Order 11th Decr. 1899 No. 852.

As the petitioner counted service on the temporary establishment under the provisions of art. 410 of the C.S.R, his pension was calculated on the pay of the permanent appointment agreeably to art. 534 of the C.S.R. His request for an increased pension is therefore inadmissible.

To

His Excellency Sir Arthur Elibank Havelock G. C. M. G, G. C. I. E. Governor of Madras. Through the Commissioner of Revenue Settlement and Director of the Department of Land Records and Agriculture, Madras.

The humble petition of C. Govinda Pillai, late a clerk in the office of the Board of Revenue, Revenue Settlement, Madras.

Most respectfully sheweth:—

Your excellency's humble petitioner most respectfully begs to submit the following few lines, ardently praying that they may receive every favourable consideration at your Excellency's generous hands.

Your Excellency's petitioner begs to state that he was employed as a temporary peon in the year 1859, by Mr. Newill, first Director of Revenue Settlement, who organised the Department and after two years good Service was confirmed in that post by that officer, that is in the year 1861. Thinking it would be to his advantage to perform his duties punctually, honestly and well, in order that he may expect to get some advancement, being somewhat educated, he worked very hard for about nine years to the entire satisfaction of Mr Master whom he accompanied in all his tours of inspection. During the greater part of this period he was actually discharging the duties of a Gumastah drawing the pay of a peon. No sooner was the printing of the Settlement Registers of Godaveri taken up in hand in the year 1865, than he was tried in the Clerical work in connection therewith. Having been found fit and efficient he was appointed as a permanent Gumastah on Rs 15. per mensem in the Supervisor's office, Salem in 1870. Subsequently Mr Banbury becoming Director of Revenue Settlement, transferred the petitioner at his own request to the Central office on Rs 12, per mensem. The petitioner begs to submit that he had discharged his duties here, so well that he was promoted to the higher grade of Gumastah on Rs 15 in 1873. Barred by examination rules for further promotion in the permanent establishment, he obtained promotion as an Extra Gumastah on Rs 19 in 1874 and was lastly appointed as an Extra Gumastah on Rs 25 in 1878, of course with a lien in his permanent post on Rs 15 per mensem. He continued to hold this up to the time of his retirement. In a petition to W. Wilson Esq. M. A. Director of Revenue Settlement and Agriculture Madras to exempt him from examination rules, the Director endorsed that though the petitioner could not be given exemption, he was quite eligible for further promotion W.J. (~~Vide no. 840 of 22-8-90 which is herewith submitted for reference~~) W.J. There was no opportunity to get promotion and the petitioner continued to draw the same salary, Viz Rs 25. He has, thus served the Government for a period of 39 years and odd, to the best of his abilities and although no increase was made in his pay, he had one consolation in the hope of getting a substantial reward in the shape of a full pension when the time comes for his retirement from service. Now to his utter discomfiture he is sorry to find that the Accountant General and Board allowed him only a pension of Rs 7-8-0 calculated on the pay of his substantive post. Viz. Rs 15 and not on the pay which he was drawing for the last 18 years (Rs 25). The reason is not far to seek. They hold that he being a temporary Gumastah on Rs 25, he was not eligible for pension on his temporary pay, although he happened to draw that pay continuously for the last 18 years. They also hold that he must revert to his substantive post if he wants any pension at all. Your Excellency's petitioner begs to state a few words with regard to the temporary establishment of the Settlement Department which he was serving. The temporary establishment is an adjunct to the permanent establishment and transfers and promotions are made from the one to the other.

The temporary establishment was originally an adjunct of the different Settlement parties working in the various Districts of the Presidency but located in the Central office, the Gumastahs receiving their pay from the various parties to which they were posted, and it has been in existance ever since Settlement operations began in this Presidency and the petitioner ventures to state that it will continue as long as the permanent establishment lasts. Although article 415(a) expressly states that service in the Settlement Department in this Presidency although of a temporary nature, is pensionable yet the petitioner was not given the benefit of that article for reasons unknown to him.

Under these circumstances your Excellency's humble petitioner most humbly and respectfully begs that your Excellency will be graciously pleased to see into the grievances of the petitioner and order the granting of the pension of Rs 12-8-0 calculated on the pay of his temporary post which he was drawing for the last 18 years of his service and he hopes that his prayer will not end in vain.

For which act of kindness and generosity your Excellency's humble petitioner shall, as in duty bound ever pray.

Your Excellency's most humble petitioner

Read petition from C. Govinda Pillai, late clerk, Board of Revenue, Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture, dated 31st July 1899.

Resolution

The petition of C. Govinda Pillai will be submitted for the consideration and orders of Government.

