Sir, In 1819 Chevaram Karadumma Chetty entered the public service in the Police Department as a Canacopillay in the House of Correction from which he was removed to the situation of Overseer in the Conservancy Department then as an Overseer under the Officer who had charge of the Government Roads at the Presidency and in 1833 he obtained his present position of Overseer at the Police Office. His particular duty is to report on encroachment on public grounds Roads or Streets and to inspect houses and grounds which may be the subject of dispute in cases before Magistrates. His work extends over the whole suburbs with the exception of the part lying north of Black Town. His long experience has given him an intimate knowledge of the Presidency which has rendered his services peculiarly valuable to the Magistrates but particularly to myself. He is well known

Report of the Civil Auditor.

The Civil Auditor has the honor to report, that the authorised official allowance of Chervaram Narayana Chetty, an Overseer in the Establishment of the General Police Office at Madras, for the last five years of his service, is Rs. 21 7/8 monthly; and that his name appears in the returns of the General Police Office for a period of 21 years; viz: from 1st May 1835 to 30th April 1856, up to which date returns from the General Police Office have been received. The services of this individual for the period anterior to the 1st May 1835, rendered in the Road Department, the accounts of which were not received in this Office, are not in consequence capable of verification, any more than his service in the Assessments Department which is not in the pay of Government.

Resolution.

It is observed that only a portion of the applicants' service has been verified by the Civil Auditor viz: from 1st May 1835 to 30th April 1836. Prior to May 1835 he is reported to have been employed in the Road Department, the accounts of which not having been furnished to the Civil Auditor that Officer is unable to verify the service of the Candidate rendered in that Department.

Resolved therefore that the papers connected with this application be forwarded to the Military Auditor General for verification.

Memorandum

1. In acknowledging the order of Government, dated 31 October 1856, the Military Auditor General has the honor to report, that, the Abstracts of the Superintendent of the Works Department at Madras have been carefully examined and the name of Cheevaram Kurusimma Chetty, appears therein as described in the annexed Memorandum.

2. The above Abstracts not being on record in this Office, it was necessary to obtain them from the Military Board, from whom they were recently received, which will account for the delay in submitting the verification called for by Government.
