Dated Bangalore, 24th Jan 1899.

SIR,

I shall be obliged if I can be favoured with a copy of the Madras Government order no: 918 Pension, dated the 4th December 1897, which the District Superintendent of Police, Civil, and military station of Bangalore requires for reference and record in his office. The order, I may mention, was quoted by the Accountant General Madras in dealing with an application for pension from a Constable of the station police force. The Accountant General was asked for a copy of the order in question and he referred the District Superintendent

Superintendent of Police to the Madras Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
