Mis. No. 4182

The Hon'ble Mr. J. Thomson.

Resolution.

With reference to Government Order No. 427, Pension, dated 3rd July 1899, the Board begs to report that it has restored M.R. Ry. M.A. Janakirama Aiyar to his post of Assistant Inspector, IIIrd grade, and that he joined his appointment on the 23rd idem. It must now request orders as to how the period during which he was out of employ (from the 6th October 1898 to 21st July 1899) should be treated. It was ruled in Government Order No. 1394, Pension, dated 21st November 1889, that in cases in which a retired officer is allowed to return to duty instead of being granted a pension, the appointment made on his account should be cancelled; but the orders do not cover the present case.

2. The Assistant Inspector, who had put in a total qualifying service of 30 years, 11 months and 27 days prior to the 6th October 1898 (the date of the expiry of his one year's furlough), was allowed to retire from that date on the assumption that, in following a precedent quoted in para 5 of Board's Proceedings Mis.No.3457, dated 29th August 1898, the period amounting to 3 years, 4 months and 6 days between 1877 and 1881 during which his services were lent to the Madras Municipality, might count for pension, and that the arrears of his pensionary contribution, which were then left uncollected, might be recovered from the Municipality. The Accountant-General, however, pointed out that, under the existing rules, the Assistant Inspector's transfer to the Municipality was an interruption in his service and could be admitted for pension purposes only with the special sanction of the Government of India; and Government observed that, in the face of the recent instructions contained in the Resolutions of the Government of India No.1282 P, dated 20th March 1899, it was not prepared to recommend the acceptance of the pensionary contribution in arrears, and directed the reinstatement of the Assistant Inspector and his retention until he attained the age of 55 years (18th May 1900).

3. Owing to the break in his service, the Assistant Inspector lost his right to furlough other than the one year which he was ~~enjoying~~ ^{enjoying} at the time of submitting his pension application, and ~~that~~ the Board considers that it would be inequitable to treat him as on leave without allowances from the expiry of his leave. He was not to blame for the failure of the Educational Department (in which he was serving at the time of his deputation) to arrange for the recovery of pensionary contribution from the Municipality, and the Board therefore recommends that the interval between the date of his retirement and that of his rejoining his appointment may be treated as time spent on duty and that he may be granted arrears of pay for the period. There were vacancies in the grade of Assistant Inspectors during the time.

The case cannot be dealt with under article 278 A civil account code. The proposal of the Board cannot therefore be adopted without the sanction of the Government of India. There is however no objection to the extension up to 21 July 1899 of the furlough granted to the officer as he is entitled to it.
