Duplicate of the application sent through the Superintendent of Police Madras on the 21st September 1899.

To

The Government of Madras.

The humble application of Syed Kasim Sahib late Constable No 1125 of Masinudi Street Madras most respectfully Sheweth

That he enlisted himself as a peon in the District Jail Madras in the year 1860 and as ordered by the jailor he transferred his services to the Police Force in 1862 which he continued till 1876, when he fell sick. Where upon he was given a gratuity as he was unable to discharge his duty.

That he now comes to know that the Government is good enough to grant pension to such persons as are under gratuity in the Northern District

Under these circumstances he humbly begs that the Government will be good enough to grant him pension and thus protect him and his large poor family whose subsistence entirely depends upon him

He begs to remain
Most Respectfully
Shoreh
