Very Sergeant
S. Rao
29-8-99.

This man has had a long series of illness dating back from 1893. The worst of them was Sunstroke followed by paralysis for which he had one years leave in '94 and was recommended to go to England. His last ~~of~~ leave of 6 months, with two extensions bringing him up to date, was for malarial fever with enlargement of the spleen in August of last Year. During his first extension he had a Smart attack of wind stroke. During his Second, quite recently, of phlebitis of the leg. He keeps well as long as he is doing nothing but has a tender spot on the spine between the Scapulae and is in my opinion quite unfit for the exposed life of a Forest Range Officer. As he is so liable to break down on slight provocation. I therefore recommend his being retired on invalid pension, and return his disease as Sunstroke as his uncertain and debilitated health seems to be due and to date from that affection.
