Proceedings of the Collector of Malabar.
Dated 20th August 1892.

On the 30th July, 3 tenders were received from the Spectator Press, the Empress Press, and the Vidhya Vilasam Press for printing the local fund forms. They were sent to the Deputy Collector in charge of the Press for the rates to be checked and it was found that there was very little difference between the tenders of the first two. There was some ambiguity in the tender of the Empress Press and the Deputy Collector happened to ask some questions about it in the presence of the Local Fund Head Clerk, who promptly communicated with the Manager of the Press, who explained it by a letter. The Local Fund Head Clerk ought not to have done this on his own motion without consulting the Deputy Collector. It lays him open to the suspicion of being in the pay of the Empress Press. It may have been done in good faith, but it is highly suspicious. The Spectator Press sent in another letter offering a certain discount on the 12th August, the date on which the Empress Press letter was received clearly showing that information of the move of the Empress Press had been promptly communicated to the Spectator Press by some one in the office in its pay.
