CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF THE AUDIT OFFICER (1).

CERTIFIED that ~~(subject to the remarks below recorded)~~ qualifying service in ~~inferior or~~ superior grades has been duly proved for 16 years 5 months + 29 days; and that an (reduced pension ~~or gratuity~~) not exceeding Rs. 63-5-3 per mensem equal to 16/60 of average emoluments, is admissible under Articles 485 + 518 (b) of the Civil Service Regulations, 520. ~~The calculations have been duly verified.~~ ~~The (pension or gratuity) is chargeable to (here specify whether to General Revenues, or to what Fund).~~

2. The calculations have been duly verified and the pension proposed above differs from that shown in the first page of the application because the Inspector General of Registration has taken into account the acting allowance drawn by the applicant from 8 April to 4 July 96 (when he acted as 2d. asstt.) which does not reckon as emoluments under article 530 (e), while this office has included only the personal ~~pay~~ allowance of Rs 25 which was absorbed in that ~~pay~~ allowance and which does reckon as emoluments under clause (b) (1) of the same article.

3. Although the applicant's character and past conduct are given as "good" opposite to No 1 on the 3d page of the pension application, yet one of the papers furnished shows that on one occasion he incurred the serious displeasure of his superiors which entailed his suspension and degradation in Septr: 98. It rests therefore with Govt: to determine with reference to article 514 (a) of the C.S.R, whether the applicant should be subjected to ~~any~~ a loss of any portion of his pension on that account.

4. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Inspector General in para 20 of his letter No 1617 d/31-7-99 enclosed.

Chief Secretariat, No.191,
Dated 31st August 1893.

Office Order

The above papers relate to the Budget clerk of this office, Chinnasawmi Mudaliyar. When examining the arrears list I found some papers in arrears and I noted that the Budget clerk should hurry up or explain. Accordingly the Chief Assistant urged him to submit the papers soon. The result has been that he has submitt~~ing~~ed a series of notes addressed to the Chief Assistant of the most insubordinate~~s~~ and improper character and that he has addressed to me a petition which he calls an appeal to Heaven, which is blasphemous in addition. In this petition, he refers to the late Chief Secretary Mr, now Sir Frederick Price in the most outrageous manner, and of course the whole petition is abuse quite intolerable in a subordinate of the Chief Assistant. That he knows that his language is improper and unbecoming is clear, because he says of this petition in one of his manuscript notes "wherein I express my thoughts" freely and without respect of persons or stations".

In the Chief Secretary's office we want good men, and thoroughly reliable. We must have not only good men, but the best. Reading this man's ordinary notes for orders, I find him flighty and quite unreliable. His present conduct shews him in addition insubordinate and insolent. It is plain that he cannot be kept in this office as a subordinate of the Chief Assistant. I feel compelled therefore to direct his immediate suspension for six months from 3rd September and reduction to an appointment of Rs.150 a month. √

2. Though he was declared unfit for further service by the Medical Board on the 3rd June 1899, he requested that his retirement might be given effect to from the 3rd September 1898, (the date from which he ceased to be on duty), on the ground that he was unwell and practically unfit for work from that date. As M.R.Ry. A. Chinnasawmi Mudaliyar was all along employed in the Chief Secretariat and never joined his post as Registrar of Nilgiris, his petition was submitted for the orders of Government, which decided that his pension should be reckoned from the date on which he was declared by the Medical Board to be unfit for further service.

Further, as the applicant was living at Vallinur, near Pondicherry, and forwarded a Medical certificate to the effect that he was too weak to travel to Madras to affix his finger impressions in the pension application etc, the papers had to (be be sent to the British Consular Agent at Pondicherry for the impressions being taken in his presence.
