ORDER THEREON,

Character - Good.

Under articles 485 & 518(b) of the Civil Service Regulations (3rd Edition), His Excellency the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Tinnevelly Mahomed Ghouse, Abdullah Hussain Thaker, late 4th Clerk, Dt. Board Office, Tinnevelly, an Invalid pension of Rupees (14-10-8) Fourteen, annas ten and pies eight per mensem payable at Tinnevelly, from 1st August 1898 in consideration of his qualifying Superior service of 22 years, 10 months and 28 days.

2. The pension sanctioned will be debited to Local Funds.

3. H.E. the Governor in Council is also pleased

The applicant was invalided on the 29th June 1898, but the President says that he was retained in service till the 31st July 1898 for finally settling the accounts of the Thalavankottai Estate and handing over the property to the Zamindar who had attained his majority. The President recommends that this period may be reckoned as qualifying service and that the deficiency of 1 day still required by the applicant to complete 23 years' service may be condoned by Government under Article 465-A C.S.R. If the recommendation be complied with, the Acct Genl certifies that the applicant will be eligible for a pension of Rs. 15-5-4 per mensem against Rs. 14-10-8 otherwise admissible.

to grant to the applicant an Invalid gratuity of Rs. (30-0-0) Thirty only in consideration of his qualifying inferior service of 5 years, 7 months, and 16 days under arts. 436, 485 and 524(a) of the C.S.R.

Refer to A.G.

The applicant has also rendered a qualifying inferior service of 5 years 7months and 16 days for which the Accountant-General certifies he is eligible for a gratuity of Rs.30.

The President's recommendation of the condonation of the ~~difference~~ deficiency seems inadmissible with reference to the ~~nature~~ ruling of the Government of India in its letter No.1757 P dated 18th April 1896, Finance and Commerce Department. The Government of India says that if an officer is eligible for gratuity in respect of his inferior service in addition to pension on account of his superior service, the deficiency in the latter cannot be condoned under Article 465-A, as this Article applies only to cases in which the inferior service does not qualify.

The Govt. of India wording is as follows:- "If an officer elects under art 436(b) of the Regs to count his superior & inferior portions of his service separately the portions of the service counting for pension under superior and inferior scales should be the portions actually passed in superior & inferior service and not periods calculated by first applying the rule in art. 465 A., which is meant to apply to cases in which the inferior service does not qualify"

JCS

In the case put up, the Accountant-General also ~~says~~ said that in the case of an officer claiming a pension for superior service who had also rendered inferior service the Local Government could under Article 465-A(2)(a) C.S.R condone a deficiency in his qualifying superior service not not exceeding half the inferior service and also not exceeding 12 months; and that, when this had been done, he forfeit all claim to a separate gratuity for the inferior service, as it cannot be the intention of the rules that he shoul secure a double benefit for the same ~~so~~ service.

If in the applicant's case the above concession cannot be allowed, there will be no use in complying with the other request.

Had the President, instead of directing the man to appear before a medical officer, permitted him to remain in service for the short period required to entitle him to a higher pension, this reference might have been avoided. His attention, should it is submitted, be

The option given by Art 436(b) of the C.S.R where a portion of the service is superior & the rest inferior is to count (a) the whole as inferior towards pension or gratuity on the inferior scale or (b) the superior portion towards pension or gratuity for on the superior scale & the inferior portion towards gratuity ~~[illegible]~~ on the inferior scale.

And under the Govt of India's ruling quoted above Art 465 A can only be applied so as to condone a deficiency in superior service out of inferior service where the latter is not sufficient of itself to count for gratuity on the inferior scale.

Therefore it is submitted that Art 465 A cannot be applied to present case; & the man may get his pension on the superior scale for his superior service & his gratuity on the inferior scale for his inferior service.

