LOCAL & MUNICIPAL DEPT.
CURRENT No. 343

Humble petition of-Manjeshwar Sheik Hafeem,
the retired Head Lascar attached to the Local Fund Engineer's Office, South Canara, Mangalore.

Most respectfully Sheweth-

That your Excellency's memo-rialist was admitted in Government service as a peon
in the petty Establishment of the Imperial Public Works Department about the year 1858 and served in that Department for upwards of 22 years, under different Officials and in the Districts of Coimbatore, Malabar and South Canara.

2. That in 1880 when a general reduction was taken place in that Department, the services of Your Excellency's Memorialist and some other Lascares, were transferred to the then newly formed Local Fund Engineer's Department, and here, again, he served with integrity and zeal, for upwards of 18 years on a salary from Rs 7 to 8- per mensem.

3. That Your Excellency's poor Memorialist was permitted to retire in 1898, being an invalid and he at once did so, in sanguine hopes of getting an invalid pension of Rs 4- for his painful and long service of 40 years.

4. That as Government have now in G. O. No 669 of 5th September 1898 sanctioned only a compensation of Rs 42- in the case of your Memorialist, at a time when he is above 69 years old, and become an invalid, utterly incapable of doing anything for the future for his livelihood, he cannot but fall at Your Excellency's gracious feet for mercy and justice.

5. That your Excellency's poor Memorialist, seeing the great misfortune of his being thrown adrift in the street, asked his Departmental Superior, to give his (Your Memorialist's) son at least the last post on Rs 6. in succession but this also was not done yet.

6. That Your Excellency's Memorialist, being given to understand that the benign Government

Government has sanctioned in G. O. No 1175 of 14th March 1899 in the case of one Antony Souza, a Taluk Overseer (clerk) Laskar who is junior to your Memorialist in every respect and joined the Local Fund Department along with your Memorialist, an invalid pension of Rs 3- per mensem, most respectfully prays that Your Excellency will, on a merciful consideration of his long and painful service, as also old age of your Excellency's Memorialist, be graciously pleased to grant him an invalid pension of Rs 4 per mensem, as in the case of the aforesaid Laskar Antony Souza.

For this act of Charity Your Memorialist shall remain ever grateful to your Excellency.

Sheik Husein in Arabic character).

Respectfully submitted thro' the District Board P.T.M., Engineer, South Canara, with ind. No 677 from Govt. Pen. Dep.
