Acting Chief Secretary to the Govt. of

Sir,

×original

I have the honor to forward an× application from the Zillah Judge of Chingleput for a gratuity to Mr. Lee the late Jailer calculated on a salary of 42 Rs. per mensem.

2. It occurred to me that Mr. Lee's salary being 42, instead of 20 Rupees, in consideration of his superintending the weaving, the portion of his pay in excess of 20 Rs. must be considered a personal allowance and as such could not be taken into account in fixing the amount of gratuity, I therefore requested Mr. Dowdeswell to forward the order× under which his salary was fixed at 42 Rs.

× C. M. C. 262. Judl. Dept. 24th March 1836.

P. 1.

3. It appears that a person of the name of Dogherty was previous to the 24th March 1836 employed on a salary of 365 Rupees a year, that the jailer's pay was 240 Rs. that Mr. Horsley then Zillah Judge proposed that Dogherty should be made Jailer receiving a monthly stipend of fifty Rupees for the double duty of superintending the weaving and as jailer. The Government however decided that 42 Rs. was sufficient and directed Dogherty's employment as jailer and – superintendent of the manufactures.

6. – It would appear that the same salary has been continued to Patrick Lee and I am unable to say whether the salary on which a gratuity should be calculated should be regarded as 20 or 42 Rs. – the latter sum has since the order quoted been regarded as the fixed salary.