As the man was physically unfit for further duty the Presdt. shd not have retained

But the Acct Genl may be asked about this as he certifies the admissibility of the higher pension and his reply to it – C No. 1019. The Acctt Genl. says th he did not intend that the condonation of the deficiency of a day in the applicant's service to complete 23 years' service sho be made out of his inferior service, but that it should be don absolutely under art. 465 A (1) of the C.S.R., without affecti

the applicant's claim to a separate gratuity for his infe service under art. 436 C.S.R.

Art. 465 A (1) says that if the pension be a Provincial char

the Local Govt. may, in all cases, condone a deficiency of 3 month in qualifying service.

And clause (2)(a) to the same article runs as follows:–

"If, besides his qualifying service, an officer has rendered service (actual) paid from the General Revenues, but not counting for pension, or if an officer claiming a pension for superior service, has also rendered Inferior service, the Local Govt. may condone a deficiency in the officer's qualifying service not exceeding half his non-qualifying, or as the case may be, Inferior service, and also, not exceeding 12 months in all."

Clause 1 of the article seems to apply only when the officer has not rendered either nonqualifying or inferior service. In the present case, however, as the applicant has also rendered Inferior service, the deficiency should, it is submitted, be condoned out of this service, in which case he foregoes his gratuity for the Inferior service. On reconsideration, it seems that the A.G. is right. There does not seem to be any compulsion to condone a deficiency in superior service out of inferior service where such has been rendered in cases where the deficiency does not exceed the limit of 3 months which the Local Govt may in all cases condone.

The man may therefore, I submit get a pension for his superior service of 23 years & a gratuity for his inferior service i.e. a monthly pension of Rs 15-15-4 and a gratuity of Rs 30.

SIR,

With reference to Official Memorandum No. 53 dated the 5 of December 1898, I have the honour to state that, in reporting that a pension of Rs 15-5-4 per mensem was admissible to Tinnevelly Mahomed Gouse Abdulla Hussain Thaker the deficiency of one day in his pensionable superior service being condoned, this office did not intend that the condonation should be made out of his Inferior service, but that it should be done absolutely under article 465 A (1) of the civil service Regulations without affecting the applicant's claim to a separate gratuity for his inferior service under article 436 of the Regulations. The Government of Indi letter quoted in your Memorandum, does not seem to preclude the Local Government from granting a Concession which it is Competent to do under article 465 A (1) irrespective of the applicants' other service. Should Government however Consider that the applicant in the present case is not entitled to the Concession he may be granted a pension of Rs 14-10-8 only as certified in paragraph 1 of this Office report No. A.O.J/366 dated 2 November 1898.

The enclosures to your Memorandum under reply are herewith returned.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

No. A.O.J/366 d/ 2. 11. 98.

In his certificate and report marginally noted the Acctt-Genl certifies that if the deficiency in the applicant's superior service to complete 23 years' service be condoned under art. 465 A of the C.S.R, he will be eligible for a higher pension and that a gratuity is, in addition, admissible for his inferior service.

But, from the ruling contained in the Govt. of India letter No 1757 P. d/18th April 1896, Fince & Comce Dept., it appears that in the case of an officer whose service has been for sometime inferior and for sometime superior, art. 465 A. of the C.S.R. can only be applied so as to condone a deficiency in the superior service out of the inferior when the latter is not sufficient of itself to count for gratuity; in which case, the applicant seems only entitled to a pension for his superior service of 22 years & odd and a gratuity for his inferior service. The Acctt-Genl. is requested to report if this view is correct.

Sir,

I have the honor to reply to your letter No: AD.H/187 dated 6th October 1898.

Footnote.

Para 1. No privilege leave allowance was recovered from the applicant. The leave on loss of pay granted for 3 days, 25th to 27th May 1883 was in continuation of the privilege leave of 1 month & 9 days granted from 16th April 1883. This leave was granted when the applicant was employed in the Local Fund Circle Board of Sermadevi as shown in the pension application. The Circle Board having been abolished long ago, no explanation can be obtained on the point. It has to be presumed that the leave of 3 days aforesaid was treated as extraordinary leave.
