31.3.98.
