Despatch from the Secretary of State for India, No. 246, dated 22nd June 1876.
Despatch to the Secretary of State for India, No. 197, dated 8th June 1899.
Despatch from the Secretary of State for India, No. 121 (Financial), dated 6th July 1899.

OBSERVATIONS.—The Government of India have had under consideration a proposal to discontinue the quarterly returns for ordinary pensions and gratuities prescribed in Article 1006 of the Civil Service Regulations. Experience has shown that owing to the careful examination of applications for pensions by Local Governments and other authorities competent to sanction pensions, and by Accountants General and Comptrollers, mistakes are not made and that the returns may safely be discontinued without any fear that pensions in excess of the amounts admissible will be granted.

RESOLUTION.—With the sanction of Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, the Governor General in Council accordingly directs that in future returns Nos. I to XI, and XVI and XVII, enumerated in Article 1006 (b), Civil Service Regulations, be discontinued. These orders do not affect the annual statements of extraordinary pensions and gratuities [Nos. XII to XV of the list under Article 1006 (b)], prescribed by the circular from this Department No. 1677, dated 12th July 1879, which will continue to be submitted as hitherto.

ORDER.—Ordered that the foregoing Resolution be communicated to all Local Governments and Administrations, to the several Departments* of the Government of India; to the Heads of Departments under this Department and to all Accountants General and Comptrollers.
