Deputy Secretary to Government

Honored Sir,

I crave permission to submit the following circumstances for your favorable consideration.

I have been upwards of 38 years employed as a Moorhee in the Government Office and have now grown old and infirm in the service, and as I can no longer labor in my capacity as a Moorhee, may I respectfully entreat that your honor will be generously pleased to recommend me for a gratuity calculated in accordance with the length of my servitude. I am aware that the provisions contained in the Pension Rules do not guarantee to Moorhees &^{see} any pensionary allowance, but but I believe there may be found cases of a special nature, - similar to mine, that have been permitted to retire from service on the grant of a gratuity. I beg therefore most earnestly to entreat that my case may be recommended for the same indulgent consideration

Honored Sir,
