Copy of minute of 2 G HC no 391 Rangiah
of E Dr. Kaluvoy.

I inspected this Head Constable's Station on the 12" January last. I found him very ignorant of his duties but in order to give him a chance of improving himself, I ordered him to go about with the Inspector and acquire some practical knowledge of his work. I warned him for reduction on the 5" January 1888. 1st class Inspector Mahmad Khajah Sahib reports that though he has severely warned this Head Constable on several occasions regarding his want of promptitude in carrying out his duties, he has not shown the slightest reform in this respect. Inspector gives two instances of his entirely disregarding his orders. Head Constable was ordered to be present at 6.30 A.M, while Inspector enquired case no $\frac{8}{1888}$ on the Atmakur Station file. Head Constable turned up at 11 a.m. after Inspector had completed his investigation. His excuse is, that, by the time he had returned from answering the calls of nature to his lodging, the house owner had locked up the house and he could not get his uniform. It is quite clear that he did not get up sufficiently early in the morning but snoozed away in bed till till a late hour. Again on 20th February at 4 P.M., Inspector ordered this Head Constable to go to Deyvarayapalli and be present when he inspected the records early in the morning. Instead of going at once as he was told to do, he went home, remained there all the night of the 28th and did not reach Deyvarayapalli till 10 a.m. on the 29th. For this neglect Head Constable says he had a sore on his knee and could not walk fast. It is quite clear that he made no effort to reach the place on the date he was ordered to start but lingered behind for severa hours. This Head Constable does not appreciate the importance of energy and promptness in a police officer but seems to think that everything must adapt itself to his comfort and convenience. It is impossible to train up a man who displays so much unwillingness. I award a black mar for the above mentioned instances of neglect an this entails reduction under the black mark system. 2d Grade Head Constable 391 Ramgiah is accordingly reduced to 3rd Grade under the black mark system for (1) having failed to attend at the investigation of a theft case as ordered by his Inspector (2) for remaining absent when Inspector examined station records though specially ordered to be present.

till

Copy of minute of 3 G Hd Cons No 391 Rangiah of E Division. Kaluvoy Station.

This Head Constable was fined 1 Rupee and awarded 1 B.M. on 31.12.88 for referring as false 2 cases of his Station under Sec 451 & 406 I.P.C. respectively though there was sufficient evidence to charge them. He was again fined 1 Rupee and awarded 1 B.M. on 14.1.89 with a warning for reduction, for failing to charge the accused person in Crime No. 28 of his Station and to apply to the Magistrate for process in order to arrest him. He is now reported for not keeping his station records properly written up and for failing to attend to the instructions given by his Inspector in regard to the entries to be made in the Crime Register and other Books. The Head Constable in his defence, pleads ignorance of orders but he seems habitually careless. I therefore award him 1 B.M for this offence and reduce him to 4th Grade Head Constable under P.O. 74.