2. The petitioner prays for the grant of a higher pension than that found admissible by the Accountant General and sanctioned by the Board, Viz, Rs 7-8-0 per mensem. He held a substantive appointment on Rs 15 per mensem in the permanent establishment of the rd's Office and was deputed a extra Gumastah on Rs 25 mensum in the temporary tablishment attached to it. The tter appointment he held continuously for over 18 years, until he was retired with effect from 1st April 99, and he now claims that his pension should be calculated on the pay he was drawing in the temporary establishment and should be fixed at Rs 12-8-0 per mensum. As regards the admissibility of this claim, the Accountant General expressed the opinion that if the period of the petitioner's service in the temporary establishment counted for pension under article 410 of the Civil Service Regulations, his pension should be calculated on the pay of the substantive appointment appointment held by him. viz Rs 15, but that if it counted under Article 415, the pension might be calculated on the pay of the temporary appointment. It is not clear what the expression "Regular departments" used in Article 415(b) of the Civil Service Regulations means. The temporary establishment maintained in the Board's Office in connection with the printing of settlement registers in which the petitioner was employed continuously for over 18 years, has not been fixed on any definite scale sanctioned by Government and its strength was further liable to fluctuation with reference to the requirements of each year. The Board accordingly held that the petitioner counted service in the temporary establishments, not under Article 415 but in virtue of the provisions of article 410 of the Civil Service Regulation and

On enquiry, the A.G.'s office too is unable to give a correct meaning of the term and sanctioned the maximum pension admissible, calculated on the pay of the petitioner's substantive appointment.

3. The petitioner's case is no doubt a hard one. He has been drawing Rs 25 per mensem for the last 18 years of his service in what may be called a quasi-permanent appointment. The temporary establishment, in which he was employed, was originally entertained under the discretionary power vested in the Director of Revenue settlement, under G.O. No 706 dated 25th May 1859, and it has been in existence continuously, though with varying strength, for thirty years and more, and is likely to be kept on so long as the Settlement Department continues to exist. There are at present thirteen men in this temporary establishment who hold no permanent appointments but have put in a service of twenty to twenty five years, and four men who who have put in from fifteen to eighteen years.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

№ 4428 Mis
7-7-99

From the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, R.S. LR+A. marginally noted, it is observed that the applicant's service of 18 years as Extra Gumastah in the temporary establishment does not count for pension under the strict letter of the rules. This establishment was treated as temporary, because employés were taken on and discharged according to the requirements of each year; but the applicant served in it continuously for 18 years. Unde the circumstances, the A.G. is requested to report whether, as in the case disposed of by G.O. 588 Pension d/6-7-82, the applicant's service of 18 y may be considered not to be of a temporary nature, and whether it may be allowed to count for pension under art 404 of the CSR, as far as account purposes are concerned.

To
THE Secretary to the Commissioner of

SIR,

With reference to your Memo No. 836 dated 2d of May 1899 requesting instructions as to the pay that should be taken into account in determining the amount of pension to be granted to C. Govinda Pillai, retired Extra Gumastah in the Settlement Department of the Office of the Board of Revenue, I have the honour to state that as the appointm of Extra Gumastah on a pay of Rs 25 a month which the applicant held from 1st January '81, was merely temporary his pension should be calculat only on the pay of his permanent appointment — agreeably to Article 534 of the Civil Service Regulation as the service in question apparently counts for pension under Article 410 Civil Service Regulations only. If the service qualified under Article 415 Civil Service Regulations the pension could be calculated on the pay of the temporary appointment. It is not stated on what understanding he was engaged in the Settlement Deptt. of the Boards' Office but I apprehend that this appointment did not belong to the "Regular Deptt." of Settlement in Madras for the purposes of Article 415 (a) & (b).

The enclosures to your Memo under reply are herewith returned."

SIR,

Encls.

T.

With reference to your Official Memorandum No. 73 dated the 19th of October 1899 enquiring whether the service of C. Govinda Pillai as Extra Gumastah, Revenue Boards' Office (Settlement) extending over 18 years may be considered not to be of a temporary nature, as was done in the case disposed in G.O. No. 588 dated 6th July 1882 and whether it may be allowed to count for pension under Article 404 Civil Service Regulations, I have the honour to state as follows. The above article applies to the case of an establishment the duties of which are not continuous, but are limited to certain fixed periods in each each year, but in the present case the applicant was employed in an appointment sanctioned for an unlimited period, the strength of which was dependent upon the requirements of each year. Hence the two kinds of temporary establishments are not identical. This Office letter to the Board No. $\frac{\text{Pen V. 95}}{1826}$ dated 19th May '99 (Copy enclosed) explains why the case under reference was brought under article 410 and not under 415 Civil Service Regulations. The case quoted as a precedent in the Memorandum under reply is a special one and cannot therefore be taken as applicable to all similar cases. The grant to the Petitioner of a pension at an enhanced rate calculated on the pay of the temporary appointment will therefore require the confirmation of the Government of India agreeably to Article 1004 of the Civil Service Regulations.

The papers received with your Memo under reply are herewith returned.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your Most Obedient Servant,

Accountant General.

FOR ORDERS.

The petitioner was a clerk on Rs 15/- in the permanent establishment of the Board's Office (Sett. Dept.) till the 1st Jany 1881, when he was promoted to the post of Extra Gumastah on Rs. 25/- in the temporary establishment in the same office, which post he held till his retirement on 1st April 1899. For his service of 29 years & odd he was thereupon granted by the Board a pension of Rs. 7-8-0 p.m., being 30/60th of his permanent pay - Rs 15/-. He now asks that he may be given a pension of Rs 12-8-0 being 30/60th of his pay as Extra Gumastah - Rs 25/-, which he drew for the last 18 years of his service. The petitioner, it will be observed, counted service on the temporary establishment under the provisions of art. 410 CSR, and so his pension was, as pointed out by the Acctt. Genl., calculated on the pay of the permanent appointment agreeably to art. 534 CSR. His request seems therefore inadmissible. Hence draft order for approval.
