SIR,

With reference to your Official Memo No. 57 dated the 10th of August 1899 enquiring whether under Article 279 A of the Civil Account Code, this Government can permit the pension irregularly drawn by G. Appadurai Mudaliar, I have the honour to state that it is doubtful if Article 279 A should be applied in such a case. The best solution of the difficulty will be to refuse any additional pension for his subsequent service as the first pension continued to be drawn on reemployment in General Service.

but the applicant did not surrender any portion of exemption granted in the Accountant General's Circulars quoted above continued to hold the pensionable appointment. It is for consideration therefore whether by not fulfilling the conditions of the proviso in Article 569 (a) of the Civil Service Regulations, the applicant field all claims to pension in respect of the service rendered as Local Audit Clerk from 1st April '85 or in other words whether that service should be treated in the same way as his service prior to 1st April '85 to which the provisions of Article 569 Civil Service Regulations were stated in the Accountant General's Circular of 25th October '81 to be inapplicable. If Government is pleased to decide that the applicant does not forfeit his claim to pension for the service rendered subsequent to 1st April '85 in respect of which contribution for pension was received and is further pleased to sanction the writing off of the amount of pension irregularly drawn during such service amounting to Rs 2375-4-9 as per memo enclosed, the applicant may be granted a separate pension not exceeding Rs 7-2-9 a month for his subsequent service amounting to 12 yrs & 5 months under Articles 502, 518 (b), and 587 A of the Civil Service Regulations. If he had surrendered his pension and refunded the bonus of Rs 210 received by him, he would have been eligible for a superannuation pension of Rs 32-8-0 a month for his combined service amounting to 27 yrs 3 m and 3 days.

Any pension that may be granted to the applicant will be subject to such reduction as the Government may see fit to make under Article 514 of the Civil Service Regulations with reference to the copy of the Collector's Proceedings dated 25th September 1894 enclosed.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Collector in his letter No. 49 dated 9th March '99, accompanying.

information was requested as to whether article 569 C. S. R. is applicable to the case of this audit clerk. In reply, I was informed by you that pension application should be submitted under G. O. No 479, pension dated 3rd September '77 irrespective of the fact whether any pension is admissible or not. Under your No S. A. 6 dated 20th January '88. 582. As this office is not in possession of the order granting special bonus and pension to the applicant for his service in the D. P. O., you were addressed in No 49 of '88 dated 24th January '88 for copies of the same. These were received on 6th February '88 and the pension application was forwarded on the 9th idem. Hence some delay in the submission of the application.

2. The applicant's earlier service for which he was granted a compensation pension, has been copied in the 2nd page of the application from the entries

ORDER THEREON,

Please see the Accountant-General's Report. In the re-organization of the P.A.D. in 1880 the applicant's services were dispensed with from the 6th June 1880 and for his qualifying superior service of 15 years and 8 months he was granted a Compensation Pension of Rs 25-5-3 p.m. and a special bonus of Rs 210. — Vide G.O. No: 1057 dated the 3rd November 1880, and on the 11th October 1880 he, however, secured an employment under the local Fund Board of the Chingleput Division wherein he continued till the 1st January 1899 when he was superannuated having attained the age of 55 years. The Appointment he held under the local Fund Board was non-pensionable until the 1st April 1885 when it was declared to be pensionable. His pensionable service from 1st April 1885 amounts to 12 years and 3 months for which he is eligible for a pension of Rs 7-2-9 p.m. From the date of

Under articles 502, 518 (b) and 587 A of the Civil Service Regulations (3rd Edition), the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Y. Appadurai Mudaliar, Late Head Audit clerk, Local Audit Establishment, Collectors Office, Saidapet, a Superannuation Pension of Rupees () payable at Saidapet from 1st January 1899 in consideration of his qualifying Superior service of years, months and days

2. The full pension admissible under the rules has not been granted as the applicant's conduct and character have not been thoroughly satisfactory.

To the Accountant-General, with Register.

of his re-employment in October 1880 to that of his retirement in January 1899, the Applicant drew his pension and pay together. The Accountant-General points out that with reference to Circular No: XL dated the 25th October 1881 the drawing of pension and pay together was permissible ^{so long as} the Applicant held a non-pensionable appointment ^{only} in the Local Fund Dept., but that when the Appointment became pensionable in April 1885 the Applicant ought to have surrendered ~~at least~~ a portion of his pension with reference to the provisions of Art: 569, C. S. R. As, however, he did not surrender any portion of his pension, the Acc^t-Genl holds that he has forfeited all claims to pension in respect of his service from the 1st April 1885. The Acc^t-Genl also points out that the applicant

A applicant has paid pensionary contribution in respect of his pensionable service and that he was probably in the belief that the exemption granted in the Circular No: XL of the 25th October 1881 continued to operate while he held the pensionable appointment.

For orders as to whether, in the circumstances, the applicant may be given the pension admissible for his subsequent service of 12 years and 3 months, in which case the sanction of the Government of India will be necessary for writing off the amount of pension irregularly drawn - viz: Rs: 2375-4-9 with reference to provisions of Art: 279 of the Civil Account Code. - No precedent can be traced.

14/13-7-88. Submitted that Rs 2375-4-9 is a very large sum to write off in applicant's favour; & presumably he wd not be willing to refund it in consideration of getting a pension of Rs 7-2-9 a month.

Submitted that he must take the consequence of having "eaten his cake" & should get nothing now.

Mu
18/7/88

Please see reply from the Acctt Genl. to OM No 57 of 10-8-99. The A-G says that it is doubtful if Art 279 A applies to the case, and that the best solution of the difficulty will be to refuse any additional pension for the applicant's subsequent service as the first pension continued to be drawn on re-employment in Govt service.

May the A-G's advice be followed?
