No 18

Proceedings of the District Court of Tinnevelly dated 6th February 1893.

Read report from the District Munsiff of Ambasamudram No. 227 dated 25th October 1892 and the other papers connected with the enquiry held by the District Munsiff into the Conduct of Thiruvenkatam Iyer, Deputy Nazir of his Court.

The District Munsiff of Ambasamudram in October 1892 reported that his Deputy Nazir was allowing various irregularities of a serious nature to exist and was giving dissatisfaction to the public and those serving under him. Also that he was causing a scandal by constantly frequenting the house of a well-known prostitute.

2. The District Munsif's report was a long one and spoke strongly against the Deputy Nazir; but as it was not based on evidence recorded I caused the evidence to be recorded as well as the explanation of the Dy Nazir.

766

3. The District Munsif in January 1893 reported that as the Deputy Nazir had shown improvement he should not be severely dealt with

4. The District Munsif was in March 1892

requested to report on this Deputy Nazir. He delayed the matter till October 1892 which through want of the most necessary information has stood over for disposal till now, viz nearly a year

5. This delay is very unsatisfactory. It is no wonder that with this enquiry pending the Deputy Nazir should have shown improvement. The wonder would have been if he had shown no improvement

6. It is quite clear from his own admissions that he created a public scandal by constantly visiting and singing and playing with a prostitute, that he was distributing processes with great partiality (Vide testimony of the District Munsif himself) and that he made the process-servers do private work for him. It is also very probable that he took bribes from his subordinates for showing favour to them He will now be suspended for a fortnight, such suspension not to count as a break in service

No. 227 From
A. Swaminatha Sastriar
District Munsif,
Ambasamudram.
To
The District Judge,
Tinnevelly.

Sir,

Under Proceedings No. 61 of the Dt. Court dated 25th March 1892 I have been directed to take such notice as I may deem proper regarding a letter and a summons referred to therein and report the result to the Dt. Court.

2. The suit to which summons relates was compromised on the 18th March 1892. The letter purporting to be written by a Process server Gurusami Naidu seems to me to be spurious and the English letter addressed to the Dt. Court seems to have been written not at Tenkasi but at Ambasamudram. I had some clue as to the person who wrote the English letter and I waited rather long to see the man & get the truth of the case from him. Turning up two months ago he seems to have told my informant that he was unwilling to appear before me or state the facts.

3. The deputy Nazir allowing various irregularities and of a serious nature too was giving great dissatisfaction to the public and those serving under him. One of these appears to have come by the summons above referred to which appears to have been sent to the Dy Nazir by tappal as the peon Gurusamy had to serve other processes till 21st March and to have written the private letter to the Dy Nazir in the name of Gurusamy and the English letter to the District Court. This practice of returning served processes by tappal to the Dy Nazir being considered illegal and undesirable has been discontinued. The private letter refers to two points of bringing some fruits for one Renganayaki and of satisfying the Dy Nazir if he would reserve a certain warrant of arrest for service by Gurusami. The warrant has been issued on the 17th and the letter probably purports to have reached the Dy Nazir on the 18th. Renganayaki seems to be a whore who has been residing at Sholapuram a hamlet attached to this place till 2 or 3 months ago and whose house the Dy Nazir admits to having frequented for purposes of teaching and hearing music. The statement of the peon that he does not know of the said female himself living in the same street and hamlet with her and there being ample evidence in proof of his frequenting her house is a daring falsehood. The peon no doubt seems to have been one of the trusted agents of the Deputy Nazir.

4 The Dy Nazir has been highly partial in the distribution of work. It is generally said and I do not disbelieve the statement that he has been so doing for consideration. Out of the 4 or 5 peons whom I examined one day regarding the irregularities in in the Nazarat one has actually given a statement that for purchasing the favor of the Nazir he has been paying him 8 as a month. One Amin whom I happened to examine on the same day has given a statement that 7 or 8 months ago he had to advance a small loan to the Dy Nazir, that he made demands for the return of the same more than once and has eventually given up the idea of recovering it. The Dy Nazir says that he does not remember if he borrowed. Till about 4 months ago the distribution of pay of the Process service Establishment was being made by the Dy Nazir. I was hearing various complaints that he was not making the payments regularly, that he was taking their signatures one day and making the payments afterwards in several instalments and that he appropriated a small portion of the pay for his own use. The Head Clerk too told me more than once that the complaints were growing serious. I had eventually to order the distribution of pay to the Process service Establishment by the Head Clerk. People who were either idle or unwilling to work seem to have been purchasing the favor of the Deputy Nazir. On learning of the gross partiality in the distribution of processes I called for work list of the Process Establishment in the month of September, 1891. The list for August was submitted on the 23rd and that for July on the 24th September 1891. The two lists herewith forwarded will show the nature of the distribution. It is found from them that Tha. Santhara-lingam and Sivasubramoniam were given little or no work during those two months, the Deputy Nazir making bold to write as against their names that they were little weak. I may observe that Sivasubramoniam had to be retired in April last on the certificate of the District Surgeon. From September 1891 I have been now & then checking the distribution of work and I believe there is a fair distribution now. Many a time have process servers and amins been returning their processes after their due dates and still the conduct of such people has seldom been brought to my notice by the Deputy Nazir. Several men personally complained to me that he was doing so for some consideration and various pseudanimous letters were also addressed to me. On examining the C Register I found that the complaints were true and have strictly directed the Deputy Nazir to bring to my notice such irregularities.

5 The irregularities having been brought to my notice and in a manner also to that of the District Court and proper superintendance being placed upon the work of the Deputy Nazir. I believe that such irregularities are decreasing in quantity & quality and that the Dy Nazir is beginning to show a tendency to reform himself. These irregularities I have had to refer to and also to enquire into as the alleged letter of the peon and the letter to the District Court seem to have been their outcome. In these circumstances, I have thought fit to place the facts concerning these people before the Dt Court for its orders rather than pass orders myself. The Deputy Nazir puts up a service of over 20 years and I am of opinion that he need not severely be dealt with. In conclusion I humbly beg to state that the delay in me in making this report may be considered undesirable. As I have already said it took me some (~~things~~ months) before I found out that the man connected with the preparation of the letters in question would not appear before me. I personally took the permission of the Dt. Court to enquire into the matter after the last summer recess and I would have made this report early in August last but for the fact that I wanted to make the report to the Permanent District Judge after having a conversation on the matter. The two letters and the two work-lists referred to herein are herewith submitted.

I have the honour,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
