old age.

Committee are averse to submitting a request for pension; - but they would beg to recommend the award of a Gratuity in the present instance, should the Government be pleased to consider the Gollah's long service deserving of their special recognition. This course has been adopted (the Committee understand) in a few particular cases wherein old and worn out servants &

Report of the Civil Auditor.

8/1-57

The Civil Auditor has the honor to report that, the service of Gundappa, a Gollah on the Establishment of the Mint Office, extends over a period of 38 years from 1st January 1811 to 30th April 1835 and from 30th April 1842 to 30th April 1856 and that, his salary is Rupees 10 per mensem. He is therefore entitled to the gratuity of 13 months salary under clause 2^d of the gratuity Rules, which amounts to R^o 130.

From a communication received from the Acting Mint Master through the Secretary to the Mint Committee dated the 22^d Ultimo, it would appear that, the gratuity sanctioned to Gundappa on the abolition of the Mint in 1835, was returned to the Sub-Treasurer on the 5th September 1836, in consequence, as it is stated of his retention by the Officer then in charge of the Mint. His services between 1835 and 1842 cannot be traced on the books of the Audit Office, owing, as it is believed, to Gundappa's salary having been drawn on Contingent Bills.
