Court's Reference NO.82,dated 12th September 1899.

With reference to paragraph 2 of Government Order NO. 879 Pension,dated 21st September 1896,the Court of Wards solicits the sanction of Government for the employment of Rao Bahadur P.K.Jagannatha Chettiyar Avargal,Tahsildar of Kumbakonam as guardian to the Ettiyapuram minor of a sanctioned salary of Rs.312-8-0 per mensem.

2. The Ettiyapuram minor comes of age in December next and the appointment of Rao Bahadur Jagannatha Chettiyar was necessitated by the sudden departure of the minor's former tutor and guardian,Mr.C.H.Payne,who obtained permission to proceed to England on urgent private affairs.The Court of Wards desired to replace Mr.Payne by an officer who would not only be competent to instruct the minor in regard to the management of his estate but would also be a suitable person for retention in the capacity of estate manager after the property leaves the hands of the Court of Wards.Rao Bahadur Jagannatha Chettiyar,who is an officer of marked ability,unblemished reputation and long experience was specially selected for this post and the temporary loan of his services was sanctioned by the Board under the authority conferred upon it by Government Order NO.886-Revenue,dated 19th September 1891,his salary being fixed at the maximum rate admissible under article 806,clause (iv) of the Civil Service Regulations.

3. The Ettiyapuram minor has expressed his satisfaction at this arrangement and Rao Bahadur Jagannatha Chettiyar has at his own request request since been permitted to retire from the service. The Court understands that he was granted a special extension of service during the current year and that he is eligible for a superannuation pension.

Submitted. Mr R. Jagannatha Chetty was retired from the service with effect from the 28 August 99 and his application for a superannuation pension is under examination in this office. His present age is 56 years.
Although his retention in service for the current official year has been sanctioned, yet he has elected to retire under article 508 Civil Service Regulations; and his reemployment as guardian to the Ettiapuram minor so long as the Samin-dai remains under the management of the Court of Wards, will require the special sanction of Government agreeably to the last para of G.O. No 879, Pen, dated 21-9-96.

FOR ORDERS.

Please see Proceedings of the Court of Wards No 82 2/12-9-99. M.R.R. P.K. Jagannnatha Chetty, Tahsildar of Kumbakonam, was specially selected for the post of Guardian to the Ettiapuram minor, and the temporary loan of his services was sanctioned by the Board of Revenue under the authority conferred upon it by G.O. 886 Rev. 2/19-9-91; and his salary was fixed at Rs. 312-8-0 p.m., the maximum rate allowed by art. 806, clause IV of the C.S.R. The Court of Wards now says that at his own request he has since been permitted to retire from the service, as, being 56 years of age now, he is eligible for a superannuation pension; and requests that sanction of Govt. may be obtained for his continuing in the appointment.

Indian to the Etchapuram minor. A pension application on behalf of Jagannatha Chetty has also been submitted, and the A.G. certifies that he is eligible for a superannuation pension of Rs 125/- p.m. The question for consideration is whether Jagannatha Chetty should be granted the superannuation pension of Rs 125/- p.m., and yet allowed to remain on as guardian to the Etchapuram minor on a salary of Rs 312-8-0 p.m.

In the case of one Arunachellam Pillai, the Hospital Assistant, who was taken on in 1882 by the Madras Durbar as its chief medical officer, the Govt. of India took objection to his having been granted in 1883 an Invalid pension for his service under Govt., and allowed to remain on as Chief Medical Officer of the Durbar drawing the pension in addition to the salary paid by the Durbar. Art. 510 C.S.R. also rules that "no officer may retire with the view of being reemployed, whether in the Govt. service or in service paid from an Incorporated Local Fund and drawing pension in addition to pay". But the Court of Wards' funds do not come under the category of Incorporated Local Fund.

See The H.G. against the Special sanction of the Govt. Submitted that it may be accorded as a special case. The late Hon Mr. G. had of the Hon. Mr. Thomson had, I know, the very highest opinion of Jagannatha Chetty. In Jaipur he was the only Talukdar whose reputation was sans reproche.
